VOTING FOR THE QUEEN.

No Time Being Lost in Casting Ballots for the Respective Candidates.

Today at Carnival headquarters the votes for queen of the Carnival were coming in thick and fast. The work of counting is now so onerous that the members of the executive committee have decided to assign that duty to a committee of five, to consist of a representative for each candidate now being voted for.

President Hignon of the executive committee returned from Butte city yesterday and reports that the greatest interest is being manifest in the Carnival by the people of Montana, and that fully one thousand of her leading citizens will be here during the celebration. Railroad excursions will be organized and possibly special trains run, the $15 rate making them possible.

At the beginning of hostilities this morning the vote for queen stood:

Miss Jean E. Bassett .................. [illegible]

Keep your tickets, where this line is you wish her to succeed.

Miss Vivian Perry .................. [illegible]
Miss Clarissa Thatcher .................. [illegible]
Miss Laura Steele .................. [illegible]
Mrs. A. J. Adkins .................. [illegible]

Cut this out and send to executive committee, room 327 Atlas Block, city.

HE CAME OUT LOSER.

A Young Lady Relieves a Gentleman of Money While Out Riding.

Last evening a couple of young girls residing in the western part of the city, accepted the invitation of two young men to take a buggy ride, and this afternoon those same young ladies sat in Chief Pratt's private room at the police station, weeping bitterly. When questioned as to the cause of their grief they were at first very reticent and did not want anything said in the papers regarding their case, but shortly thereafter, one of the gentlemen with whom they went riding, stepped into the room and explained all.

The story as related by the gentleman, whose name is Cummings, was to the effect that in riding with one of the grief-stricken girls, he was in some unaccountable way relieved of $20 in cash. He did not want to work any hardship on the girls, but simply wanted them to return the amount of which he was loser, and as they had spent it all, he caused their arrest to follow.

In heart-broken penitent tones the girls admitted their guilt, at the same time begging and imploring their victim to allow them time in which to obtain work, and thereby earn sufficient with which to pay him back. They did not want to go to jail. "Twas a takeing trial they admitted ha[illegible] they did not at the time fully realize the enormity of the offense. What would their parents say if they knew of the waywardness of their daughters? They declared most emphatically that they would never more go out for a midnight ride.

Such was the manner in which the girls raved as they sat with their faces in their hands weeping over their bad conduct. They begged the newspaper men present to suppress their names and promised that they would never again be found guilty of such dishonest acts. The young ladies are well known in this city and for their sakes, as well as their parents, their names do not appear herewith. It is understood, however, that the girls have been rather flighty of late, which is no doubt the primary cause of their present sorrow.

Police Court.

No cases with any special significance attached thereto were up in the police court today, and Justice Wenger's time was taken up in pronouncing judgment upon hilarious drunks, begging vagrants, etc.

Of the former class, James Carroll, Will Ottinger and Henry Goddard were fined $10 each, while Hugh Conner and Peter Thornton were fined $5 each and James Eaton was discharged. Under the latter head Frank Thomas, John Ross and Ralph Baxter were ordered imprisoned for 15 days, Thomas Fitzgerald for 20 days, and Thomas McDonald and Patrick Grady were fortunate enough to receive an order of discharge from the law's custody.

L. C. Jones and J. D. Page, keepers of gambling houses, forfeited $25 each, and Jennie Brier for keeping a house of prostitution gave to the city treasury $25.

Supreme Court.

On motion of H. J. Dininny, E. J. McGinnis of the state of Illinois was admitted to the Supreme Court of the State.

The following cases were submitted on briefs:

Brighton & North Point Irrigation, appellants vs. Charles J. Hubbard; George F. Culmer vs. Francis D. Clift et al., appellants.

C. P. Palmer, clerk of the Supreme court, was appointed as special examiner to examine the accounts of the receivers of the Church property.

Five mandates were filed with the Supreme court of the State today from the Supreme court of the United States, turning the Church property back to the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Democratic Primaries.

