THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

The Great Country Paper of the West.

Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Tearing 'Em Up Again—The Utah Gas & Coke company is excavating trenches on West Temple street, for gas mains.

Going on Auto Trip—Frank Bray and Claude Schaeffer will leave next week on an automobile tour through the southern counties.

John Burbidge Convalescent—Capt. John Burbidge is convalescent from the injuries received in his automobile accident, but he will not be able to move around for three weeks.

Miss Brown Graduates—Miss Alberta Brown, daughter of W. I. Brown of this city, has returned from South Hadley, Mass., where she graduated last June from Mt. Holyoke college.

Teams Are Scarce—Contractors still report difficulty in getting brick and stone in desired quantities, owing to the lack of teams. Work, in consequence, is progressing slowly on the second Westminster college building.

Death of Sister Cammilas—Word was received at Holy Cross hospital last evening of the death at South Bend, Ind., of Sister Cammilas, who was for six years in Ogden and nine years in Salt Lake as an instructor at St. Mary's academy. She was a Red Cross nurse during the Spanish war, in which service she distinguished herself. The sister returned to Salt Lake, but failing health necessitated her removal to Indiana.

Will Investigate Proposition—The board of governors of the Salt Lake Real Estate association will meet tomorrow evening, to discuss the proposition to participate with the M. and M. association and the Commercial club in sending Joseph Silver and Lon J. Haddock as a committee to Louisville, Ky., to investigate the feasibility of the proposed removal to this city of the rolling mill. It is claimed the mill will employ 500 men.

Garbage Rates Unchanged—The men who haul garbage are not to receive an increase in the price of each 100 pounds hauled to and weighed at the crematory. The teamsters complained that they could not make wages at 7 cents a hundred, and it was proposed to make the rate 10 cents. It has been found, however, that as the season advances, better wages can be made than earlier in the year, and the cost to the city will remain the same.

Salt Lake to the Front—Joseph H. Siegel has returned from an extended eastern business trip. He found the general market improving, with a big demand from western buyers for spring goods. But the heat and the mosquitoes deeply touched Mr. Siegel's feelings, and he pathetically remarked his delight in escaping once more to the wild and woolly west. He reports everybody talking about Salt Lake and preparing to move out here, so the realty men had better get busy and build more houses.

Wanted to Go Home—Willie French, aged 5, of Pueblo, Colo., is chaperoning his mother, Mrs. W. O. French, on a western tour, and escorted her to Saltair yesterday afternoon. While she was star-gazing at the bathers, Willie went to inspecting the entire plant, and finally concluded to include the salt refinery in his plan of observations. Mrs. French missed the youth and had Deputy Sheriff Haslam institute a search. He was discovered on an outgoing train, by the officer, and persuaded to indefinitely postpone his inspection of the salt plant.

RETURN OF THE EAGLES.

Salt Lake Degree Team Secured Third And Not First Prize.

The delegates to the Eagles' Grand Lodge convention are returning from Seattle. They say the Salt Lake degree team secured only third prize because they were kept waiting five hours before being called on, which tired them all out. The Helena team scored first with 686 points, the Spokane team second with 663 points, and Salt Lake third with 651 points. The Seattle Post-Intelligencer had the following:

"Salt Lake No. 67 won favor from the spectators by their military bearing and the white flannel suits of the degree team, and they were loudly cheered along the line of march."

Every courtesy was shown the delegates by local citizens.

STAR GAZER COMES TO GRIEF.

F. C. Bruesh, a messenger boy, was badly injured in a collision between his bicycle and a delivery wagon yesterday afternoon. The messenger was riding down Commercial street and instead of looking straight ahead of him he permitted his gaze to wander upward. A delivery wagon coming from the opposite direction, ran into him and Bruesh was thrown to the ground. The steel step on the wagon struck the youth on the leg below the knee, inflicting a deep gash. He was taken to the emergency hospital where Dr. Paul dressed the wound after which Bruesh was taken to his room.

ATKINS GETS A REFUND

Council Committee Agrees $69 is Coming to Him on Account of Bad Check.

A committee of the city council wrestled for a long time last evening with the matter of the shortage of accounts of T. St. Leger Atkins, late chief clerk of the street supervisor's office. It will be remembered that Atkins was discharged because of alleged irregularities in his office. A shortage of $350 was discovered, and Atkins made good the amount. He subsequently claimed that there was no shortage at all, or at least not more thatn $151, and he has time and time again asked for a reutrn of the money paid by him.

The committee was of the opinion that the sum of $69 should be returned to Atkins, as that was represented by a check taken in good faith from a Japanese firm in payment of the politax of a number of Japanese, but the check was found to be no good. The committee will recommend that the council reimburse Atkins to that amount, but the balance went over for a further hearing.

CHRONIC DIARRHOEA CURED.

"My father has for years been troubled with chronic diarrhoea, and tried very means possible to effect a cure, without avail," writes John H. Zirkle of Philippi, W. Va. "He saw Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy advertised in the Philippi Republica, and decided to try it. The result is one bottle cured him and he has not suffered with the disease for eighteen months. Before taking this remedy he was a constant sufferer. He is now sound and well and although sixty years old, can do as much work as a young man." Sold by all druggists.

MASTERS TOO FASTIDIOUS.

Fifteenth Infantry Recruit Concludes To Leave the Army With Sad Sequel.

Lee Masters is a young man who balks at authority, and without special regard for consequences. That is to say, he likes to have his own way, and doesn't care much whether school keeps or not. He enlisted in the army last winter, in the Fifteenth infantry under the delusion that the regular service was a second edition of the home of the Egyptian lotus, where he didn't have to do anything but dream the happy hours away, and draw his pay. But when it came to mounting guard, herding prisoners, squirming under the vocal lash of the drill sergeant, and walking the beat of a sentry, the beautiful bubble of his imagination collapsed; so he concluded to resign, went to a hotel on Second South street where he hired a room, changed his martial attire for the sombre raiment of a civilian, and took the train for Grand Junction. It would have been a nice little act of courtesy, had he formally bid his commanding officer good bye, but Masters thought he wouldn't be missed anyway, so "what's the dif?"

But the Fort Douglas officers did miss the departed, and wired the officers the country around to keep their eagle eye wide open for him, for there was a $50 souvenir in it for some one. Masters was recognized yesterday, at Grand Junction, where he had been holding down numerous small jobs, by Chief of Police O'Neil, who found him taking in, not merely Ten Nights in a Bar Room, but 10 bar rooms in one night. Masters will be brought back to Salt Lake, where a court martial, and two years in Leavenworth, await his sweet, but troubled spirit.

A FAITHFUL FRIEND.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since it was first introduced to the public in 1872, and have never found one instance where a cure was not speedily effected by its use. I have been a commercial traveler for eighteen years, and never start out on a trip without this, my faithful friend," says H. S. Nichols, of Oakland, Ind. Ter. When a man has used a remedy for thirty-five years he knows its value and is competent to speak of it. For sale by all druggists.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. James L. Frankyn entertained at a beautifully appointed luncheon today in honor of Miss Trask of Denver, covers being laid for eight. The decorations were entirely in pink, the centerpiece being a large bunch of pink gladiola tied with pink ribbon, the candles shaded in pink, the cloth of Cluny lace over pink, and the ices, candies and all details being in the same color. The place cards were hand painted, and had quotations from well known authors. Bridge followed the luncheon, the prizes being prettily bound booklets.
