THE FERRIS WHEEL.

New York is to Have the Gigantic Toy to Play With.

DIFFICULT TO FIND A LOCATION.

But that Problem Settled, it Will Be the Attraction of the City for Years to Come.

NEW YORK, May 29.—This city is to have the great Ferris wheel, the engineering wonder and central attraction of the World's Fair at Chicago last summer. That point is settled beyond peradventure. A portion of the mammoth carousel is already here. But where it is to be located is the question which is worrying Mr. Ferris, the inventor and owner of this greatest toy of the century.

A man with an elephant on his hands is traditionally an object of public sympathy, but what shall be the measure of condolence to be dealt out to a man who has six million pounds of idle, unproductive iron and steel cogs, spindles, axles, beams, bolts, nuts and screws to say nothing of 500,000 feet of timber, to dispose of somewhere.

That is the fix Mr. Ferris is in. He has the wheel that is being rapidly taken down in Chicago and shipped to New York city. Altogether it will fill 150 cars and the axle will come on the great car specially constructed to carry the Krupp gun across the continent.

Mr. Ferris was seen at the Engineers' club last night. He said: "It will take two months longer to take the wheel down. It cannot be dismantled by any means as quickly as it was put up. It will be shipped to New York city and be put up when I secure a site. I am not considering the Thirty-seventh street and Broadway location. I have half a dozen sites in sight, but I must move slowly. You know what real estate agents are, and they value property not on the basis of what it is worth, but on how badly you want it. I cannot say when the wheel will be in operation, but I hope to have it running by October and in a central and accessible location. It has not been determined to reconstruct Old Vienna in the enclosure. I have my elephant on hand as has been suggested and am looking for a stable. I will soon find one. I rejected a number of propositions to locate the wheel in other cities and at various points on the seashore, but when I put it up in Chicago I said New York should be its permanent home, and I expect it to be one of the main attractions for visitors to the metropolis for years to come."

The River Still Rising.

SPOKANE, Wash., May 29.—The Spokane river continues to rise slowly. Another bridge went out last night, the old Ross park car bridge. Most of Hosmer's ferry is under water and the people have taken to the hills.

CHINAMEN IN CHICAGO.

The Order of Tong Gee Hong Established in that City.

CHICAGO, May 29.—Clad in gorgeous fabrics and rigid formality seventeen Chinamen met last night and re-established the order of Tong Gee Hong in Chicago. This fraternity had existed in this city for many years, but about eight months ago was disbanded because of dissensions. The society is now arranging for a permanent lodge room which will be fitted up in oriental magnificence.

To Aid Strikers.

CHICAGO, Ills., May 29.—The Trades and Labor Assembly of Chicago has issued an appeal to the public, asking assistance for the Pullman strikers. The number of people dependent on the relief committee is now about 4,000, and it is becoming a difficult task to care for them. The supplies on hand now amount to very little.

THE CRIPPLE CREEK TROUBLE.

Both Sides Prepared for a Continuation of Hostilities.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., May 29.—The armistice declared yesterday was made use of by the sheriff to increase his forces. Nearly 400 men have been recruited in Denver and only await the slightest outbreak to be forwarded to Cripple Creek and sworn in as deputies.

All day the strikers have been searching for arms and ammunition in the mining camps, and wherever arms, ammunition or provisions were found they were confiscated and receipts given for them.

The miners have received offers of aid from Denver, Pueblo, Leadville, Ouray, Coal Creek and other points. If a battle becomes inevitable it is said that 1,000 armed men will be sent to aid the strikers on forty-eight hours' notice.

DENVER, Colo., May 29.—Every mine in the camp over which there has been trouble is "loaded." Large quantities of dynamite have been stored in the shafts back of the timbering by the strikers and hidden wires attached to these charges in such a manner that they could be exploded and every person in the mines instantly killed, while the men who start the battery remain out of sight.

There is no immediate prospect of arbitration. The strikers demand that only union men be given work, while the mine owners refuse to consent to an arrangement by which citizens are deprived of the means of making a living, unless he belongs to a union.

Breckinridge Not In It.

CINCINNATI, May 29.—The Enquirer's special from Covington, Ky., says that Colonel W. C. P. Breckinridge and Mr. Evan Settle, competitive candidates for the Democratic nomination for Congress from the Ashland district, spoke there in the court house today.

Breckinridge said he had not come asking alms; referred to his record of ten years in Congress; suggested it was bad policy to swap horses while crossing a swollen river; said the great Democratic party had the great task of tariff reform on its hands, and experienced Democratic legislators were needed to grapple with this task.

