THE funeral of David Harry, the aged gentleman who accidentally killed himself with a revolver at the house of his daughter on Thirteenth street, Ogden, a few days ago, took place yesterday morning.

THE county court met this morning, all the members except Hardy being present. The session lasted about five minutes only, nothing of any public interest was transacted, and an adjournment was taken until 2 p. m. next Wednesday.

MARRIAGE LICENSES were issued today by County Clerk Savage to the following: Thomas Thomson, 22, of Salt Lake, and Selina Doty, 20, of West Jordan; to Robert M. Moffatt, 26, and Hannah P. Aitkins, 26, both of Salt Lake.

A SERIOUS accident to the NEWS' engine late Saturday afternoon rendered that evening's issue late in reaching the subscribers. The Salt Lake Herald ev[illegible] to the reason, stereotyped the [illegible] of the issue and printed it on its own press.

THE unfortunate man, Niels Anton Larsen, who was pronounced insane by Judge Bartch last Thursday, died in the county jail on Saturday midnight. The cause of his insanity was epileptic fits, and his case had been regarded by the doctors called to see him as a hopeless one. The remains were buried from Evans' undertaking establishment today.

THE Zion's Savings Bank and Trust Co., through its attorneys (John M. Cannon and Harlow Ferguson) filed a suit in the Third District court this afternoon against L. G. Hardy, county tax collector, seeking to enjoin the defendant from collecting the sum of $1647 from the plaintiff. The amount admitted by them is $153, and this has been already paid; but the collector demands the higher sum, the balance of the amount originally assessed against the property.

Action for Divorce.

Agnes Grimm vs. Jacob Grimm is the title of a divorce suit filed in the Third district court today by Bowman and Zipf, the plaintiff's attorneys. The parties intermarried at Mosbeim, Baden, Germany, in August, 1871, and have resided in this Territory about eleven years. Adultery, cruelty and failure to provide are the grounds named in the complaint and in which the application for divorce is based. There is one child issue of the marriage, a girl aged fifteen. Defendant is a stonemason by trade, and plaintiff believes that he is worth about $4,000. She asks for a reasonable sum to defray the expenses of this suit, for counsel fees and temporary alimony.

Judge Zane has granted an order enjoining the defendant from disposing of or in any manner encumbering his property during the pending of the suit.

Attorney Tatlock Back From the East.

Attorney E. W. Tatlock, one of the candidates for the vacant judgeship, arrived from Washington today and was met subsequently by a NEWS reporter. On the subject which now so directly concerns him, Mr. Tatlock said he of course knew nothing, but his manner indicated that he, at least, considers himself "well in the race." Since the gentleman left Washington some of his more intimate friends have received letters and telegrams which go to show that his chances may be regarded with much favor.

The Hamilton Robbery.

In the Hamilton robbery case, mentioned in the NEWS a few days ago, A. T. Hubbard was brought before Justice Gee this afternoon and asked for a continuance until 2 p. m. on Wednesday next. The request was granted.

Mary Brown, a witness in the case, was held until that time on a renewed bond of $200.

Arrested for Burglary.

Nightwatchman Thomas Dobson arrested, at 5 o'clock this morning, an individual who when taken to police headquarters gave his name as John Brown, age so 19 years, and nativity as Russian. The charge against him is burglary. He was caught, says Chief Paul, taking money from the till of a Commercial street restaurant. He is now behind the bars, where he will be kept until Wednesday next at 2 p. m., when he will be arraigned.

RIGHT FROM HEADQUARTERS

A "News" Representative, Now in New York, Sees the Party Managers,

AND OBTAINS THEIR VIEWS

For This Paper as to Tomorrow's Contest.—Both Sides are Confident.