Democratic primaries will be held throughout the city precincts this evening, commencing at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of electing delegates to the county convention, which will in turn select delegates to the State convention, which is to name delegates to the national convention at Chicago. The places of holding the primaries and the number of delegates accorded to each is as follows: First precinct, 13; second, 17; third, 16; fourth, 12; fifth, 19; precincts outside of the city, 33. Total 108.

Streams Have Receded.

The mountain streams in nearly all parts of the State which came down in such raging torrents during the recent heavy rains have receded until they are almost in their normal condition again. In some sections considerable damage was done. This is notably true of Mt. Pleasant, Sanpete county, where there was a big cloudburst which resulted in the destruction of hundreds of acres of hay, grain and other crops.

Look Out!

Ogden Standard: An immense blast that will be heard in Salt Lake and will shake this city will be fired in the canyon some day this week, probably Thursday. About 800 boxes or kegs of powder will be used. The exact time will be announced later in the Standard so that all desiring to do so may view it from some points of vantage in and near the city.

Hynds Murder Case.

The case of Harry Hynds, indicted for the murder of Walter Dunwoodey, came up before Judge Hiles at 9:30 this morning. The entire day has been taken up in selecting a jury, and up to press time Mr. H. P. Margetts was the only one & each out of seven was that were examined.

Fair Weather.

General and local forecast for thirty-six hours ending tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock is as follows: For Utah fair to night and Tuesday stationary temperature; Salt Lake City and vicinity fair weather, warmer.

Cannon Ward, Salt Lake County.

At the meeting held in President George Q. Cannon's school house on Sunday afternoon, a new Bishop's ward was organized, called Cannon ward. It extends from Ninth to Twelfth South streets and from Sixth West street to the Ragwood road. The proposition to make the new ward come as far east as Second West street was modified to the line stated. At the meeting there were present President George Q. Cannon, Elder Brigham Young, Elder Abraham H. Cannon, President Angus M. Cannon and Counselor Joseph E. Taylor of the Stake Presidency, and Elder John Nicholson. The new ward organization decided upon was Lewis M. Cannon Bishop, Cyrus H. Gold and Alma H. West counselors, and Angus J. Cannon clerk.

STATE NEWS.

Payson Header: O. E. Hutch returned yesterday morning from a trip to Moab. He was expected home the night before, the delay being caused by the wreck of an engine and five cars just the other side of Green River, which resulted in the death of three persons and severe injuries to others.

Manti Messenger: Mayor Alder, City Engineer E. W. Fox and A. E. Merriam, councilman, made a trip up Manti canyon the first days of this week for the purpose of locating reservoir sites to increase the water supply for this city and its surrounding fields. We have had our equal and usual supply of water for irrigation purposes for some years past, but the fact is dawning on the minds of the people that our improvements have been going on at an unequal ratio with the capacity of the crops.

Just as we go to press we learn of a serious accident which befell Dow Hills, who resides a short distance from the town of Sterling. We are unable to learn full particulars, but so far as we can learn them it is a wonder he was not crushed to death. A heavy farm wagon, loaded with a ton of coal, passed over his chest. Dr. Olsen was called out to attend the man, who informs us that his injuries are very serious.—Marcus Tuliton is dead. Every man, woman and child in Manti knew old man Marcus, as he was called, and all felt the deepest pity for him. He lived alone these many years and was a confirmed invalid. Friends paid regular visits to his humble cottage and administered as much as possible to his peace and comfort. On Wednesday a friend called in to see the old gentleman, and found him sitting in a chair by the table, his head resting in his hands—dead. His ailment prevented his lying down, and he passed all his nights sitting in a chair. And so death stole quietly over him and took him away.

OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - JUNE 1, 1896.

High Water.

The high waters of the Weber and Ogden rivers are doing considerable damage in the lowlands. A steady stream of people was passing along Thirtieth street all day yesterday, going to the Weber bridge, the unusual high water being the attraction. The county bridge at Devil's Gate was washed out yesterday. The county road was also washed out above Wilson's in Ogden canyon, thus closing both Weber and Ogden canyons to wagon travel. A large force of men are working on the Ogden canyon road.

