

FUNERAL OF JAMES S. BROWN

Services Over Remains of Pioneer Held in Assembly Hall.

HIS MEMORY EXTOLLED.

Eulogies Pronounced by President Joseph F. Smith, Apostle Young, Pres. Cannon and Others.

Honors and tokens of love and esteem associated with the obsequies over the remains of a good and sterling man, marked the services and last rites that were held yesterday over the body of James S. Brown. The funeral services were held in the Assembly hall, which was well filled by those who had respected the name and honored the deeds of the departed. The four staves were draped in white and covered with palms and potted plants. White crepe was also draped in front of the organ, while on the sacramental table in front of all rested the white velvet casket which was laden with beautiful flowers of many kinds. Indeed the floral tributes alone were an inspiration of love. Scarcely have the florists of this city converted their fragrant possessions into more beautiful and significant designs. Some of the most striking pieces were a cycle and sheaf from the Pacific Islands missionaries, a pillow from the grand olden days, a large open book from the family and a great many wreaths from friends.

The music was furnished by the Temple choir, and carried that touching sweetness for which that organization is famed. On the stand were President Joseph F. Smith and counselor, John H. Winder, also President Brigham Young of the Apostles quorum, Apostle Judger Clawson, Patriarch John Smith, President Angus M. Cannon, Joseph E. Taylor and C. W. Perce of the Salt Lake Stake, President George Reynolds of the First Council of Seventy, Bishop Walter J. Beattie of the Seventeenth ward, in which the deceased lived, former Bishop Tingey of the same ward and many of the missionaries of the South Sea Islands, where as a missionary the departed man narrowly escaped being devoured by cannibals.

President Cannon presided over the services, which were opened by the choir rendering the hymn, "I need Thee every hour."

Elder C. W. Perce offered the opening prayer, after which the choir sang, "Nearer, my God, to Thee."

Bishop Walter J. Beattie of the Seventeenth ward was the first speaker, and he stated that the deceased had been a resident of the Seventeenth ward for nearly 40 years, and during his acquaintance with him, the Bishop knew him to be a man of absolute integrity. The speaker stated that the departed was a very attractive conversationalist, especially when in a reminiscent mood, as he was a man endowed with a wide range of information. He was a humble man, and talked of his coming and going as unconcerned as of any daily event.

The next speaker was Elder Joshua Terry, who was associated with the deceased in missionary labors among the Indians. He related one occasion when the red men took Elder Brown and his companions prisoners, and where his life hung in the balance for three days.

The next speaker was Pres. Angus M. Cannon, who said he could speak untrammelled and free, for he knew the deceased for many years, and he never knew him to falter. He has been true and faithful as a soldier and missionary, and his friends on the other side will welcome him to their hearts.

President Brigham Young said he was acquainted with James S. Brown and had known him ever since the Saints left Nauvoo. Whenever he was called upon to speak, he would be ready to join his brethren on the other side and enjoy their full fellowship. He was a wise counselor and had grown great in the eyes of those who loved the Lord. The speaker said he was thankful that James S. Brown had left a family worthy of him, that his sons and daughters were true and God-fearing men and women.

Mrs. Maggie Hall sang the "Beautiful City" with thrilling sweetness, and the chorus was sung by the choir.

President Joseph F. Smith was the concluding speaker and he began his remarks by saying that he arose to speak with deep sympathy for the family of the deceased. He first became acquainted with Elder Brown in the spring of 1860 when the speaker and he together with some others traveled to England. If it were anything that will bring out the character of a man, said the speaker, and make it manifest to his companions, it is to journey 1,000 miles over the plains by mule team, and in that experience the character of Elder Brown shone out in a very conspicuous manner. President Smith affirmed that Elder Brown was a true man, an honest brother, and no man who knew him well could say anything against him. He cannot say that he was perfect, said the speaker, "but he lived as near perfection in his honesty and integrity as almost any man of my acquaintance." President Smith read from the 20th chapter of Revelations, beginning at the eleventh verse, "I saw a great white throne," etc. After reading the passage he bore a most earnest and impressive testimony of the reality of the resurrection of the dead. "Every man shall be judged according to his works, and when James S. Brown's time shall come, he shall stand proudly before the bar of God to be judged. No man can point to one dishonest or dishonorable act that he ever committed."

President Smith also quoted the words of the Prophet Joseph Smith, that whatever principles of the reality of a man attains to in this world it shall rise with him in the world to come, and if one man becomes more intelligent than another by his diligence and faithfulness, he shall receive the advantage in the next world. After reading several other passages from the Doctrine and Covenants, President Smith closed by reiterating his knowledge of the reality of the resurrection of Jesus Christ and of all the human race.

The choir rendered the hymn, "Farwell all earthly honors," pronounced by Patriarch John Smith, after which the casket was borne to the hearse by six sons of the deceased, and a large cortege of carriages followed the remains to the city cemetery, where they were interred in the family plot. The grave was dedicated by Elder John T. Caine.

BIG TOURIST TRAVEL.