Mr. Settle spoke of his home people; thanked them for past honors, and assured them that should he be trusted with higher honors he would so fill the trust as not to dishonor it. While he was speaking a large number of women came to the meeting and were quite demonstrative in their applause.

First Peaches of the Year.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29.—Local commission merchants today received consignments of peaches, being the first of the season. The fruit was sold at $1.50 per box.

The Hawaiian Government.

NEW YORK, May 29.—Claus Spreckels has pronounced views on the Hawaiian situation, where his sugar plantations lie. "The present provisional government," he said, "is bound to go to smash. There has not been a revolution in the islands, but there will be one before long, and no mistake."

THE COAL STRIKE.

Colorado Miners Will Have to Quit Work, Too.

DENVER, Colo., May 29.—William Howell, member from Colorado of the National Mine workers, who attended the Columbus meeting, returned today. He says there has been a misunderstanding of the whole question among Colorado miners and they will at once have to go out all over the state, so as to bring about a settlement as soon as possible.

CALLING A CONFERENCE.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 29.—A conference of the mine operators of the Central & Southern Illinois coal fields and members of the executive board of the United Mine Workers of Illinois was held in this city today.

After much discussion a committee was appointed to send invitations to all operators of Illinois to attend an operators' meeting, to be held here next Thursday. A delegate meeting of Illinois miners will be held here the same day.

Getting a Jury.

MINNEAPOLIS, May 29.—The work of securing a jury to try W. S. Streeter on the charge of embezzling $1,000,000 of the defunct Northwestern Loan and Guaranty and Trust company has begun.

Ramsay Exonerated.

DENVER, May 29.—The convention of the Order of Railway Telegraphers, after a full investigation of the charges against Grand Chief Ramsay, has exonerated him.

CONGRESSIONAL NEWS.

A Bill of Interest to Homestead Settlers Passed.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Senator Jones predicted today that the final vote on the tariff bill will be taken by the Senate before June 15th.

Several bills were passed by the House including the following: To fix the northern boundary of Warm Springs Indian reservation, Oregon; extending the time for making final proof and payment on all lands claimed under homestead and desert land laws.

THE SENATE.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Schedule "D" of the tariff bill, "Wood and manufactures of wood," was taken up by the Senate today. Hall and Frye made speeches favoring higher duties for the benefit of the Maine lumbermen.

Burned to Death.

BONHAM, Tex., May 29.—The Columbian hotel at Ladonia was burned just before dawn. The guests all escaped in their night robes, except Charles Lowe, who was burned to death in sight of the spectators.

Married Her Leading Man.

PHILADELPHIA, May 29.—Miss Julia Marlowe, actress, and Robert Taber, formerly her leading man, were married at St. James church this city today.

Troops Ordered Out.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., May 29.—An order from Secretary of War Lamont was received at Fort Leavenworth this evening for three companies of military to move immediately to McAlester, I. T., to suppress the mine trouble and restore to owners the property now held by the strikers.

THE ARMOR PLATE HEARING.

More or Less Frauds Practiced a Long Time.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 29.—Captain Sampson, chief of the ordnance bureau of the navy department, today resumed his statements before the House committee investigating the armor plate frauds. He detailed the charges made by Wallace, a Pittsburg lawyer representing half a dozen employes of the Carnegie works. Secretary Herbert designated a board with witness at the head to investigate. None of the witnesses at the second hearing added any material information to that which had already been given by Mr. Hill. Mr. Buck testified to the practice in the works of so fixing specimens as to give the government a false record of the tests. He testified that falsifications were continued until January 1. Another employe testified that the practice has always existed. In response to a question by Representative Money, Captain Sampson said Superintendent Frick had given order to discontinue it. This order was in turn executed by Superintendent Schwab, who knew of the practices.

THE PRESBYTERIAN ASSEMBLY.

Resolutions Adopted on a Variety of Subjects.

SARATOGA, May 29.—At the opening of the general assembly today it was announced that the sessions might be completed today if business was crowded. It was resolved that according to the Presbyterian law the various presbyteries have a right to prohibit the attendance of students under their care, upon theological seminaries disapproved by the general assembly. A proposal was made to abolish the office of pastor at large in the weaker presbyteries, and also the synodical missionary, but this was lost by a large vote. The committee appointed to confer with Professor Smith reported that they had a full and fraternal conference with him, and was prepared to tell anything that would justify further action by the assembly.

A committee to confer with the theological seminaries upon the subject of closer relations and completer control was appointed.

The committee on church polities reported against any changes in the portion of the constitution which provides for the committee's prosecution in heresy cases. The report was adopted.