Special to DESERET EVENING NEWS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—I called today at both the Democratic and Republican national headquarters to obtain the very latest estimate of both party managers on the eve of the great battle. As the representative of the DESERET NEWS I was courteously received, and the party managers at both places seemed interested to obtain the latest tidings as to how Utah will probably cast her vote. Mr. Harrity, chairman of the Democratic committee, readily handed out the following official opinion as to how he thought Cleveland would win the election: Solid South, 153; New York, 36; Indiana, 15; New Jersey, 10; Connecticut, 6; Wisconsin, 12; Michigan, 6; total, 244. "I acknowledge that Wisconsin and Connecticut are doubtful," said Mr. Harrity frankly, "but we can throw them out and still win by three votes."

Chairman Carter of the Republican committee would give no figures for the press, merely saying that the Democratic claims were preposterous, and that Harrison would surely win by a safe majority. Late today, however, members of the Republican committee furnished a table showing that they expect Harrison to secure 231 votes. In the list of states claimed is every Northern state, except New York, which they concede is doubtful, and every Western state except Nevada, which they concede to Weaver. They allow Weaver nothing else whatever. They claim nine votes in Michigan. The same bulletin of the Republicans claims that West Virginia and Delaware are as doubtful as New York is for the Democrats. As this is the first admission yet made by the Republicans that New York is in doubt, the Democrats are jubilant. They point to the narrow margin (nine votes) between defeat and victory on the Republicans' own admission and say that Indiana's fifteen votes alone can be relied on to wipe that out, to say nothing of Connecticut or any of the western states where the Democratic fusion with Weaver is counted on to take the votes from Harrison.

Bets on New York state going democratic are now freely offered at 2 to 1, with few takers. Governor Flower insists that Cleveland's plurality over Harrison in this state will be 80,000; other Democratic leaders says 70,000 and many even bets are made on the latter proposition.

At the Republican headquarters I met that staunch republican Colonel Shaughnessy, and asked him for an opinion on the result. He said frankly he thought Cleveland would carry New York state, but that he thought the Republicans could win without her. Bets are about even on the general result, though a few wagers were made today at the Hoffman House of $1000 to $800 on Cleveland. Odds are 10 to 8 on Cleveland's carrying Indiana.

The city is very quiet, old politicians say quieter than ever its before in history on the day before an election. It is impossible to gain any idea as the result from reading the papers. The Democratic organs claim that Cleveland's election is certain; the Republicans say there is no manner of doubt that Harrison will be the man of destiny. As far as public opinion can be indicated by the bets being made, it must be admitted the preponderance leans to the side of Cleveland.

AROUND THE COURTS.

An Action for Trespass Comes on Before Chief Justice Zane Today.

ANOTHER JURY FAILS TO AGREE.

Two Boys Arrested for Disturbing the Peace.—The Grand Jury Working on the "Install ment Plan," Etc.

Chief Justice Zane began his week's work in the Third district court, this morning, by dealing with several informal matters, which occupied about twenty minutes. These consisted of the following:

Joseph Kroutz vs. the Rio Grande Western Railway Co. In this suit the demurrer was overruled.

A file judgment was entered in the case of Wm. E. Smedley et al. vs. M. Shaughnessy.

In the matter of the Pierpont Manufacturing Co. vs. L. H. Otto, a demurrer was submitted by the plaintiff's attorney.

John H. Green et al. vs. W. I. Waite et al. The motion to set aside personal judgment against certain of the defendants was allowed.

George E. Chandler vs. Howard Robertson et al. Heard on disclaimer. A decree was entered quieting title in the plaintiff.

ACTION FOR TRESPASS.

The first case called on for trial (before a jury) was that of Lillie Trincser vs. Hyman Harris. It was an action for trespass, the damages claimed being $5000.

Attorney Frank Pierce appeared for the plaintiff; the defendant was represented by Judge Henderson and Attorney Arthur Brown.

Plaintiff is the owner of part of lot 7, in block 37, plat A, Salt Lake City survey, over which the defendant claims to have an entire right of way, he owning land immediately adjoining the same; but plaintiff insists that the right of way was granted to him solely as a roadway for pedestrians. Defendant, it appears, built a large livery stable and warehouse on his portion of land, south of the plaintiff's area, but the latter alleges that defendant has so constructed the premises that the eaves thereof overlap and discharge large quantities of water upon her land, her coal chutes and grates also extending thereon. It is her theory claimed that defendant has been using plaintiff's premises by hauling heavy wagon loads of freight over the same thereby obstructing and cutting up the ground. It is further said that plaintiff undertook to construct a stone walk along the north side of her premises in July, 1891, but that the defendant "by force of arms, threats and violence drove the workmen off and destroyed her improvements." It is for all this the $5000 is claimed.

