REPORTS FROM GUNALASKA.

Hunting Trespassers and Protecting Prisoners.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 13.—Reports from Gunalaska of August 1st says that the United States steamer "Rush" nearly ran on the rocks at St. George Island during a fog.

The cutter "Rush" picked up seven men in a whaleboat from the whaler "Triton." They were lost in the fog and had drifted around for ten days, before they were picked up. The boys were in a terrible condition when found, one having gone mad, and four others are not expected to survive.

The Examiner's Unalaska correspondent, under date of August 7th, writes that during a cruise in the vicinity of Seal Islands, she saw vessels had taken and shipped 3[illegible] sealing schooners. Many of these had to be brought to by shot, before they would hail, and only one schooner succeeded in running away. As about fifty schooners have received warning, next cruise of the war ships will be entirely devoted to the poachers, if caught in the Behring sea. The "Thetis" was to sail at the date of writing, and will be followed by others.

The Behring sea commissioners arrived on July 24th and are proceeding with their investigation.

H.M.S. "Pelican" has arrived here from its China station, and each nation now has three war ships here in addition to the United States cutters.

On July 28th, the "Corwin" captured a sealing schooner "Ethel" from San Diego with 170 skins on board. Next week the steamer "Alki" will be sent to Sitka with the prisoners and prizes.

The Grain Chaos and Crop Prospects.

BERLIN, August 13.—At first it was believed that the Russian chaos was directed at Germany, but the government now appears to be satisfied that it was prompted by economic motives. The German import of rye in the last decade has amounted only to about one sixth of her own product, but too failure of the German crop this year makes the situation more serious. The total statistics however, are encouraging for the hope that the harvest will be better than expected.

Reports of a rise in the price of rye in Holland has caused a further rise of one mark here today. But toward the close, the price receded two marks. Wheat advanced 25 marks, on unfavorable reports from New York.

THE HARVEST NOT SO SMALL.

LONDON, August 13.—The Times correspondent at St. Petersburg says: "In certain well informed circles here it is maintained that the harvest will in no way be so bad as pretended. The rye crop is not small enough to warrant the prohibition. The Czars is rather concerned a political move against Germany and Austria.

A Desperate Gang of Criminals Captured.

DETROIT, Mich., August 13.—A most desperate gang of criminals in Detroit was arrested today, charged with the shooting, last March, of Joseph Perrine, one of the wealthiest millers of the Northwest, and highly respected citizen of Detroit. The gang includes Johnny Connolly, Billy Connolly, Thomas Kennedy, Frank Griffiths, James McIlowell and Edward Reed. They have long been the terror of Detroit and the Countiness, at least, have criminal records in Cleveland, Ohio, Marquette, Mich., and other places, besides their native heath. Perrine, it will be remembered, was robbed by the gang after 24 hours' captivity.

Hanged.

LEXINGTON, Mo., August 13.—Chris Young, slayer of Steven Ferguson, was hanged this morning.

Vive Le Russie et La France.

PARIS, August 13.—Grand Duke Alexis has left Toulon for Vichy. As the carriage of the grand duke passed along the streets, the crowds cheered him enthusiastically, and as he smilingly bowed in response to the hearty greetings tendered him, the crowd broke out into cries of "Vive le Russie et la France," and "Vive le Czar." When the grand duke reached the railway station there was a repetition of the scenes of enthusiasm witnessed on the streets.

In the Hands of a Receiver.

BRYSON, Pa., August 13.—The Standard Plate Glass Works today passed into the hands of a receiver as the result of an amicable arrangement between the creditors of the W. E. Schmertz' estate and stockholders. The Schmertz' estate held a large block of stock and W. E. Schmertz was the treasurer of the company. Its failure made the appointment of a receiver necessary, in order to save the plant from sale by his creditors. The glass company is not embarrassed and will pull through all right. D. E. Wheeler is the receiver.

Contested Judgment.

CHICAGO, August 13.—Joseph Brothers & Company, dealers in dry goods, contested judgment this morning amounting to $17,000.

A False Rumor.

BOSTON, August 13.—A rumor that General Butler died yesterday suddenly on his yacht was circulated in this city last night and caused some excitement. It is ascertained from Lowell, where the general lives, that he is not on the yacht, but at home enjoying his usual good health.

Murdered in His Office.

PHILADELPHIA, August 13.—Joh Hane, aged sixty, a coal dealer, was found dead in his office this morning with his skull crushed. A club and a hatchet covered with blood, were lying on the floor of the office. Colored men have been seen lurking in the vicinity. They are suspected of having committed the deed, but they have not yet been apprehended. The motive for the crime is supposed to be robbery.

EULOGIES BY LOWELL.

The English Press Unanimously Sound His Praise.

