Mr. William Ratagan, 1846 River street,

Detroit, Mich., is school inspector of Wayne county, Quartermaster General, Supreme Commander of the Knights of St. John. He writes:

" For years I dreaded the unscasonable winter weather with its shock bring-ing colds and all kinds of trouble in its wake, and each winter I would have several weeks of sickness, laving me un for part of the time, and I suffered a great deal with stomach trouble. Last winter I was advised to take Peruna when I had the first sign of illness, and in less than a week I was like a new man. I could hardly believe my senses, and felt that I would have a relapse, but the winter and spring passed and not another sick day did I have, and I have been in perfect health since, thanks to Peruna."-W. P. Ratagan.

Mr. Willis Hughes, President of the Century Bicycle Club, of Crown Point,

"Peruna is very popular in Crown

Point, but I must say that it deserves all the praise it gets. There is nataral prejudice here against patent medicines, but Peruna has quietly yet persistently worked its way into hundreds of homes.

"I have found it an invaluable help, especially in cases of catarrh. I suffered with catarrh of the head and found that two weeks' treatment entirely cured me.

I now enjoy perfect health, and Peruna has a staunch friend in me."--Willis

ENGLISH CABINET DISSENSIONS.

Hicks Beach's Assistants Make an Onslaught on Him.

CHANCELLOR MAY RESIGN.

Should He, Chamberlain Might Be His Successor, Introducing Indirect Taxation.

New York, Nov. 16 .- "Your correspondent has received from an authoritative source, full confirmation of the rumors of cabinet dissensions already hinted at in previous dispatches," cables the London representative of the Tribune. The protracted session of the cabinet has been a deep political mystery, for which neither the program of the session nor the Mytilene affair supplied an intelligible clew.

There was an onslaught on Sir Mi-chael Hicks Beach by nearly all of his assistants. Mr. Balfour joined Mr. Chamberlain and Lord Salisbury and the Duke of Devonshire supported both in condemning the speech of the chancellor of the exchequer, which had chancellor of the exchequer, which had sent down consols with a rush. Sir Michael Hicks Beach's financial ad-ministration and his general proposals for carrying on the additional burdens of the war were harshly criticised and he was left almost alone with all the strongest men against him. Lord Lon-donderry, Sir Michael's closest friend, intervened as peacemaker, and a truce was arranged by him. The cabinet has been in session since this breach occurred, and there has been a renewal of the unpleasant controversy. Some c3 the best informed politicians are forecasting the early resignation of Sir c2 the best informed politicians are forecasting the early resignation of Sir Michael Hicks Beach. The informa-tion which comes to me from a high authority, does not go so far, but it confirms explicitly the report that the cabinet assistants of Sir Michael Hicks Beach have been exasperated by his judiclous speech, which helped to un-settle the markets. Mr. Chamberlain and Sir Michael Hicks Beach have neither understood nor sympathized with each other. One has condemned the method of financ-ing the war and the other has been has condemned the method of financ-ing the war and the other has been coldly critical of all matters of South African policy. There was a contest among them a year ago, but Sir Michael, with Mr. Balfour's amiable support, held his ground after accept-ing the proposals for sugar and coal duties and other half measures. The divergence of views clearly has been sharper this year, and Mr. Balfour has gone over to the other side of Mr. Chamberlain, with Lord Salisbury's ap-proval. The resignation of Sir Michael Hicks Beach would be an affair of momentous importance. He is the ideal old tory and country squire and has the power of rallying about him the unprogressive conservatives. There would be only one candidate for the the unprogressive conservatives. There would be only one candidate for the succession to the trebsury, and the ad-vent of Mr. Chamberlain as chancellor of the exchequer would be the signal for the adoption of a new system of indirect taxation for the relief of the Medical Diplomas for Ten Dollars.

New York, Nov. 16 .- James Norton-New York, Nov. 16.—James Norton-Smith, manager of the Central Uni-versity of Medicine and Science, Jer-sey City, has just been arrested on a charge of attempting to obtain money by false pretenses. The charge was made by Chief of Police Benjamin F. Murphy and was based on a letter re-Murphy and was based on a letter re-ceived from Dr. D. H. Harrison, of Swanville, Texas, to whom Norton-Smith had sent a letter offering to fur-nish him a diploma for $10. The false pretense, it is said, consisted in a re-presentation made in the letter that the Central university was incorporat-ed under the laws of New Jersey. It was incorporated two years ago, but in July last complaint was made to the police that Norton-Smith was con-ducting an illegral business and selling the police that Norton-Smith was con-ducting an illegal business and selling diplomas to any one who was willing to pay his charge of $10. As no one could be found to whom he had sold a diploma he could not be indicted. Through his counsel it is said he of-fered to cancel his act of incorpora-tions if the cutterilies round drom the fered to cancel his act of incorpora-tion if the authorities would drop the prosecution. Prosecutor James S. Er-win agreed to this and the certificate was cancelled. Subsequent develop-ments show that he resumed business almost immediately. When arraigned before the chief the accused denied that he had written the letter received by Dr. Harrison. by Dr. Harrison, PROMOTIONS THROUCH PULLS Political and Social Influence Will Not Avail Officers.