City Engineer Dorenus was the first witness, and the case was expected to occupy the greater part, if not the whole, of the day.

ANOTHER JURY DISAGREES.

After spending twenty-four hours or more in consultation, the jury in the damage suit of Joseph M. Thompson vs. the Rapid Transit company returned at 5 o'clock yesterday Monday afternoon that they were unable to reach a verdict. Judge Zane therefore discharged them. This means that, unless the matter is compromised, the whole two and a half days' story will have to be told over again. It will be remembered that the sum of $20,000 was claimed by the plaintiff on account of the death of his 14-year-old son.

DISTURBING THE PEACE.

William Smith and Charlie Potts are boys about 14 years of age, and reside with their parents on Third West, Sixth South street. In the same neighborhood lives a blacksmith named Fritz Lundberg against whom these two and their companions seem to have a sort of grudge. On this account Mr. Lundberg is subjected to considerable annoyance at their hands, and on occasions he finds it necessary to eject them. On Thursday evening last the boys resorted to their old tricks, culminating in the arrest of the two defendants on Saturday afternoon on a charge of disturbing the peace—i.e., stone throwing at Lundberg. They were arraigned before Commissioner Greenman and released on their own recognizances on promising to come up again this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

IN ABEYANCE.

The civil cause list of the Third District court has fallen considerably behind, in consequence of the action against the Hyde Transit company having monopolized the court's time last week for two days and a half, some nine or ten cases which should have been disposed of by Friday night still remained to be tried when the court assembled this morning.

THE GRAND JURY.

This body of inquisitors will meet again next Thursday. They are doing their work this time on the "installment plan."

ELECTIONEERING.

Attorneys are few and far between in the vicinity of the courts today. The election tomorrow has probably something to do with it. It is the one absorbing topic, even around the halls of justice.

PROCLAMATION.

Mayor Roskin Forbids the Sale of Liquor Tomorrow.

The following issued by Mayor Roskin this afternoon is self-explanatory:

To whom it may concern:

In view of the fact that an election is to be held in the city on November 8th, in the interest of peace and order I do hereby forbid the sale, barter, dealing out or otherwise disposing of, within the limits of the city between six o'clock on the morning and seven o'clock in the evening of said day, any spirituous, vinous, malt or other intoxicating liquors.

Given under my hand this the 7th day of November, A. D. 1892.

H. S. ROSKIN, Mayor.

High Mountains in America.

Among the other great things in this country the number of its high mountains is a remarkable feature.

Including those of Alaska there are 300 mountains in the United States each exceeding 10,000 feet in height.

Most are in the Rocky and Sierra Nevada ranges and the greatest number are found in Colorado and Utah.

In Alaska, however, are the highest, there being in that territory five which each exceed 15,000 feet, and Mount Elias, also in Alaska, and 19,500 high is the loftiest peak in the United States territory.

Floated Thousands of Miles.

The waters of the ocean go dashing away and no one knows where. A bottle was thrown into the Atlantic, November 27, 1887, from Cephalonia, about four hundred miles out from Boston, recently washed ashore on a little islet in the Caribbean sea, 6,000 miles away.

MORE FIGURES.

Mr. Harrity is Sure of Cleveland's Election.

HARRISON'S CHANCES ARE GOOD

Wanamaker is Hopeful and Regards New York as "Safe."

THE OUTLOOK IN KANSAS.

U. S. Deputies in Alabama—Charged with Fraud Registration—Names Struck off the Lists.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Chairman Harrity of the National Democratic committee says that from information received from the West this morning, he was absolutely certain of the election of Cleveland. He says he will have 244 votes and Harrison 105.

