DESERET EVENING NEWS

TODAY'S WEATHER REPORT.

Weather report showing observations at 8 a. m. today:

Salt Lake—Barometer, 30.36; temperature, 4; minimum, 4; wind southwest, light; cloudy.

Forecast for Utah for 36 hours ending 8 p. m. tomorrow:

Local snow tonight and Wednesday. Warmer.

L. H. MURDOCH,
Section Director, Weather Bureau.

NOTICE.

Subscribers to the NEWS are requested to note that the price for the daily is now $9.00 per year or by the month, 75 cents. Saturday edition $2.00 per year. Semi-Weekly $2.00 per year.

To-day's Metals.

SILVER, Bar, 59 3-8
LEAD, $4.30
CASTING COPPER, 16 1-2 cents a lb.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

John J. Daviss (Union Dem of Provo, was in the city today. Mr. Davies is secretary of the Utah Cumberland association, also agent for the Deseret News.

The directors of the B. Y. Trust company at a meeting yesterday afternoon appointed Mr. Andrew Cunningham as general manager of the company. Mr. Barnes has been identified with the institution for the past two or three years.

Richard D. Evans, of the law firm of Rhea & Evans, is dead. He died in this city yesterday of consumption. He was a bright young man, a thorough student of the law, and the possessor of a remarkable capability. Deceased was a native of Indiana and came to Utah about ten years ago.

At Farnell, a young miner, who worked on the Lower Mammoth, is lying at the Rough-Hussner hospital with a fractured skull. Yesterday, while at work in the mine, an accidental explosion of powder took place. Farnell, who was near, was thrown violently against the side of the mine, fracturing his skull. The unfortunate man was brought to the city last night.

Congressman W. H. King's residence was quarantined last night. Two of his children are down with scarlet fever. Judge King has had sickness in his family for some time. Mrs. King and her sister have been ill with the grip and had not fully recovered when the children came down with the affliction is especially painful for the judge at this time as the quarantine keeps him from home.

The following statement was given out last evening regarding the annual meeting of the Women's Republican club which was held at the residence of Mrs. W. H. Jones, 23 Third East street yesterday afternoon. Officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: President, Mrs. W. H. Jones; vice president, Mrs. Lokes; recording secretary, Mrs. Poore; treasurer, Mrs. Guthrie; corresponding secretary, Miss Monroe; critic, Mrs. A. T. Moon; auditor, Mrs. A. Bradley; historian, Mrs. A. Howes.

Col. Pat Dunan, who is in Salt Lake again after an absence of several months, when seen today said he was fighting a very bad case of la grippe and was barely able to get around. The colonel says he is delighted with Salt Lake and would not for a copper be seen any two men that could be picked out among this city's boosters today. "I have been doing nothing advertising," the colonel said. "For some time Oregon and Washington, in eighteen months, we have brought between 18,000 and 20,000 people from the East to Oregon, Washington and Idaho. This means a quarter of a million of dollars at least in actual cash brought into the West, to say nothing of the labor of this kind in developing the country." In speaking of the business prospects of the Northwest he said that there never was a time when prospects of a business revival were brighter.

There are of our safety deposit boxes in our burglar and fireproof vault, and property your finds jewel other valuables from thieves and fire. Annual rental from $1 to $10, according to size. UTAH STATES BANK AND TRUST COMPANY.
LORENZO SNOW, President.
GEORGE M. CANNON, Cashier.

UTAH COAL.
Castle Gate and Winter Quarters, Lump, Nut and Slack.
Anthracite, all sizes.
D. J. SHARP, Agent,
75 South, Main. Telephone, 425.

NEW SONGS AND TWO-STEPS.
We have all the very latest hits in songs and instrumental pieces, just received from the publishers.
D. G. CALDER'S SONS.

STILL LOWER PRICES IN WASH GOODS AT E. C. M. I.
Special sale, week commencing Monday, Feb. 6.

BEAUTIFUL PIANOS.
Just arrived, another shipment of the World Wide Celebrated STEINWAY and KIMBALL Pianos. Elegant new style cases in mahogany and baby grands.
D. G. CALDER'S SONS.

NOTICE OF REMOVAL.
E. O. Taylor has removed to rooms 211-212 Templeton Building.

BRIGHAM YOUNG COLLEGE NOTES.

Apostle Teasdale spoke in chapel Monday morning. The presidency of Cache Stake and Dr. Karl G. Maeser, general superintendent of Church schools, were also present.

Superintendent Maeser visited the college in his official capacity on Monday, and inspected the work of the various classes. At 11 o'clock he addressed the students in their regular morning Bible class. Apostle Reynolds also occupied a short time.

A member of visitors called during the first of the week, viz: Mrs. Dunn by her son, G. H. Hall of Huntsville, brother of Prof. Hall of the college.

Examinations are to be in progress all the week. The students are a result are tired and exhausted.

Some people who are in the habit of being late at morning exercises declare that the distinguished honor of visiting for the president's office belongs exclusively to them because of such tardiness, is unappreciated that they fear the bad habit. It will be difficult to overcome.

A shipment of goods for the physical laboratory arrived the latter part of the week, being not up to the time, and everything is being prepared for efficient work in the department.

A large case of gymnasium goods came on Thursday.

Students will show themselves in the grand hall Saturday evening.

President Kerr visited the teachers of Morgan county on Saturday.

NEW INSURANCE MEASURE

Bill Introduced in the House by Representative Ivins of Summit.