The committee on temperance reported recommending the assembly to endorse the view that no party which maintains or favors license and places specified approval of the saloon upon its platform, should receive the suffrages of Christian men. After much consultation and motions of amendments and points of order the recommendation was adopted.

A Violation of Treaty.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Resolutions to be submitted by Representative Haynes of Maryland in the House tomorrow will recite that the Russian government has denied admission to that country of Rabbi Krauskopf, an eminent Hebrew ecclesiastic of Philadelphia, and this action by Russia is a breach of the treaty which gives American citizens the right to enter, sojourn or travel in Russia the same as Russian citizens are admitted to this country. The resolution will direct the state department to ask Russia for full observance of the treaty, and in case of refusal will direct the severance of all treaty relations with Russia.

INTERESTING FIND.

A Stone Slab With a Puzzling Inscription.

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 29.—While workmen were blasting in May street, Fredonia, Chautauqua county, Saturday morning they turned up a slab three feet long, four feet wide and one foot thick, bearing an inscription which was very clear when the stone had been washed. One side of the stone was polished smooth and bore the following words: "Vos, sed U nos estatis mancipium et morte 5th year of Antiem."

Scientists have visited the spot, inspected the slab, puzzled over the inscription and made many attempts at translating. All believe that the language was directly bearing on the almost forgotten belief of Antinomianism which flourished in the old world, particularly in England during Cromwell's reign. The fifth year of Antiem, the date upon which the inscription was supposedly chiselled into the surface of the slab, would be in 1654. According to history the believers in Antinomianism interpreted the 6th chapter of Romans and the 2nd chapter of first Peter in such a manner that they believed men and women might violate laws of personal purity and still be good Christians. This sect of religion at one time had many disciples and its precepts were lived up to in the years which followed the reign of the dissolute Charles II. It was finally stamped out, but sight of and forgotten. It is believed that some of these may have found their way through the wilderness and established temples in what is now Fredonia. Here they set up a temple and lived according to their peculiar belief. Their total disappearance may be accounted for on the basis that they lost their lives by falling victims to the Indians. Today further investigations will be made in the hopes of discovering additional relics of this forgotten belief. The slab will be preserved by the Chautauqua county historical society.

A Hat Trimmings Decision.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Secretary Carlisle today rendered an important decision on the claims of Fleitmann & Co., of New York, for refund on account of alleged over payment of dues on hat trimmings under the tariff act of 1883. The claims involving the same questions now before the department aggregate approximately twenty million dollars. The secretary declines to revoke the order of Secretary Foster suspending all the hat trimmings repayment.

Another Anti-Bond Resolution.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Representative Bailey, of Texas, will again bring forward his resolution approved by a majority of the judiciary committee denying Secretary Carlisle the right to issue bonds to meet the current expenses, if another bond issue is determined upon.

A Foundling Finds a Fortune.

OMAHA, May 29.—Six years ago Dr. and Mrs. Ramacciotti adopted an eighteen-months-old boy at the St. Louis foundling hospital, St. Louis, Mo. His foster parents have since died and he has been declared their heir, inheriting nearly $200,000.

Justice Sutherland Surrenders.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., May 29.—Ex-Justice of the Peace Kenneth F. Sutherland, convicted in connection with the Gravesend election scandals last November, who disappeared when threatened with arrest, has surrendered to the police.

A Mob Organizing.

LA SALLE, Ill., May 29.—It was reported this afternoon that a mob was organizing to attack the men in charge of the Carlson company's shaft and a guard of militia was sent to the mine.

Mr. John Taylor, who resides at 323 Twenty-second street, Ogden, is one of the best-known gentlemen in the Territory; he is 50 years of age and has lived here the greater portion of his life; he has been a constant sufferer from catarrh for the past 11 years, and in an interview with the writer he says:

"Yes, I can heartily recommend the treatment given by Drs. Shores & Shores to all who are suffering as I was, for I was in such a very alarming condition that I had little hope of a speedy recovery.

"I had terrible pain over the eyes and a tightness just across the bridge of the nose, a constant hawking and spitting, severe cough, shortness of breath, and my heart seemed to be greatly affected, as any little excitement caused a great fluttering of that organ.

"Pains in my back, no appetite, and what I did eat caused great distress, being 50 years of age, I imagined I was incurable, but being advised by friends to go to the wonderful Doctors Shores & Shores, I came from Ogden here to take the new treatment, and in conclusion will say I have been benefited beyond measure, the hawking and spitting stopped immediately after the second treatment.

"Long live Drs. Shores & Shores, and may their progress in life be as rapid and satisfactory as their treatment has been in my case."
