TANGIERS AND THE SULTAN OF MOROCCO.

Hearing that Mr. Gummere, the United States consul general to Morocco, was coming in a warship to demand an apology for past discourtesies, Sultan Abdul Aziz promptly deserted Tangiers and removed with his court to Fez, the political capital of Morocco. Having landed from the cruiser New York at Tangiers, Mr. Gummere started overland after the fleeing sultan. While our affair with Morocco is by no means serious, it has aspects which are highly entertaining.

EMPEROR AND PRESS.

Cologne Gazette Says He is Wrong in Discouraging Criticism. Berlin, March 26 .- The German press continues to discuss Emperor William's recent address to the reichstag

"His majesty is wrong in discouraging press criticism," says the Cologne Gazette, "even if this is occasionally against him, for such criticism does not show any lack of respect for the crown. On the contrary, such criti-cism shows not only respect for the crown, but also the growing interest of the Grown but also the growing interest of the German people in public questions. "The emperor must not wonder at criticism because he frequently utters opinions contrary to those held by the vast majority of the nation. Possibly he is induced to make such statements by misleading information furnished by

After the singing and the read-ing of a scripture lesson by Dr. Mc-Arthur and prayer by Rabbi Silver-man, Mr. James made an address. A letter of regret was then read fram President McKinley and one from Vice President Roosevelt, both of whom heartily endorsed the object of the meeting. Mr. Roosevelt made a strong plea for religious tolerance. Wu Ting Fang then spoke. He said it was needless for him to say that he was heartily in sympathy with a move-ment to eradicate racial prejudices. Rev. Dr. Heber Newton spoke on "The Golden Rule as the Basis of Busi-ness." RESULT OF THE BLIZZARD. Thousands of Dead Animals Strew

Denver, March 27 .- Thousands of dead cattle, sheep and horses strew the plains of western Nebraska and eastern Colorado as a result of the blizzard. In hundreds of small ravines and dry beds of creeks the animals crawled to be covered with drifting snow, while other countiess numbers struggled against the blizzard to reach shelter, but per-ished on the ridges. Incoming passengers over the Burlington and Union Pacific say that in every little gully are seen the carcasses of animals and that the bodies are scattered over the plains in every direction.

TWO CHICAGO PAPERS COMBINE The Record and Times Herald to be Merged into One.

Chicago, March 26 .- The Record tomorrow will print, over the signature of Victor F. Lawson, the following announcement: "To the Readers of the Record :--

The Chicago Record was established twenty years ago in connection with the Chicago Daily News, which lat-ter publication has recently completed its twenty-fifth year of issue. For the last thirteen years I have conducted both the Record and the Daily News as sole editor, publisher and owner. During these years American journalism has so developed that the publication of a single metropolitan newspaper now imposes such responsibilities a seem fairly and wisely measure the activities of one man, as their successful discharge should certainly fully satisfy his every proper ambition. A generous public has placed the seal of its approval on both newspapers. The Chicago Record has today the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the United States sold at its price. The Chicago Daily News has the largest paid circulation of any newspaper, morning or evening, pub-lished in the United States.

"In view of these conditions, it seems wise that I should now recognize those reasonable limitations of business activity to which the years entitle me, and content myself with the labors and responsibilities of one newspaper. "Acting upon this conviction, I have sold the Chicago Record to Mr. Herman Kohlsaat, who will hereafter issue it. in conjunction with the Chicago Times. Herald, under the title "The Chicago Record-Herald.

"It is a distinct satisfaction to be able to commit the Record and the interests of its readers into such worthy hands. Mr. Kohlsaat and his excellent newspaper have long since achieved a national reputation, which gives to the readers of the Record ample assurance that the Chicago Record-Herald will fully maintain that standard of enterprising, non-partisan and dependent journalism to which they have been accustomed. It may be added that the numerous original features and characteristics which have given the Record its peculiar individuality among American newspapers will be continued in the Record.

"American journalism is impersonal and I recognize that it concerns itself with the newspaper rather than with any individual. After the twenty years' relationship it seems fitting that I should make this personal statement to the readers of the Record and grateful. ly acknowledge my indebtedness for their generous confidence and support during these many years. I commend the Chicago Record-Herald under its new management to their equal favor "VICTOR F. LAWSON."

The Times-Herald 011 Thursday morning will become the Record-Herald. Frank B. Noyes, publisher of the Washington Star and president of the Associated Press, has acquired an in terest in the Record-Herald and will be its publisher, H. H.