S. A. Hutchinson, who is manager of the tourist department of the Chicago Union Pacific & Northwestern line, is in the city today. He has just returned from Idaho investigating conditions surrounding the proposed excursion to Thunder Mountain. He says it will be every bit as large as predicted, and that it will see an influx of visitors seldom equalled anywhere.

NEGRO LYNCHING WAS DISCUSSED

Able Paper by Rev. Washington Read Before the Ministers.

USEFULNESS OF THE RACE.

Suggests a Remedy for America's Greatest National Disgrace—Importance of Sunday Schools.

At the meeting this morning of the Ministerial association, the following resolution, offered by Secretary J. T. Axton of the Y. M. C. A. was adopted: "Whereas, we feel the deep importance of training our youth in the principles of righteousness, temperance and purity, giving them both the Gospel and science as the basis for such teaching, and

Whereas, the Sunday school is the agency through which the church influences and instructs the young, therefore,

"Resolved, that we advocate the continuance of the school lesson system, recognizing it as one of its essential features."

The other feature of the meeting was a paper read by Rev. Washington, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church, and chaplain of the Eighth Illinois volunteers during the Spanish war. His theme was the lynching of the American negro in the United States. The speaker held that it is one of the gravest problems confronting the American people in the twentieth century, and that it should be on the increase. Lynching is not adequate punishment for the number of instances of this crime. At the same time it is being committed by white men every day; but they can be tried by the courts, and be released on payment of a small fine.

The speaker called attention to the frequent instances of good citizenship on the part of the negro, especially in responding to the call of this country, as evidenced in the late war. The coming of the negro to America was his choice, and now that he is here, he is here to stay, and during the 40 years of his independence has he not kept pace with the superior race? The substantial business man is always ready to testify to the worth of the negro. Any coward can oppress a people, but it takes a brave man to treat all men of whatever race and condition fairly. Chaplain Washington said, "I would rather see every one of the 10,000,000 of negroes in this country driven into the Gulf of Mexico and sunk there with clean hands and pure hearts, than to live with the blood of an other race of human beings, dripping from their hands."

The speaker thought it strange that the Christians of the land do not publicly take up the cause of the negro in this matter. He said there is a remedy, and that is to do it with our own hands. Hold the participants in a lynching responsible personally for their deeds. Arraign them on charge of murder, and when found guilty punish them as other murderers are. Then make work for the negro. "I think that much of the persecution of my people in many parts of this country are the dark hours before the dawn," Chaplain Washington showed by statistics of production the effective work the negro was doing, particularly in the south. One negro in every hundred who can read and write, is engaged in teaching, preaching and other professional work. Give the negro time and he will astonish the world. Do not struggle against us, but labor for us for the common good. Help us crush out this criminal outrage so oppressive to us as a race, and should be revolting to you as upholders of the most independent country on the face of the earth. Justice and truth are eternal and indicative of the true Christianity which blesses the world." The chaplain's paper was explained, and while it evoked considerable discussion, the sentiment of the association was in favor of his position.

LYNCH DESTROYS MACE AFFIDAVIT

Interview With Him Makes Strange Entirely Innocent.

NOTHING SAID AS TO KING.

County Attorney Refuses to Tell About Conversation, If Any, as to the Later.

District Attorney Elchorn, County Attorney Christensen and Attorney Weller held a long interview with James Lynch in the penitentiary on Saturday afternoon in relation to the Mace affidavit, which implicates John Strange, a Colorado convict, in the murder of Godfrey Prowse at the Sheep Ranch club. The result of the interview is that all idea of bringing Strange here to stand trial has been abandoned by the authorities.

Lynch was expected to divulge damaging testimony against Strange, but to the contrary he convinced the authorities that the man had nothing to do with the crime at all. Lynch talked freely, his statements being entirely voluntary, without any promise of reward or leniency. He stated that Strange was not in the city at the time the crime was committed. He completely destroyed all credibility of Mace's affidavit.

Whether or not his statements implicated King in the crime has not been given out by the officials of Utah, as Lynch's statements may have some effect upon the sympathies of the board of pardons and may lead to some action on their part favorable to himself.

ATTORNEYS CHANGED.

In Judge Stewart's court this morning, Frick and Edwards were entered as attorneys for Robert L. King, in the case of the State vs. James Lynch and Robert L. King, the condemned murderers of Godfrey Prowse.

$1,250 For Preece.

The Supreme Court today affirmed the judgment of the lower court in the case of John Preece vs. the Rio Grande Western Railway company. The case was brought in Davis county, for the destruction of a barn and some lumber by fire caused by a spark from an engine of the defendant company. The jury brought in a verdict for plaintiff in the sum of $1,250.

This judgment is affirmed in the opinion rendered today which was written by Justice Baskin and concurred in by Chief Justice Miner and Justice Barth.

Gygi Not Sentenced.

In the case of the State vs. Robert Gygi, convicted of failure to provide for his infant son, Judge Stewart this morning continued the time for passing sentence until April 12, 1902.

Alleges Habitual Drunkenness.

