LOCAL NEWS.

The Immigrants.—A telegram from E. H. Nye, to President Taylor states that the coming company of immigrants left Omaha at 2:45 this morning, all well. They expect to reach Ogden on Sunday morning, and will get to this city sometime during the day.

Quorum Meeting.—The regular monthly meeting of the First Quorum of Elders will be held in the west wing of the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Rooms, to-morrow, Saturday evening, at 7:30 o'clock.

GEO. M. CANNON, Sec'y.

In the Right Direction.—Some owners of sheep at Goshen, Utah County, have purchased cards and a spinning jenny, and propose to work their own wool into yarn and cloth for their own use, instead of selling it and buying shoddy. A few moves like this and Goshen will not be far behind her more prosperous neighbors.

Handsome Work.—A handsome card for the holiday excursion to Ogden on the Fourth, has just been issued at this office. It is as neat a piece of work as is generally seen of the kind. The design was made by Foreman James Anderson in wood and leather, and the typographical work responded. It is a very nice piece of display work, indeed.

"Devil's Auction."—This wonderful extravaganza was witnessed last evening by an audience quite as large as on the first night of its performance, and it is needless to say it was thoroughly enjoyed. The applause and laughter were almost incessant from first to last. It will hold the boards for two more evenings, and then lie westward. What a monster machine could be got out of this piece! Do the management realize that fact?

Opera House.—The "Rajah" drew a large audience last night, and it is very probable that this evening, which closes the Madison Square Company's engagement, will witness a still larger house at the closing performance of this splendid comedy. Those who so will get their money's worth of good acting. "The Rajah" is all that is claimed for it, and the actors who present it are high up in their profession.

A Query.—The following has been handed in:

Editor Desert News:

Is the fourth of July to be celebrated for the purpose of selling beer, spirits, ice cream, etc. I ask this question because I have seen in the papers that were the main object with some people. We are all desirous of having a good time on that day, but it is not so much the celebration of the great day and its celebration.

R. O. B. J.

Laboring in London.—By courtesy of Brother Isaac Brockbank we have been enabled to peruse a letter addressed to him by Elder Albert Jones, now laboring in the London (England) Conference. He has charge of the office work, and does regular missionary labor besides, preaching in the open air, in the regular meetings of the Saints and visiting people at their homes who desire explanation regarding the doctrines of the Gospel. He is in good health and enjoys his labors. He visits among his kindred and hopes to bring some of them to an understanding and acceptance of the worth. He writes hopefully and in good spirits.

Meta City.—Brother Charles S. Whitney, a private letter from Mesa, Maricopa County, Arizona, June 17th, says:

I am enjoying splendid health. We have not had any warm weather yet, which is very unusual for this country. Still the thermometer has been in the 112 deg. in the shade. That beats what I have seen in July, but we do not feel so much. The heat is not so oppressive here as it is in Salt Lake at 120 deg.

Peaches, strawberries, plums, apricots, cherries, and a few apples are ripe. I never saw more beautiful fruit in my life, and a person can eat plenty of it without injury. The apricots are not as good as they are in the north.

Our semi-annual conference was held on Saturday and Sunday last, and a whole week to change the name of this village to Zion, and the mail route from Yuma to Mesquite Lake, through further north. All the things go well.