Proposition to Make Important Amendments to Present Insurance Laws of the State.

Representative Ivins' bill, known as H. B. No. 38, is creating a great deal of interest among the fire insurance agents and persons having business with them. The bill amends section 968 of the Revised Statutes of Utah, to read as follows:

Section 1. That section 968 Revised Statutes of Utah be amended to read as follows: Section 968 Revised Statutes, according to each section the first eighteen letters of the alphabet as follows:

968 a.—There shall be but one form of insurance policy issued by any fire insurance company in this State, the form of which shall be prescribed by the secretary of state who shall approve such policy when it shall conform to the laws of the State, and which must contain only the conditions and limitations contained by the Constitution and laws of this State.

968 b.—Descriptions of property and statements contained in the application shall be deemed to be representations and not warranties, and no misrepresentation or concealment in any application for insurance or in any instrument relating thereto or in any business dealing with the insured shall be made. A policy shall not be void by reason of any mistake or misrepresentation, unless it appears that the insured was fraudulent and fraudulently made, or unless the difference between the property as it is represented and the property as it actually exists contributed to the loss, but the sum insured by the policy shall be taken to be the sum which shall be insured by the policy shall be taken to be such fractional part of the sum mentioned therein as the premium paid by the insured is of the premium which ought to have been paid, not exceeding in any event the value of the insured's interest in the property.

968—If a company shall issue a policy upon an application prepared by a third person assuming to act as its agent or otherwise, it shall be charged with his knowledge of the relations of the property insured as if they were stated in the application.

968 d.—A loss upon the property insured or in its use or occupation or a breach of any of the terms of the policy by the insured, shall not affect the policy except while the change or breach continues.

968 e.—If insured buildings are totally destroyed, the sum insured shall be taken to be the value of the insured's interest therein, not to be ascertained as stated in the policy, unless ascertainable thereon was fraudulently valued. Within 30 days after the facts claimed as constituting the fraud must be given within ten days and no diminution in value of the insured shall be a building can be considered as forming any part of such fraud, if the building shall be totally destroyed, the insured shall be entitled to his actual damages, not exceeding the sum insured.

968 f.—In case of loss or damage to property insured, the parties insured shall give notice thereof, in writing, to the secretary, a director, or an agent of the company within thirty days.

968 g.—The company shall adjust the loss within fifteen days after the receipt of such notice.

968 h.—If the company decides to rebuild or repair the property destroyed or insured, it shall begin to do so within twenty days after adjusting the loss, and shall prosecute the work with reasonable diligence until it is completed.

968 i.—If the company neglects to adjust the loss within fifteen days after receiving notice of it, or to begin to rebuild or repair the property destroyed or damaged within twenty days after the adjustment of the loss, the insured may proceed to rebuild or repair at his own cost, and nothing shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 j.—If dissatisfied with such adjustment, the party insured may bring his action for the amount claimed, which may be served on the proper officer or agent of such company, within six months after the adjustment of such notice in writing, and not afterward except as provided in the next section.

968 k.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 l.—Dissatisfied with such adjustment, the party insured may bring his action for the amount claimed, which may be served on the proper officer or agent of such company, within six months after the adjustment of such notice in writing, and not afterward except as provided in the next section.

968 k.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 m.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 n.—A policy issued by a company not incorporated under the laws of this State shall be deemed to be issued in this State, and the service upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 o.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 p.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 q.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 r.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 s.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 t.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 u.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 v.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 w.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 x.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 y.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 z.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 aa.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 bb.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 cc.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 dd.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 ee.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 ff.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 gg.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 hh.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 ii.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 jj.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 kk.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 ll.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 mm.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 nn.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 oo.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 pp.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 qq.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 rr.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 ss.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 tt.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 uu.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 vv.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 ww.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 xx.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 yy.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 zz.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 aaa.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 bbb.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 ccc.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 ddd.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 eee.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 fff.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 ggg.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 hhh.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 iii.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 jjj.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 kkk.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 lll.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 mmm.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 nnn.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 ooo.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 ppp.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 qqq.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 rrr.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 sss.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 ttt.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 uuu.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 vvv.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 www.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 xxx.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 yyy.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 zzz.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 aaaa.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 bbbb.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 cccc.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 dddd.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 eeee.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 ffff.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 gggg.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 hhhh.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 iiii.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 jjjj.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 kkkk.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 llll.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 mmmm.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 nnnn.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 oooo.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 pppp.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 qqqq.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 rrrr.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 ssss.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 tttt.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 uuuu.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 vvvv.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 wwww.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 xxxx.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 yyyy.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 zzzz.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 aaaaa.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 bbbbb.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 ccccc.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 ddddd.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 eeeee.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 fffff.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 ggggg.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 hhhhh.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 iiiii.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 jjjjj.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 kkkkk.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 lllll.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 mmmmm.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 nnnnn.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 ooooo.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 ppppp.—A person having a claim against an insurance company not incorporated under the laws of this State may sue thereof in the courts of the State, and the service of such notice according to such action upon the insurance commissioner shall have the same effect as if the company had been duly incorporated and had been duly served.

968 qqqqq.—Upon the service of the notice of the amount of loss or damage determined by it, shall notify the insured that he has a right to sue thereon within six months, to say nothing of the time of such service, and that he shall be liable for the reasonable expenses incurred in so doing and for the sum of the loss not exceeding or exceeding the amount insured, or the insured may commence an action upon the policy.

968 rrrrr.—A