The Mail and Express says the Republicans expect to carry 236 electoral votes and concede 141 to the Democrats. This is on the basis of putting the six votes of West Virginia in the doubtful column; also the three of Delaware and giving Weaver Nevada's three votes. Take gives Harrison 101 plurality in the electoral college and granting him West Virginia, he would have a majority of 110 over all. It says the Republicans cannot in view of this figure anticipate defeat for Harrison under any combination giving Cleveland all the states which he believes he will carry, together with New York, Indiana and Connecticut, and he will still be short of the necessary number to elect. Harrison might lose Illinois, Wisconsin, Kansas, Missouri and yet win. He might lose Colorado, Connecticut, Idaho, Maine, Montana, New Hampshire, North Dakota, Oregon, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Vermont, Washington, Wyoming and win.

IN THE ARCTIC.

Terrible Suffering of Wrecked Sailors.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—Amy Kershaw, the cook on the Helen Mar, who came down from the Arctic on the Bellinga, tells a story of terrible suffering and hardship after the wreck. Five survivors succeeded in getting on the ice and for thirty-eight hours suffered from cold and exposure. Mate Wade's legs were frozen to the knee; Kershaw's left foot was frozen. When rescued by the whaler Orca they were nearly dead. The Helen Mar carried a crew of thirty-three men, and of these twenty-eight were lost.

The Cotton Workers.

LONDON, November 7.—The secretary of the Amalgamated Association of Cotton Spinners has estimated that 50,000 persons will be rendered idle by the combined strike and lock-out in the cotton-spinning trade, which began on Saturday. The improved conditions, however, make it probable that many master spinners will continue to run the mills, and the number of idle may be reduced to 30,000. If this proves correct, the strikers will probably win, as they have ample funds with which to help those not at work to make a long fight.

DEATH FROM CHOLERA.

Theodore Child of Harpers' Publishing House.

TEHERAN, Nov. 7.—It is reported that Theodore Child of Harpers' publishing house, New York, has died of cholera in Ispahan. He was making a tour of the East.

Snow in St. Paul.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 7.—Snow with blizzard propensities is falling here today. The fall is comparatively light here, but in the state it has already fallen to a depth of six inches.

A hard storm is raging in North Dakota and much loss to stock is feared.

Anarchism Not Dead.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—The chief of police has documents which seems to show that anarchy in Chicago is not dead. It gives notice of a memorial meeting on Nov. 11th, the anniversary of the execution of the Haymarket anarchists. Though carefully worded, it is inflammatory throughout and advises bomb throwing and dagger for the "modern Cæsar," supposed to be Chief of Police McLaughlin.

THE NEW ORLEANS STRIKE.

Business Houses Suspended—Newspapers Affected.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 7.—The effects of the strike are more apparent this morning. There are few drays on the streets. Small spring wagons are in general use. No street cars are running. The city is remarkably quiet, and very little business is being done. At 7 a.m. the printers struck and the outlook for morning papers is not very bright, though they will try to get out editions tomorrow. The Daily States, being a non-union office, is not affected, and will publish as usual this afternoon.

The decision of the printers to join the strike traced up the other wavering organizations and the result is that all the unions which signed the call for a general strike now are out, or out of the union laborers. These have been allowed to remain at work, notwithstanding the important favor in the situation in order not to alienate opposition of the powerful cotton exchange. It is understood, however, that the men are ready to quit whenever the word is given. There is not a street car running, no work is being done, and the only sign of activity is in the wholesale grocery district against which the strike is chiefly directed. The new men there are willing to remain at work till the violence is so general as to make it unsafe. The grocers say if necessary they will close from thirty to ninety days. All the papers are closed by the strike of the pressmen, except the Daily States. It is reported that an attempt will be made to prevent it from coming out.

A proposition was made through the governor last night to arbitrate the question of hours and wages, but not the question of unionism alone. It has not been replied to by the other side, but it is barely thought that it will be accepted, as the cry of unionism is made the rallying point for the other side. Merchants say they will not recede any further. The militia is ready to come out at short notice. There is very little violence so far and nothing to warrant the sending of them, as the assistance of the police.