Notes.

McCampbell, the conductor killed at Lower Crossing, was buried yesterday at Mountain View cemetery.

Twenty of the hobo kind, variously charged, appeared before the police justice today.

The Decoration Day program was omitted on account of the stormy weather. Sunday was a beautiful day and the two cemeteries were visited by large crowds who engaged in decorating graves of loved ones.

The concert given in the Grand Opera house last Saturday evening for the benefit of the Interstate band was in every way a gratifying success, the house being filled to its full seating capacity. An effort is being made to have the bands [illegible] for the [illegible] conference in July.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - JUNE 1, 1896.

The Vernal Homicide.

S. A. King, who has been in Vernal attending a term of the Fourth district court, states that there was great apprehension felt by the Uintah county officers in regard to the safe keeping of Coleman, Warner and Wall, who are indicted for the murder of Richard Stanton and David Mellon, committed early in May, about eighteen miles northeast of Vernal. Warner and Wall have many friends and it was feared they would attempt to rescue the prisoners, and fears were also entertained that the friends of Stanton and Mellon would try to lynch their slayers. In consequence of this condition the jail is strongly guarded, ten men being at first employed for that purpose. The number has been reduced but every precaution is still being taken to prevent any miscarriage of justice. Judge Hart opened court in a room near the jail to take the plea of the prisoners when the indictment was returned, to obviate the necessity for bringing them to the school house where court was regularly held, which is about three quarters of a mile away from the jail; a plea of not guilty was entered. Powers, Lippman and Straup have been engaged to defend, and a change of venue to the Second district court in Ogden was granted on the ground that a fair trial could not be had in Uintah county.

Coleman is a miner well known in Salt Lake and other points of the state. Warner is a young man who was born in Manti, and his right name is Christensen. Wall is a transient and is said to be a sporting man. Isaac Stanton, who was wounded in the thigh at the time the other two men were killed, is recovering.

Notes.

The children of the public schools gave a pleasing memorial entertainment in the Opera house Friday and and Saturday evenings, consisting of songs, recitations, etc. The W. T. Sherman Post No. 8 G. A. R., went to Spanish Fork Saturday and observed Decoration day with their comrades. The stores here were closed and a large number of citizens went to the cemetery and decorated the resting places of the dead.

La Praie, the six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Smith of Provo Bench, died Friday morning of whooping cough. She was buried Saturday.

Mrs. Jurgen Jensen died Friday of consumption and was buried yesterday. She leaves a husband and five children. The deceased has suffered from the disease which finally carried her off, since her arrival from Sweden about two years ago.

Sheriff Brown received word Friday that some men were selling the jewelry taken from Mr. Page's store, at Payson on May 19th, in Castle Rock, on the Union Pacific. Deputy Sheriff Fowler went to Castle Rock and Evanston and returned yesterday, without having found any trace of the burglars or the jewelry.

Doctor Karl G. Maeser has concluded to move to Salt Lake and hereafter will make his home in the capital.

Provo has of late been visited by a large number of tramps; Friday morning early, Marshal Sharp brought six up from the U. P. depot, where they had occupied a box car during the night. Deputy Sheriff Wilkins was invested with the office of police judge pro tempore, and sentenced the strangers to forty days at hard labor, on a charge of trespass preferred by the marshal. Sentence was afterwards suspended, with the understanding that if the culprits were found in town during the next forty days the sentence would be enforced. The tramps were glad to leave and will no doubt fill their part of the contract, as they were very much surprised at the severity of the sentence.

President Palmer, First Vice President Peabody, Second Vice President Dodge and Director Renshaw of the R. G. W. went up Provo canyon in a carriage, Thursday forenoon, to view the proposed route of the Rio Grande Western extension from Provo to Park City. They will go over the Utah Central to Salt Lake, where their private car in which they came to Provo will meet them. Mr. Renshaw represents the English capital invested in the road.

