Commissions Issued.

Governor Wells and Secretary Hammond have issued election certificates to the following: A. B. Williams, justice of the peace at Mount Pleasant, Utah; A. H. Campbell, justice of the peace for Mayfield precinct, Sanpete county; John L. Boyden, county clerk of Summit county; Henry Shields, attorney for Summit county; J. Almy Smith, recorder of Summit county; E. H. Rosse, surveyor of Summit county; and Bartley McDonough and Daniel Lambert, commissioners of Summit county; Isaac C. Macfarlane, commissioner of Washington county; Wm. Carruth, commissioner of Summit county; Francis L. Daggett, justice of the peace for St. George precinct, Washington county, and clerk and recorder of Washington county; Henry J. Seniapp, constable of Washington precinct, Washington county; and Ellen V. Kinner, recorder of Piute county.

WHITTEMORE A SUBSTITUTE.

Will Go to San Pedro Instead of Judge Colborn—Chamber of Commerce Resolutions.

Judge Colborn, named by the Chamber of Commerce yesterday a delegate to attend the deep water harbor meeting at Los Angeles found it impossible to go and in consequence thereof C. O. Whittemore was named in his stead. He will leave this evening carrying with him the following resolutions passed by the Chamber of Commerce:

The Salt Lake Chamber of Commerce, at a meeting held this day, unanimously resolved to present to your commission on behalf of said city and the State of Utah, the fact that this State is deeply interested in the proper location of the proposed deep water harbor for southern California, for the reason that our citizens are engaged in an effort to build a line of railroad to connect this city with Los Angeles and the proposed harbor.

This will be a through transcontinental line and will be the shortest line between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans.

In southern Utah along the proposed line and not more than 500 miles from tide water near Los Angeles, occur vast deposits of iron ore, fully equal to extent and quality to the great iron ranges of Michigan. Contiguous to these great iron deposits there exists coal measures of almost unlimited extent. Considering the scarcity of coal and iron on the Pacific coast, and contemplating the future growth and development of the trade and commerce of the Pacific coast of North and South America and Australasia and the Orient, we deem it of the utmost importance that a suitable harbor be secured near Los Angeles by which these invaluable products of our State may reach this great and growing market. The arrangements are well advanced to commence the construction of this railroad. We expect to co-operate in the building of this line with the Los Angeles Terminal company, and we are fully convinced that the construction of the road will be materially advanced, and in fact rendered certain by the location of this deep-water harbor at San Pedro. The Chamber is so earnest that no mistake be made in the selection of the site most advantageous to the State that it has appointed the Hon. Charles O. Whittemore to appear before your commission to present these resolutions and to personally urge the many advantages that we think will accrue to Utah, California and the nation by the selection of San Pedro as the deep-water harbor for southern California.

Anniversary Celebration.

The Ninety-first anniversary of the birth of our beloved Prophet and Seer, Joseph Smith, will be celebrated on Wednesday evening, the 30th of December, 1896, in the Sixteenth ward assembly rooms, at 7 p.m., to which all those who have seen the Prophet, and their friends are cordially invited to be present and will be made most welcome. F. KESLER,
Bishop of Sixteenth Ward.

Mrs. Margaret Harrison.

Morant Grice, No. 11 Kingston street, Stockport, Cheshire, England, desires to know the address of his sister, Mrs. Margaret Harrison, who emigrated to Salt Lake City, from Bootle, Liverpool, about the year 1884. She once lived at No. 334 west Third North street. Any person knowing her present address will confer a favor by informing her brother at the above address.

November Weather Report.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah.—The mean temperature for the State was 33.4 degrees; highest monthly mean 41 degrees at St. George; lowest monthly mean 11 degrees at Soldier Summit. The highest temperature recorded during the month was 78 degrees at St. George on the 15th, and the lowest 20 degrees below zero at Soldier Summit on the 12th; range of temperature for the State, 98 degrees.

The warmest period occurred about the middle of the month, and the coldest the last three days of the month.

The average precipitation for the State was 1.25 inches; greatest monthly amount recorded was 3.40 inches at Huntsville, and the least amount was a trace at Giles. The average depth of snow fall was 6 inches. The average number of days on which .01 of an inch or more of rain or melted snow fell was 6.

There was an average of 12 clear days, 9 partly cloudy days and 9 cloudy days during the month. The days with rain or snow were generally the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 20th, 22nd, 26th, 26th and 27th. Exceptionally cold weather for the time of the year prevailed during the last three days of the month when the minimum temperature occurred at the majority of stations. At Salt Lake City the temperature fell to 2 degrees below zero on the 28th and 29th, which is the coldest during any November since the establishment of the station in 1874.

At Salt Lake City there was 43 per cent of sunshine, and 55 per cent (estimated) at Grover, Wayne county.

The prevailing wind was southwest. The total movement at Salt Lake City was 4,160 miles and the maximum velocity 39 miles per hour from the northwest on the 9th.

The Holidays Are With Us.
If we only judged from the enterprise and work of our merchants. On Thursday last there passed through Salt Lake City as fine a bunch of beef steers as ever came to the city. They will next week decorate that first-class and popular house, the Palace Meat Market.

It has been the aim of the proprietor, Mr. J. M. Marriott, to make his holiday display the finest in the land, but this year he proposes to eclipse any previous attempt. Among the lot was the prize Christmas Steer, a veritable jumbo of its kind. To any one guessing its right gross weight, Mr. Marriott will give a $10 coupon book.

Lovers of choice meats should not fail to secure some of it at the PALACE MEAT MARKET.
