THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

The Great Country Paper of the West.

Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Tearing Up State Again—The Bell Telephone company is laying additional cable under State street.

H. W. Smith Convalescent—H. Warren Smith is convalescent from a two week's struggle with pneumonia.

Going on Tour—Fred Graham will meet tonight, with the Festival chorus, previous to starting on a short Orpheum circuit with the Imperial quartet of which he is a member.

Diseased Cows For Sale—Officials of the Bureau of Animal industry report that the owner of the local cows which were recently discovered infected with tuberculosis, is endeavoring to sell them.

Afraid to Go Home in Dark—Residents of Second West and Eighth North streets are calling for street lights in that part of the town to prevent accidents from erratic driving in the dark.

Evangelist Leaves—Fred. B. Smith, the Y. M. C. A. evangelist, left last night, for Los Angeles where he will conduct a series of meetings. His address is care of the Los Angeles Y. M. C. A.

Death of Mrs. Jones—Mrs. Jones, keeper of the boarding apartments at Sixty-two and one-half Richards street, died yesterday from typhoid-pneumonia. She has been a resident of this city for three years.

Mendelssohn Evening—Hammond hall was crowded last night, on the occasion of the Mendelssohn evening, given by Misses Esther Allen violinist, Matl Hall pianist, and pupils, assisted by Miss Edna Cohn, contralto. The program passed off successfully, and was deservedly well received. The pupils performed with a marked degree of proficiency, while the principals carried out their parts in that artistic form for which they have long been noted.

Plenty of Recruits—Private Pitt P. Keller of the Recruiting service, and attached to the Salt Lake station, has been transferred to the Thirteenth Infantry at Fort Leavenworth, to serve out his enlistment. He leaves Thursday next, for his new station. An order from the war department closing up the reculiting station in this city is looked for now most any day, as the army is full, and such few enlistments as are desired now, can be accepted at regular army posts.

At St. Mary's Academy—There were special exercises, dedicated to Dante the Italian poet, held at St. Mary's academy last evening, under the auspices of the graduating class. There was a literary and musical sprogram, including a piano solo by Miss Mary Taylor, a paper on Dante by Miss Kate Brennan, an essay on Dante by Miss Taylor, a review of several of the poet's works by Misses. Lornar Burton, Edna Camomile and Emma Bixby, and other interesting features. On the programs were sketched a likeness of Dante by Miss Burton.

KNOCKS HIS WIFE DOWN.

Dan V. Galven Selects Vicinity of Police Station for the Assault.

At 11 o'clock last night, just as the "graveyard" shift of policemen was going on duty, there was considerable commotion caused just across the street by a series of piercing screams. They were uttered by the divorced wife of Dan V. Galven who had attacked the woman, knocked her down and beat her brutally. Several patrolmen rushed across the street and placed the man under arrest on the charge of assault and battery.

The ex-wife, Mary Kilkeen, and her two sisters, Kate and Annie, were walking along the street when suddenly Galven walked up to them and knocked his former wife down. The women screamed and policemen rushed to their assistance. Patrolman Cassidy picked up the woman while Policeman Lyon placed Galven under arrest.

Some time ago Galven was arrested for a similar offense, found guilty and fined $25. In justification of his act last night he stated that his former wife had threatened to drive him out of town and he boasted that no woman could do that.

THE KIDNEYS AND THE SKIN.

In the spring, the kidneys have much to do. If they are weak or torpid, they will not do it well, and the skin will be pimply or blotchy. That is telling the story in a few words. Hood's Sarsaparilla strengthens and stimulates the kidneys, cures and prevents pimples, blotches and all cutaneous eruptions.

JURY RECOMMENDS THAT HUGH MEYERS BE KEPT

Cripple Believed to Be Implicated in The Brutal Murder of John C. Barnett.

Late yesterday afternoon the coroner's jury sitting in Justice Hanks' court, returned a verdict in the murder case of John C. Barnett, whose life was taken in room 42 of the American House on Commercial street one week ago.

The jury, composed of H. G. Olsen, T. E. Curtis and D. J. Lang found that Barnett came to his death from strangulation and blows, the blows being inflicted with a crutch. The jury gave it as its opinion that the crutch used was that owned by Hugo Meyers, the young cripple hobo, and a recommendation was made that Meyers be held on the charge of murder.

