SENATE.

Appropriation Bills.

WASHINGTON, 22.—The pension appropriation bill being up, Morton proposed, as an amendment, his bill to provide for and regulate the conduct of the Presidential vote, etc.

Sprague appealed to the Senate not to allow such an extraordinary amendment to the bill, and moved to lay it on the table; agreed to, 32 to 30. The bill having been considered as in committee of the whole, was reported to the Senate, and Morton renewed his amendment, but finally withdrew it, and the bill passed.

The post office appropriation bill was then taken up, when the clause adopted by the House, repealing the act of the Pacific Mail Contract, was reached, West, who had charge of the bill, said that the committee reported that the bill should be passed, and the reading of the bill continued so that the amendments of the committee might be first acted on.

Robertson moved to strike out the paragraph appropriating $500,000 for official postage, and to insert in lieu thereof a provision restoring the franking privilege.

West moved to lay it on the table; agreed to, 32 to 25. The ways were

—Alcorn, Bayard, Conover, Cooper,

Davis, Denney, Eaton, Edmunds,

Hamaguchi, Goldthwaite, Gordon,

Harvey Johnston, Kelley, Lewis,

McCreary, Merriam, Pease, Ranson, Robertson, Salisbury, Spencer, Stevenson, Thurman, and Tipton, 25.

Thurman moved to add an additional section, allowing the Congressional Record to go free through the mails.

Edmunds moved an amendment permitting all the public documents already printed by either house to be franked by any member, until December 1st, 1875.

Morrill, of Vt., moved an amendment allowing the Congressional Record, or any part thereof, to be carried free of postage, and the question then being on Thurman's amendment as amended, West moved to table it; rejected, 22 to 24, and the amendment was then agreed to. Several minor amendments were agreed to when Thurman said the bill was being discussed under the five minutes rule, and that the bill was not yet to be considered as an amendment, and the providing for a postal telegraph, he moved that the Senate adjourn, as the subject had not yet been considered under this rule unless the Senate was prepared to deal with a matter involving the interests of thousands of people.

The motion was lost.

Alcorn moved an amendment that garden seeds and agricultural reports passed free through the mails; rejected, 21 to 24.

Hamlin moved an amendment to fix the salary of the postmaster at New York at $9,000; agreed to.

Dorsey submitted an additional section, that any public bill essentially as reported from the P.

O. committee.

Johnson raised a point of order, that the amendment involved new legislation, and had never been considered as an amendment to

When their task was completed the Savitar went to the Auckland Islands to hunt up the German patry, about which some anxiety was felt at Melbourne; it found them all right, and they then proceeded in getting observations of the island. It was cloudy half an hour after the first contact, but clear thereafter, and 112 photographs, six sets of measures with illuminometers, and observations of the third and fourth contacts were secured. Professor Harkness states that he arrived at Port Chalmers

New Zealand, Dec. 27th, and compared chronometers and results with Dr. Peters, at Queenstown.

While the Savitar was lying at Chalmers the French observers from Campbell Island arrived, and reported a failure of their station in consequence of clouds. Dr.

Smith and his party, at Chatham Island, had cloudy weather during most of the transit, and obtained only a few observations, and a number of meteorological measurements.
