The Evening paper is the paper of today, the morning paper is the paper of Yesterday.

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

5 O'clock EDITION.

TRUTH AND LIBERTY.

No. 109 FRIDAY, MAY 31, 1895. SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH. VOL. XXVIII.

DOWN IN THE DEEP.

Details of the Sinking of the Colima at Mazatlan.

STRUGGLE FOR LIFE IN THE PANIC

As the Wind Howled and the Vessel Pounded Herself to Pieces on the Reef.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 31.—An Associated Press dispatch from the City of Mexico says:

Official advices received today from the seat of the disaster of the steamer Colima, or in the vicinity of the wreck, confirm the statement that the Colima foundered between the port of Mazatlan and the Tres Marias Islands, about 100 miles from the former place, and that the steamer Mexico, which left Mazatlan for San Francisco on the 23d instant, picked up the survivors of the Colima and landed them at Mazatlan. The