ADJACENT CITIES

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - OCT. 21, 1893.

City Council Nominees.

At the Republican ward primaries, the following nominations were made for the city council: First ward, Richard Bradley and J. W. Clark; Second ward, Andrew Knudsen and E. J. Wade; Third ward, Amos Halladay and Nephi Rees; Fourth ward, J. D. Dixon and F. H. Simmons; Fifth ward, Ira H. Eldredge and J. B. Keeler. The convention for the nomination of a general city ticket will be held today.

First District Court.

In the case of Ole Erickson vs Eureka Hill Mining Co., Judge Smith rules that plaintiff could only recover for the time which had elapsed since his discharge from employment to the present time. A verdict of $1,74 for plaintiff was returned.

Zacharias Lowhorn was tried on the charge of forgery alleged to have been committed in Juniata county last fall. The jury acquitted him.

William Nuttall pleaded guilty to unlawful trespass on the Uintah reservation and was fined $10.

Nelle Peter Thompson pleaded not guilty to the charge of polygamy.

J. E. Chirstlieb and Mrs. Mary Carson, brother and sister, were tried on the charge of incest, alleged to have been committed in San Juan in May last. The defense admitted that defendants had lived in San Juan county under the assumed names of Mr. and Mrs. Edwards. The principal witness for the prosecution was Mr. Carson, of Grand Junction, Col., husband of the woman defendant. Mr. and Mrs. Carson have not lived together for nearly a year, the lady alleging that she left her husband on account of his drunkenness and disorderly habits. The trial occupied the entire day and was submitted to the jury in the evening.

Notes.

On Thursday night, burglars effected an entrance into the store of C. F. Hindmarsh by smashing a window-light in the front door. The cash register, a light wooden affair, was carried off. It was found in the morning several blocks away, pried open and $2.15 in small change gone. No clue.

Lillie Fisher, a little miss of thirteen years, while horseback riding the other evening fell and broke her left arm. She is the daughter of James Fisher.

Licenses to wed have been issued to David John Jr., of Provo, and Emily Thompson, of Sulpho, Heber C. Johnson, of Springville, and Mary Peterson, of Spanish Fork, C. F. Westfall and Mary Swenson, of Pleasant Grove.

Elder B. H. Roberts delivered an excellent lecture last night before the Polysophical society of the B. Y. Academy on the subject of "The World's Parliament of Religions."

The reception given at the opera house last night by Judge and Mrs. H. W. Smith and D. H. Peery was a noted event in the social annals of the Garden city. There were present members of the bar of the First district and their ladies and many other ladies and gentlemen from Provo, Salt Lake and Ogden. The opera house was decorated in a most beautiful and artistic manner with flowers and evergreens on which were shed softly tinted lights of many shades. Dancing was the order of the evening, and refreshments were served at Southworth's hall, near by.

A rumor was current on the streets yesterday that William Potsery, formerly of this city, had committed suicide in Sevier or Millard county, but there is no confirmation.

PARK CITY.

PARK CITY, - OCT. 20, 1893.

PLUCKY PARK.

Little Encouragement, But Work Goes On.

The news from Washington during the past week has not been of the kind to stimulate business in mining towns, but nevertheless the properties which have remained idle during the summer are preparing to start up as soon as they can, with the expectation that something will be done for the cause of silver before a great while.

The Ontario mine is now in full operation, and shipments of ore to the sampling works have been going on at a lively rate during the past week, and next week will see the ore going to market. The Ontario is adding up a great amount of cash for silver men, and this is looked upon as a good sign that the mine will keep going during the winter.

The Silver King is still keeping up its record as an ore shipper. About 250 tons of freight-ore has been shipped during the week to the Mingo smelter at Sandy, over the Utah Central.

A Coal Boom, at Any Rate.

The recent cold spell has set people to preparing for winter, and the different coal companies have been supplying fuel to their regular customers. The Union Pacific has lowered the rule on coal from Castle to one dollar per ton, thus stimulating that article in the market. The Pleasant Valley Coal Co. is now introducing the Castle Gate coal, and the rivalry is quite strong between the two companies.