Jennie Gibson is suing her husband, Samuel Gibson, in the district court for a divorce on the grounds of desertion, failure to support and habitual drunkenness. Mrs. Gibson asks for the custody of their minor child.

In Favor of A. E. Hyde.

In the case of Sarah Everhard vs. Alonzo E. Hyde, in which plaintiff sued to recover $2,546 with interest and attorney's fees, alleged to be the balance due on a promissory note, Judge Hall rendered a decree in favor of the defendant and the plaintiff accordingly forfeited.

Defendant in his answer claimed that there was no consideration for the note, that it was merely given to secure the payment of a note given by John W. Young, which he had failed to pay.

COURT NOTES.

Judge Hall will tomorrow, at 10 a. m., make settings of equity cases for the April term of court.

Judge Hall today entered a decree of divorce in favor of plaintiff in the case of Roy L. Stockham vs. Rosa L. Stockham on the ground of desertion.

The visit of the choir has given a marked impetus to the work there and President Robinson has received letters from Massachusetts, Alabama, Montana and other states enquiring about the Mormon people. These letters were from travelers who heard the choir on its coast. Dr. Riff has proven a great help to the cause there, giving the mission-

GRAND AMERICAN HANDICAP SHOOT

Great Live Bird Tournament is on Today at Kansas City.

LARGE CROWD OF SHOOTERS

Callison of Salt Lake is Entered in Many of the Events—May Land On Top.

Kansas City, Mo., March 30.—Most of the 461 wing shots who have entered for the Grand American handicap live-bird tournament at Blue River park in this city are here tonight. Delegations have arrived on every train during the past 24 hours. Among the large delegations today was 150 wing shots from Chicago, who came in this evening on the Rice special.

Nearly all of the prominent wing shots in the United States will participate in the big shoot this year. Many who are here have participated in every Grand American handicap since the annual shooting event was inaugurated. The unprecedented entry list brings to the front many aspirants for wing-shot honors who have never been heard of before. Manager Shaner, who has managed every Grand American handicap since 1893, says that almost half of those entered are strangers to him.

The preliminary events will be the Kansas City sweepstakes at 12 birds, to be shot on the 30-yard mark, and which will take place tomorrow morning, and the nitro-powder handicap, at 16 birds, on Tuesday. The handicap in the latter will be the same as that in the Grand American handicap, and both events will serve as practice for the big event on Wednesday.

Callison of Salt Lake is entered in many of the events, and his past record encourages his friends to hope that he will land pretty close to the top.

RUNNELLS' BADLY HURT.

American Derby Candidate May Not Be Able to Run Again.

Chicago, March 31.—It is reported from Hawthorne that Runnells, one of John A. Drakes American Derby candidates, was severely injured while being given a work-out. According to the report the horse overreached himself and a tendon of one of his forelegs was badly cut. Trainer Wishard could not be reached and Mr. Drake is in New York. Runnells is the colt which Drake bought of T. P. Hayes last winter for $15,000. He had just been put into training at the Hawthorne track.

PUGILISTIC SIDELIGHTS.

James Murphy and Jack Root May Box in Salt Lake.

The Butte Intermountain says: Kid Williams, who recently lost to Jerry McCarthy in Utah, is back in Butte and is anxious to meet the husky Jerry again.

"I see by the papers that Oglethorpe wants to fight me," said Williams yesterday. "and while I am willing and ready to meet any of them at my weight, I would prefer to take on McCarthy once more. When McCarthy came to me and wanted to help me up, of course I refused, as I was there to rest, and while I was there arguing with McCarthy to let me alone, the referee counted me out. I don't think it was fair, and I believe I can defeat the 'Walkerville Pet.' He outweighs me by several pounds, but I can lick him with a fair show."

James Murphy, the genial boxing instructor at the Butte gymnasium, said yesterday that it had almost been arranged for him and Jack Root to fight in Salt Lake in August. Murphy is confident that he can take the measure of the Chicago heavyweight and is willing to back his judgment with any of the realm. In his halcyon days Murphy was the peer of any of the coast welterweights, and though he is now older by several years, he is sure that he has not deteriorated, and is anxious to put up his hands in the roped arena once more.

Harry Stoney and a Ranch of Players Expected Today.

Logan fans are looking forward with much interest to the expected arrival there today of Harry Stoney and a number of ball tossers who will do their best to land the pennant in that city this season.

It will probably be a surprise to some to learn that Stoney has secured for the Logan team two players well known here. They are Billy McCausland and Wes Willie Haffer. In addition to these he has signed Mel Hamey, John Taylor and a man named Kelly, all of Denver, and there are two A. 1. pitchers coming, but who they are, Stoney declines to reveal at this time. It is expected that the team will be fully organized within a few days and will shortly be out for preliminary work.

LATE LOCALS.

There will be a meeting of the State Forestry association next Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the office of State Superintendent of School Nelson in the city and county building.

Tonight at 8 o'clock the vote will be taken on the high school proposition in the three districts in the event in which it is intended to establish high schools.