PRESIDENT IS AGAINST IT.

Hac So Informed Senators and Others -Record Will Count for More Than Anything Else.

Washington, Nov. 15 .--- It was announced at the war department today that the names of the officers to fill the vacancies in the grade of brigadiergeneral will not be announced until Congress meets, as it is not deemed de-sirable to make ad interim appointments. In addition to this statement and in view of the great pressure that has been brought to bear, it has been deemed proper to make the following official declaration:

"The secretary of war and the President have had informal discussions on army matters on several occasions and it is understood that the President has expressed himself most positively on the use of political and social influence by officers for the purpose of obtaining changes of stations, leaves of absence, modifications of orders, etc. Of course it is understood that officers often deem it necessary to have attention called to it necessary to have attention called to their cases by political friends for ap-pointments, especially cases of young volunteer officers who recently have been appointed. It is safe to say, how-ever, that at no period in the history of our government has the matter of rec-ord been used to such good purposes as during the present reorganization of the army, when greatest possible care has army, when greatest possible care has been taken in the selection of persons for appointment to the reorganized ar.ny

"The President has not hesitated to inform senators and others who have applied to him that no officer will imapplied to him that no officer will im-prove his chances by sending his friends to annoy the President in his behalf. On the contrary, the effect which will be produced probably will be directly opposite to that which the candidate hopes for. Several senators and representatives have had some disappointment because the persons in whom they are interested have not re-ceived the appointments and stations whom they are interested have not re-ceived the appointments and stations applied for by them, but the adminis-tration as a whole is evidently of the opinion that the good sense and judg-ment of public men will lead to the same conclusion as that arrived at by the President and secretary of war; that is, if a system of records be thor-oughly established at the war depart-ment, showing the progressive work of officers from year to year, it will be far better for the officers and men, as well as public officials that such a reg-ister be made the guide for selections, ister be made the guide for selections, details, etc., rather than influence. "The appeals of individuals to their congressmen for their personal assist-ance in the matters above enumerated necessitate public men giving up a great deal of their time in locating the proper office at which to apply for in-formation and the filing of appeals

LODGE'S SPEECH.

London Spectator Says it is a Warning to Germany.

London, Nov. 15 .- The Spectator commenting upon Senator Lodge's "very important speech" last Saturday night in Boston, will say tomorrow:

"Europe is in fact forbidden to acquire even a coaling station in either of the Americas. As Great Britain and France already have possession in America, it can only refer to Germany alone. The warning is to her, and it will stimulate Emperor William's plans for creating a great fleet." The Outlook, reviewing the position of the navies of the world, predicts the United States will yet have a fleet sec-ond only to that of Great Britain.

New York, Nov. 16 .- The killing in a duel of Licut. Blaskowitz, says a dispatch from Berlin to the London Times and New York Times, will certainly be brought up in the reichstag and the minister of war will be asked to explain it. Fierce Attack on Consul Mason.

Berlin, Nov. 15 .- The Kreuz Zeitung today makes a fierce attack on Frank H. Mason, United States vice consulgeneral because in a recent consular report the latter said the business-day stuation in Germany could not regain its former prosperity as long as the future respecting duties continued un-certain and the danger of foreign reprisals remained.

In Mr. Mason's report the Kreuz Zeitung sees a censure of the German Zeitung sees a censure of the German government and answers that duties in Germany, are not more uncertain than in the United States, and that Germany is only exactly following the example the United States has set in raising its duties. BRITISH CONCENTRATION CAMPS

Some English Papers Praise While Others Condemn Them.

New York, Nov. 16 .- According to the London correspondent of the Tribune, as a result of the publication of the elaborate report issued by the co-lonial office in relation to the concentration camps on the South Africa unionists papers pronounce the history of the camps as most creditable to England, while the pro Boer journals maintain that the moral of the dis-closures is the unutterable criminality of the policy of concentration. It is admitted in the report that there is an indiscriminate massing together of people, of insufficient housing and cover-ing, absence of warmth and poor raadopt precautions in order to prevent the concern from becoming American-ized. The organization of the com-nany is now such that it would be difficult for foreigners to obtain any ing, absence of warmin are poor ra-tions.