Detectives are still hard at work trying to weave more evidence around Meyers but the latter persists in his first story and declares he knows nothing about the murder. At the inquest, Florence Richardson, testified she saw Meyers and Barnett together in the American House.

Dyspepsia is our national ailment. Burdock Blood Bitters is the national cure for it. It strengthens stomach membranes, promotes flow of digestive juices, purifies the blood, builds you up.

DR. TALMAGE ELECTED.

Well Known Scientist is President of Utah Health League.

A meeting of the Utah Health league was held yesterday afternoon in the office of Dr. Talmage in the Sharon block, at which a permanent organization was effected with Dr. James E. Talmage, president; Dr. F. A. Clark, vice president; Mrs. C. H. McMahon, secretary and treasurer. The board of directors of the league consists of these three officers, together with Judge William H. King, Heber J. Grant, C. S. Tingey, J. A. Hyde of Nephi, M. J. Browning of Ogden and John Dern.

At the meeting yesterday afternoon a letter was read from Dr. C. S. Tyndale, pledging the support of the medical profession in the work of the league which is done for the public good. It is the intention to print and distribute copies of the constitution and by-laws which were adopted at a previous meeting. A meeting will shortly be called to consider the important subject of the sale of impure milk.

A specific for pain—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, strongest, cheapest liniment ever devised. A household remedy in America for 25 years.

PAINTERS MEET FRIDAY.

The master painters of this city will meet next Friday evening, to consider articles of association which will bring them in affiliation with the national organization. It is believed this will stiffen the cervical vertebrae of such members as may be faint hearted and inclined to give into the demands of the men—demands that the master painters declar are unreasonable beyond all limit. In eight years, the wages of the journeymen have been raised $2.50 per day, beyond which the bosses say they can not go. They also claim that the regular trade is being injured by independent painters and paperhangers who work only for themselves, so are not obliged to join any union. They have only a few tools, do not keep any shop, and with no rent to pay beyond the quarters in which they live, can underbid the shops on any job that is not very large.

DEATH OF MRS. SMITH.

Wife of Patriarch Dies at Ripe Old Age of 87 Years.

Mrs. Mary Ann Frier Smith, wife of Patriarch William J. Smith, and one of the early pioneers, died yesterday after a week's illness, at her home at 37 Sixth East street. The funeral will be held at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon in the Eleventh ward meetinghouse.

Mrs. Smith was 87 years old and up until the time she was taken ill a few days ago retained all her faculties.

MRS. MARY ANN FRIER SMITH.

She was born June 18, 1821, at Plachback, Lincolnshire, England. In 1846 she married William J. Smith, a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, who brought her and her two children to Utah in 1849. There are only two members of the company with whom she crossed the plains that are still living.

They started from Liverpool on Jan. 28, arriving in Salt Lake in September of the same year. While on the way Mrs. Smith gave birth to a son, Joseph Smith, of 564 east Sixth South street. When the child was 10 days old they started from Council Bluffs across the plains. Mr. Smith settled with his family in Cottonwood. Until a house could be built they lived in wagons. In 1852, under instruction from President Brigham Young, he built a house in the Eleventh ward. Mrs. Smith has lived in the old homestead since that time. Mrs. Smith underwent all the trials and privations incident to pioneer life in Utah.

Mrs. Smith was the mother of 10 children, six of them still living. They are Joseph, Hyrum, Jacob and Mary Ann Smith, Mrs. Rachel McMaster, and Mrs. Margaret Woodward. She leaves 24 grandchildren and 22 great-grandchildren.

Two Specials

They are bargains in every sense of the word.

$4000.

807 Second Ave., lot 33x115 feet. Lot worth, including paving, sewer and sidewalks paid, $1800. The house is connected with sewer and has one of the best hot water heating plants of its kind in this city, costing the owner over $600. This leaves only $1600 for the building, which could not be built for less than $2200. Can't you figure a bargain in this proposition? It is a frame house, full two-story, 4 rooms first floor, and 3 rooms on the second. It is a better built house than most of the brick houses put up for sale.

$1275.

For a neat little home on 8th East near 10th South, lots in the same block selling for not less than $600 per lot. This must be sold quick.