The Gun Failure.

The gun failure during the week, that of McLaughlin & Co., was not unexpected, and no other firm here were affected by it. Deputy Marshal Tomlinson secured guns under an attachment in favor of Hymes Grocery Co. of Salt Lake, and has forwarded the goods to Salt Lake.

Fire Engine Running too Close.

The fire which occurred in the Palace round building the first of the week was not much more costly because very much damage was done, and a large conflagration was prevented by the prompt work of the fire department. The building was damaged, so that a new roof was necessary, and water did a great deal of damage on the lower floor, but not enough to delay business longer than one day at the restaurant. The chemical engine was put to a successful test, and did good work. After the fire was over and the engine returned to the house it was found that there was not enough material on hand to charge the engine, but after a few hours' delay a new charge was secured. This should not be the case again for there is no telling when the engine will be called out, and enough material should always be on hand to charge immediately.

Republican Ward Primaries.

The Republicans held their ward primaries last night for the nomination of aldermen from the different wards, and all meetings were attended by large numbers of voters, and much enthusiasm was shown for the work to be done at the coming election. In the first ward Jas. Farrell and Thomas Keenes were nominated; in the second ward, W. O'Connell and J. H. Rogers, and in the Third, Jas. Murdock and Jos. Ives. Altogether it is looked upon as a very strong ticket. The nomination of Shaver will be made early next week, and several candidates are now in the race.

Notes and Personals.

Two coach loads of people were carried to Salt Lake last Tuesday over the Utah Central road to attend the funeral of John Kimball. Work and business were suspended during that day.

The streets are again very dusty, and the sprinkling car is still idle.

J. J. Daly is again in the Park after a visit in the World's Fair. He was mightily well pleased with his visit, and is now preparing himself for the duties of convention from the Fourth precinct of Salt Lake City.

H. B. Emery, David Keith and Thos. Keenes were visitors to Salt Lake during the week.

Mr. A. Hatch, accompanied by his daughter and Mrs. A. C. Hatch and son, passed through the Park on the way to Chicago and the Fair last Wednesday.

MILLINERY. MILLINERY.

Ladies, remember that you can save 50 to 75 per cent by buying your millinery at Mme. Lemb's great closing out sale. Our stock has no competition in the city. Everything will be sold regardless of cost until entire stock is disposed of. Remember the place, Mme. Lemb, 55 Main street.

PREVENTION IS BETTER

Than cure, and those who are subject to rheumatism can prevent attacks by keeping the blood pure and free from the acid which causes the disease. You can rely upon Hood's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for rheumatism and earth, also for scrofula, boils and other diseases caused by impure blood. It tones and vitalizes the whole system.

Hood's Pills are easy and gentle in effect.

Chief Washington daughter and four of the grandchildren are guests of the Rosebud mission school at the Sisseton agency.

Mount Pleasant, September 30d, shows 400 scholars, an increase of 75 over last year. This is the largest enrollment for schools in the country for any year yet.

The Evening Press-Times of Seattle, Wash., has yesterday this the news of a receiver for the appointment of the Puget Sound National bank, which announced upon its sign a few days ago, Thomas H. Paddock, the business manager, was made receiver.

For the first time since the June clean up of silver the local bank clearings on Wednesday exceeded half a million dollars, the figure being $548,723, says the Denver News. This is partly due to the largely increased movement of the stock yards and the steady flow of cash payments from the smelters.

Late Thursday night eight prisoners confined in the county jail made their escape by cutting through the floor. Three were broken. The officers are in not pursuit of the others. Two were thieves, a cattle thief and a forger are among those still at liberty. They were being held to await the action of the grand jury.

C. D. Gurley states that his company has this year sold the cattle of their range in the San Miguel valley for $2 more a head than last year, says the Denver News. The sale was made last week, and if they had held off until now it would have resulted in thousands of dollars more, as the call is marked by steadily advancing.

The Cheyenne Sun says Captain Anderson, of Yellowstone Park, estimates that there are 2500 elk and 300 buffalo in the park at this time. The military authorities are very strict about preserving the game, and all campers are carefully searched for arms, and if any are found they are quickly confiscated. In this means the number of animals in the park are on the increase very rapidly.

Revenue Officers Thomas and Bullard of San Francisco secured an opium smoking outfit at Oakdale, Cal., and secured 2000 worth of opium. They arrested a Chinese named Yee Wah, who was caught smoking the stuff. The outfit was located in the rear of a Chinese laundry and has been operated since last August. Nobody in Oakdale suspected the Chinese till the officers arrived to make the seizure.

The Arapahoe county tax levy last year was $920,000, says the Denver News. The collections and other receipts bring the total up to $1,250,000. That is the amount of money which is made to run the county. The gang-sters may quibble over whether this man or that draws $100 or $150 a month, but they cannot get behind the fact that $1,250,000 goes somewhere. It is extracted from the people and goes somewhere.

The 10-year-old son of Fred Larsen of Evanston, Wyo., who was terribly scalded Sunday morning, has died of his injuries. The deceased and a playmate went over to the railroad shops to play. They endeavored to pump across a pit containing a boiler of water which had been taken from engines and the unfortunate boy fell in and before he could be rescued were horribly scalded that death resulted as stated above.

John Piper has come down from Virginia with his seventeen-year-old daughter, who met with an accident about five weeks ago through falling from a fence upon her head, and which resulted in the loss of her eyesight, says the News (Nev.) Gazette. The little sufferer's father, Mr. Rimmer, accompanied her to the Home on route to San Francisco, where it is thought she may be able to secure her sight, as it is hoped that only the nerves are affected.

Costa county, Idaho, is noted for a great many things, but in the matter of grain she is surely entitled to the palm, says the Salmon City Recorder. In that county there are 2700 Angora goats, and they are owned largely by one man. The color characteristic of these goats are their falling property from and their indiscriminate. Only persons who are suffering from catarrh in its worst form can be induced to herd them. If they are not kept in isolated places they would soon depopulate the county. They are assessed at $2.50 each.

A few days ago two little children, one two and the other five years old, of the East Wing out at the Oak Hill ranch, were playing in the dooryard in an old pit dug that had become partly filled with straw while tending sheep the Springville Independent. The mother was sick in bed and the children had been permitted to play unattended. The other boy said that they made a fire to play with and the little one was in the pit when the straw caught fire. The mother heard the children and ran to the door when the flame leaped from the pit and fed the child because of the flame and smoke. Finally the unfortunate was rescued by the father in the pit literally roasted, with the entire covering off in the burn. The parents are nearly distracted by the shocking accident.

A gang of young Frisco, Cal., gamblers, ranging in age from eight to twelve years, formed plans to hold up a train on the Fulton railroad. They took a horse and by some means secured two revolvers, the latter about a dozen and a large number of cartridges and percussion caps. They had their rendezvous in a clump of willows in the sunken part of the city, where they were discovered, and Officer Harrell arrested the leader, eleven years old, and found the horse, revolvers and cartridges in his possession. The others confessed to an attempt and escaped. They called themselves the Frisco and Fulton gang, and confided to the arrest boy of a big money expedition on foot which was to begin the following night. They had stayed some of the Row in Frisco. Were it not that they had been armed and capable of doing mischief it would be ridiculous, but they were prepared to shoot and throw bombs and might have wrecked the train. The horse they had was claimed by its owner.

BACK VOLUMES

OF THE

DESERET WEEKLY.

The six volumes of the DESERET WEEKLY in the present form is now bound. A limited number of copies of these six volumes can be obtained at the Deseret News Office, Salt Lake City, in bound form at $1.50 per volume. It is the best history of current events to be obtained, and by far the cheapest, and the time is no far distant when they will be eagerly sought after by students of history, anxious to be informed of the stirring events which have transpired within the past three years—the most interesting period of the history of the Latter-day Saints. Every person who can afford it should secure these volumes while they are to be had for future reference, and especially should they be obtained for every Sunday School, Improvement Association and Ward library. Apply early to make sure of getting them.