A rather peculiar robbery is reported from the Fifth ward. A young man by the name of Greer, from Spangerville, Alabama, has been stopping with his aunt while going to school in the academy. He had $180 in a satchel. Friday evening his cousin, Miss Greer, was alone in the house with a small child; about 10 o'clock she heard some one trying to gain an entrance into her room through the window. She grabbed the satchel and went to a neighbor's house where she remained all night; in the morning when she returned home the satchel was opened and it was found that the money was not there. Friday forenoon all the people had been away from the house, and it is now supposed the money was taken at that time, although there was no trace of any one having been in the house when the occupants returned.

Provo river is very high, caused by the late rains and warm weather. A large force of men is at work trying to prevent the iron bridge, on the state road north of Provo, from washing away. The fields west of the city are covered with water and great damage to crops will result. The wagon road in Provo canyon is overflowed in many places. Men are at work near the railroad bridges removing the debris which would otherwise lodge against them. The water is said to be higher than ever since 1862 and men are constantly at work to prevent the river from coming down City creek and overflowing the city.

Dr. F. H. Simmons has discovered a thin vein of anthracite coal near his ranch in Provo canyon, and is developing the property. The doctor was one of the earliest locators of coal at Castle Gate.

Sid Worsley has some fine samples of copper ore taken from claims he has just located east of Centerville, Davis county. Assays show 53 per cent copper, and Mr. Worsley says there is a large vein of the ore.

MINOR MENTION.

The commencement exercises of St. Mary's academy of this city will be held beginning Friday morning, the 12th inst. The occasion promises to be a most interesting one.

The fines and forfeitures of the police department for the month of May were turned into the city treasury today. It totaled up to $1,260.55.

The county commissioners met late this afternoon, but up to press time had not transacted any business of importance.

Sour

Stomach, sometimes called waterbrash, and burning pain, distress, nausea, dyspepsia, are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. This it accomplishes because with its wonderful power as a blood purifier, Hood's Sarsaparilla gently tones and strengthens the stomach and digestive organs, invigorates the liver, creates an appetite, gives refreshing sleep, and raises the health tone. In cases of dyspepsia and indigestion it seems to have "a magic touch."

"For over 12 years I suffered from sour with severe pains across my shoulders, and great distress. I had violent nausea which would leave me very weak and faint, difficult to get my breath. These spells came oftener and more severe. I did not receive any lasting benefit from physicians, but tried such happy effects from a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I took several bottles and seem to all the help in the house. I am now able to do all my own work, which for six years I have been unable to do. My husband and son have also been greatly benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla—for pains in the back, and also for grip. I gladly recommend this good blood medicine." Mrs. Peter Burby, Leominster, Mass.

For Over Thirty Years!

RESULT OF USING

AYER'S PILLS

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills for over thirty years have kept me in good health, never having had a sick day in all that time. Before I was twenty I suffered almost continually—as a result of constipation—from dyspepsia, headaches, neuralgia, or boils and other eruptive diseases. When I became convinced that nine-tenths of my troubles were caused by constipation, I began the use of Ayer's Pills, with the most satisfactory results, never having a single attack that did not readily yield to this remedy. My wife, who had been an invalid for years, also began to use Ayer's Pills, and her health was quickly restored. With my children I had noticed that nearly all their ailments were preceded by constipation, and I soon had the pleasure of knowing that with children as with parents, Ayer's Pills, if taken in season, avert all danger of sickness."—H. Horses Kick in self-defense. It is their most vigorous form of protest against the abuse of bad Nails that are frequently clinched in tightly on their shoes. Blacksmiths often use such nails in ignorance of the danger that is liable to follow.

This is what happens: One part comes out where it should for clinching, the other goes into the tender foot. Such nails are the result of the Cold-Rolled and by which the fibres of metal are separated and can often be split apart with the finger-nail. This kind of a nail can be easily distinguished by the rough edge along the shank near the point.