The mayor this afternoon issued a proclamation warning all citizens of his intention to enforce the law, and declaring that any breaches of the peace would be followed by arrest and imprisonment.

Kansas Probabilities.

BISMARCK, N. D., Nov. 7.—Chairman Spalding of the Republican committee, says a careful canvass has convinced the committee that the Harrison electors will carry the state by 1000, Republican congressman by 1500, and the state ticket by 1000. Chairman Marsalis of the Democratic committee claims the state for the democrats by 2000 to 3000. The legislature will be very close. It is claimed by both sides, Conservative politicians place the state in the doubtful column with chances favoring the Weaverites.

IN NEW YORK.

No Specials have Been Sworn in by U. S. Supervisor.

BUFFALO, Nov. 7.—No specials have been sworn in by the United states supervisor for service in election day. Beyond the two originally appointed for each district, one Republican and one Democrat. A large number of special deputies have been sworn in by the sheriff for election purposes.

Democratic and Republican managers issued an order to the Democratic boards of inspectors, supervisors and other election officers to insist upon the Democratic interpretation of the law. The appointment of deputy sheriffs is looked upon as a scheme on the part of democrats intended to have a semblance of law to support his position. Many citizens seem probable, especially in the districts in the lower part of the city, where many complaints of illegal registration have been made and where there have been many arrests. The United States officers have been instrumental in making up these cases and there is where the trouble is likely to occur.

South Carolina Quiet.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 7.—No interest to speak of is taken in the coming election. There is no doubt about the result in this state. So there is no excitement. The estimated vote will stand about this way: Cleveland, 70,000; Harrison, 20,000; Weaver, 1000 to 2000. Indications point to the election of five Alliance and two Democratic congressmen.

Latest from Indiana.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 7.—Postmaster-General Wanamaker passed through here this morning on his way from Indiana to Washington. To an Associated Press reporter he said the latest information from Indiana indicated that it would give a large majority for Harrison. New York, he considered to a more favorable condition than four years ago, and believed it safe for Harrison.

U. S. Deputies not Allowed Within 60 Feet of Polling Places.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 7.—General Shelley, chairman of the Democratic State committee, said this morning that U. S. deputy marshals would under no circumstances be allowed within thirty feet of the polling places. Democratic managers throughout the state have been so instructed.

Charge of False Registration.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—E. F. Osborne, a member of the state senate, was held to bail this morning on a charge of false registration.

Settlers Resign.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Assistant Secretary Nettleton, acting secretary of the treasury, has tendered his resignation, to take effect on Dec. 1.

Illegal Registration.

CAMDEN, N. J., Nov. 7.—The courts this morning struck off about 200 names said to have been illegally placed on the registry lists.

World's Fair Baby Dead.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—The Esquimaux baby born here a few days ago died this morning of sore throat.

Swept by a Cyclone.

GALVESTON, TEX., Nov. 7.—A cyclone a hundred yards wide, and a mile long, swept over an island seven miles down, yesterday, leveling everything before it. A number of houses were demolished, one man killed and eighteen injured.

Talmage Spiritually Absent.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Rev. T. De Witt Talmage was mysteriously absent from his tabernacle pulpit yesterday. It is rumored that his wife became insane in New Haven yesterday. They were there and a late telegram said they had returned to New York, but a call at their house this morning elicited the information from the housekeeper that they have not returned, and she did not know where they were. They went away on Thursday.

In the Hands of a Sheriff.

LAYTON, Nov. 7.—Receiving order was made today under the petition of T. Kane Walker of Shelley Castle, Warwick. The liabilities are $200,000. The estate consists of 3,400 acres of land and a lot of brass metal. The sheriff is in possession.

The Conservatory of Music Department of the Utah Normal College and Conservatory of Music Association is stronger today as to its corps of teachers than ever before.

The report the faculty has endorsed is false, as not one resignation has been received by the management.

Mr. C. F. Sayvee takes the position of director, but his reputation in the city is sufficient to satisfy all that the institution is stronger today than ever before.