LONDON, August 13.—The Times says: The death of Lowell will probably be more keenly and widely felt in England than would be that of any other American or, indeed, any man, save a fellow countryman. With his death there passes into history a really remarkable mind, whose reputation will grow with time. The corrupt politicians loved him, but he goes to the grave mourned by all that are best in America and amid the heartfelt regard and admiration of England.

The Standard says: "America may claim the distinction of his birth, but his fame belongs to the wide republic speaking the English tongue."

The Daily News says: "Lowell will be lamented in England not less than in America. He was a valiant fighter and always on the side of truth, humanity, justice, freedom, mercy and peace."

All the other London morning newspapers readily comments and long obituary notices.

Oliver Wendell Holmes Would Not Talk for Publication.

BOSTON, August 13.—Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes is much affected by the death of his life long friend, James Russell Lowell, although, he says, he had known it was coming a long time. He declined to talk on the subject for publication.

John Greenleaf Whittier on Lowell's Death.

NEWBURYPORT, Mass., August 13.—John Greenleaf Whittier was much shocked to hear about Lowell's death. "Too bad, too bad," he said. "It is indeed a great loss to American letters and to the world."

Blaine Was Very Sorry.

BAR HARBOR, Me., August 13.—Secretary Blaine, when informed of the death of James Russell Lowell, expressed his deepest sorrow. When asked if he would not make some statement about Lowell's career as a diplomatist, he declined.

Did Not Want any Religion.

ST. LOUIS, August 13.—Henry Rosin, the wife murderer, was hanged at 9:11 this morning. The condemned man refused to have the death warrant read, and at his request no religious services were read on the scaffold.

Bad Crops in Burmah.

LONDON, August 13.—Bad crop prospects are reported in Burmah, owing to drought.

Relief Measures in Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, August 13.—The relief measures for the diseased provinces are being rapidly pushed. Committees are expending money to small farmers to provide food and seed. The stamp of taxation rules have already been removed.

THE SPRINKLING TAX CASE

Still Pending in the Third District Court.—Matters Sent to Delinquents.

It will be remembered that, on July 25th, O. H. Pettit and fifty-two other taxpayers brought suit in the Third District court against City Assessor and Collector Clohe. In their complaint they alleged, among other things, that on May 5, 1891, the City Council of this city ordered a tax of 7 cents per foot on the property of the plaintiffs. They also allege that the council has no authority to collect said taxes for these reasons: That the council has been given no power to levy a local assessment for sprinkling the streets of this city for sprinkling purposes, and that the proceedings heretofore taken by the defendants have been without authority; that the ordinance in this action is one of common and general interest to many persons, and the plaintiffs bring the suit in their own behalf and on behalf of all other persons similarly situated, and who may intervene pro tem in the case.

They ask judgment as follows: That the ordinance creating said tax, viz., No. 1, be void; that the proceedings of the Council under that ordinance levying a local assessment of 7 cents per front foot against the property of the plaintiffs are void; that the defendant has no authority to collect said tax and that he be restrained from proceeding any further in the attempt to collect the tax and that on the final hearing the injunction be made perpetual.

The case is still pending, but Attorney Green, who represents the plaintiffs, says that it will come on in September. He says further that there is no doubt but what the tax is illegal and that the court will so decide.

The total amount of sprinkling tax is about $13,000. Of this sum, $[illegible] remains unpaid. The tax has been delinquent since July 15th.

Notices have now been sent out by Assessor Clohe to which he states unless payment is made by August 15th it will be collected with costs.

Interesting as to Irrigation.

The following communication has been received by Governor Thomas from Henry N. Hooper of Brooklyn, N. Y.: "The province of Valencia, in Spain, is an extensive plain whose lower extremity meets the Mediterranean sea, and is otherwise bounded by a semi-circle of mountains. Down the mountain sides run several rivers. In the time of the Moors, 1000 years back, the waters of these streams were confined by substantial dams for the purpose of irrigating the immense and then useless waste of plain. The Moors established 1000 years ago for the delivery and use of the confined water proved to be so perfect and just that they have remained unchanged to this day. Under them the entire plain became, and is now, one of the most fertile and fruitful spots on the earth. Should Utah ever be unencumbered with the history of the irrigation of the province of Valencia, of the regulations governing the distribution of water from canals, or of the construction of its substantial dams, I wish to say that by proper application to our minister at Madrid I feel sure that not that you can obtain plans of the system in detailed every of the rules and regulations by which it is governed. At the convention which is soon to be held in Utah on the subject of Western irrigation, it occurs to me that your society might find in such a history much of value for the purpose for which it is called together. I am quite sure that a note addressed by you, in your official capacity, to our Spanish minister on the subject would be at once acted upon by him, and the Spanish government would most cheerfully accede to your request."
