Declining Figures Quite Noticeable on 'Change Today.

NO SALES OF LISTED STOCKS.

The Highland Boy Company in Court a Mill—Utah as It Is—Pertinent.

Weekly Review.

The bulk on the trading on "Change today was twice to two (low-priced) mining stocks—Little Pittsburg and Richmond Anaconda. Northern Light was also accorded the recognition of a transfer, while the speculators throughout the call made the day's market one of declining figures and sloggishness.

Holders of Anacos made it known that they would sell the stock at $1.00, but would-be buyers were not at all willing to take it at that figure, and expressed their best position by pushing a bid of $1. Ajax dropped to 62 cents and was an offering at its coats, with no sales. Bullion Beck was offered a slight scamp and dropped to 20c in the morning, with the week's low offering at $2.15, while both of the Dalys remained stationary and unchanged as to the figures last for the stock. Mercur and Mammoth were also stationary. Hummas was bid to at 10 cents and offered at 21, while Utah silver held at 70 cents to the bidders, although the stock could not be bought under the dollar mark.

As soon as the call of unlisted stocks was reached, the day's trading commenced. Little Pittsburg gave out 2,000 shares at nominal figures, followed by Richmond Anaconda which changed hands 2,000 shares at 3 cents. Hawkeye West changed hands at $2.17½ in the morning, while Mammoth Rise was carried upward and was bid at $1.25 and $1.35 with the stock at an offering at $1.50. Northern Light transferred 100 shares at 90 cents, with the stock bid at 80 cents and offered at $1. Ophir Gem, which is one of the lively ones, was traded on Main street, was an offering at 10 cents, while Alpha was bid for 15 cents. Ontario was bid for at $5.75. Hampton was nominally sought, as the stock Bullion Beck was bid for at 20c, although the stock could not be bought under the dollar mark.

The closing figures were as follows:
