Addresses by Returned Missionaries—Other Speakers Also Occupy the Tabernacle Stand.

At the Tabernacle yesterday afternoon Elder C.W. Poulsen was first called upon to address the congregation. He has just returned from a three years' mission to the Samoan Islands, where he arrived in December, 1890. He said he soon acquired the language of the natives, and for such the blessings of the Lord could not speak it as well as our own.

The mission was established in the year 1845 under very difficult circumstances. Christianity, so called, was first preached there in 1835, in just in which our Church was established. It was believed that the first white men sent there as preachers were from England and Germany. They were sent out by the London Missionary society, shortly afterwards the Roman Catholics went there. The Kings hating the Christians and was in prejudice the minds of the natives against the Catholics. At first the native women and let the Catholics land, but this was soon overcome by the Catholics landing on the issues in a very sparing manner. There has been a constant contention between these and other creeds ever since, occupying when they all unite, as they frequently do in opposition to our Elders. The Elders had endures a great deal of persecution and suffered, from the native preachers, one of whom was in every village. The work of the Lord was progressing rapidly on the islands. After receiving the Gospel the natives were very desirous of gathering here with the pioneers in these valleys. The principle of gathering was not preached to our people there, yet it was astonishing how quickly they obtained the spirit of it on entering the Church. The greatest harmony, Love and peace prevailed among the members of the Church. They vied with each other in the entertaining of the Elders sent among them. There were on the islands twenty-one Elders and two sisters from Zion, and two other Europeans converts. A great and good work was being accomplished among the natives. On receiving the truth they became possessed of great faith, and as a result many wonderful manifestations of the power of God were witnessed. The speaker concluded his remarks by speaking in the Maori language for a few minutes.

Elder Ralph Savage was the next speaker. He said he was pleased to again have the opportunity of addressing the Saints of the Latter-day Saints. He had returned recently from a mission to Great Britain. The spirit of persecution was rife in that country. It made little difference where the Elders of our Church went, both to proclaim the Gospel of life and salvation, they were persecuted. Persecution existed today just as it did in the days of the prophet. Our Elders made great sacrifices in leaving their wives, children, friends, mothers, homes and all that was dear and near to them to go forth and proclaim the Gospel to an unbelieving world. Wives, children, mothers and sisters willingly made similar sacrifices. Where could we find a people on the earth that would do so? Northern, Southern preachers when they left their homes to go to distant lands to preach or teach were paid. "Freely ye have received, freely give" comes for nothing. Salary was the first and foremost consideration with them. It was entirely different with our Elders. The Gospel they preached was the Gospel of Jesus Christ; it was exactly the same as taught by the Savior and His Apostles. The same promises followed the true believer, as in the meridian of time. As Latter-day Saints we promise, the moment in the Word that he or she should receive a remission of their sins and enjoy the promised blessings if they accepted the same with honest hearts. Wherever the Gospel has been upon the earth all the promised blessings accompanied it.

Elder Joseph W. McMurrin endorsed the remarks of the previous speaker, commenting on the gifts of the Gospel. He had been an eye witness to very many manifestations of the power of the Lord. Of all the people on the face of the earth the Latter-day Saints ought to be the most thankful and grateful to our heavenly Father for all the blessings and mercies they have received and enjoyed in these mountain valleys. Theory of hard times was heard all over our land, and in other lands. We were affected here to some extent, but viewing the condition of affairs from all sides we had very little occasion for crying hard times, especially when we consider the hardships endured by the early settlers here.

There were no fears that any one now would perish of starvation for want of the actual necessities of life. It was time there were a good many people in our midst out of employment who had been for some time previous. Winter was coming on, and those of us who could do so should sustain our Bishops by doing what we could to the support of the needy. The speaker said he heard a report that minority wanting that every person in the Salt L. S. valley in Zion and only devoted 1½ days each to six months for the benefit of the poor. Think of it! that required us to take care of the poor amongst and this we should strive to do.

Elder Angus M. Cannon, president of the Salt Lake Stake, did not doubt that any false impressions should go out concerning Brother McMurrin's remarks relative to the amount donated for the benefit of the poor. It was an average from each individual in the Stake that was asked for the poor from the first offerings. The Church has supplied the wants of the poor to this date. The amount contributed for the last six months has been about $18,000. If the people would give two cents each every month as a tax offering a world would supply all the needs of the poor. Let us practice the rules with unlimited and existing the other duties and we shall be as the sons of God in vain.

President George Q. Cannon also spoke on the subject, as the offerings and tithes, the law relative to tithing is set on in them day, so that none would suffer.

Fired in the capital.

William W. Wilson, a resident of Manti who was recently shot by a fellow herdsman that place, and who was then, at the city for treatment, died at the Hot Springs yesterday morning, after a delirious continual operation performed on him only an hour before. His body was forwarded to Manti last night for burial.

The Coalville City suit.

In the case of Selon L. Cannon vs Coalville et al, a suit for an injunction to restrain the defendants from interfering with him in the exercise of certain legal powers and for plaintiff damages, Judge Barton has ordered that both parties be restrained from in any way interfering with the property and that the same remain in state quo pending a final decision.

DON'T BE DECEIVED!

Some Suggestions that Afford Food for Reflection.

UTAH'S WELFARE IS THE THEME

How the Republican Party May Have a Majority in the Next Legislative Assembly.

To the Republicans of Salt Lake City:

We have become accustomed to the unfair methods of our political opponents and are, therefore, not surprised at the careless arguments they use to induce Republicans to desert the standard of the Republican party in the present Legislative campaign.

The well known desire of Republicans for the privileges of full American citizenship has been appealed to in a sovereign State has been appealed to in the hope that the desire for freedom would overcome party fealty and cause the latter, at least temporarily, to be cast aside that Gladstone may be elected.

The false statement has been made that a vote for a Republican is a vote thrown away; that we cannot expect to elect our ticket and therefore that we should vote for one that possibly may be the winning ticket.

Not content with these base plots our Democratic friends have gone so far as to threaten that if we elect a Republican Legislature any act that shall not conform with the ideas of the Democratic party or the whims of his excellency, our Governor, will not be allowed to be "degraded on the statutes of Utah."

To such we say that Republicans are neither slaves nor dreamers. We will neither cringingly vote at the behest of an autocrat temporarily vested with the power to thwart the will of a whole people, nor betray the men who have united with us in a firm purpose to work for the upbuilding of our country and the protection of her industries and people.

Our party has grown from the day the people of Utah divided on party lines. Our opponents who secured at first have seen an increase at every election that has been held. Nowhere has there been a decrease in our numbers. Everywhere election after election has shown our increased strength.

Republican members will be elected to several legislative districts in the Territory. We can carry Salt Lake City on a fair vote, and thus have the Legislature Republican in both branches.

Republicans are here to stay. Our Territory needs our efforts. Our opponents have been weighed in the balance and found wanting, and too slightly see the handwriting on the wall.

Remember that in this conflict we are unfettered by principle and let us not be deceived by the false promises of the enemy. We call upon every man who loves the principles of the Republican party to vote for those principles. The polls of today this is so young. Home and Church would deservedly adorn any seven states.

Weakness, Nervousness, Salt Rheum.

John W. Jones
Edison, Wash.

"Of my own free will and without solicitation I write to inform you of the good results of Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills. I feel that you are at liberty to use my name and have my testimony published in any way you may think best. My wife has been very sick with Salt Rheum for years. Her face was covered with it, and she was so lame she could not walk without crutches. She was also very nervous. She took Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills. I think there are no medicines equal to them, and have recommended them to many people. My wife is now well and able to do her housework. Her Salt Rheum has left her, her nerves are strong and she walks without crutches. I shall always speak a good word for Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills. I remain, very respectfully yours, JOHN W. JONES, Edison, Wash."
