SUICIDE OF A WEALTHY MAN.

An Aged Man Suddenly Stricken With Blindness.—Sheep Growers' Association, Etc.

The Bulletin Review is dead.

Smallpox is said to have again broken out at Anaconda, Mont.

Hoeklon, Col., has a "dizzy street" that numbered 31 dogs. There are fourteen members.

A widow at Butte, Mont., has secured the contract for caring for the county poor. Her bid was $2.69 a head.

The orchards near Hanford, Cal., have been visited by a "black frost" which did some damage to the peach and apricot crops.

The Populists of Helena, Mont., nominated the tallest man in the city for mayor. He measures six feet seven and his height is almost seven feet.

The nothing of new stock leaving Corvallis for Grand Junction, Colo., is expected to increase the demand for alfalfa in the Grand valley.

Camas Prairie, Idaho, put up 150,000 pounds of pork this season and consumes the whole at 10 cents per pound—$15,000 a home product.

The residents on the Roaring Fork, above Carbondale, Colo., have determined to open a grange store at Avalon for the sale of their produce.

The late farmers' institute at Bozeman, Mont., was a great success and resulted in making the agricultural college professors acquainted with the sisters of the soil.

Six thousand five hundred Chinese are now at work in Oregon and Washington hop yards. They are now registering at the rate of about 100 a day.

Indian Tony, a noted character of the Spokane tribe, has been struck by a Northern Pacific switch engine at Spokane, Wash., and killed. He is said to be more than a century old.

A company has been formed at Riverside, Cal., to erect a first-class hotel. The capital stock of the corporation is $150,000. The building will cost $200,000, and work will be commenced soon.

A Los Angeles officer was endeavoring to eject an elderly white woman who was chased by the man and for whom she owed the room. He was finally knocked in the eye. The man and woman will be arrested.

Articles of incorporation of six telephone companies have been filed in Fresno county. A. A. Tom formed company is called the Western Telephone company, and subscriptions were all for one week and terminus.

H. L. Dart, a wealthy resident of Portland, Ore., was committed suicide by cutting himself through the bowels with a shotgun. He was 62 years of age, and has been complained for several weeks over the loss of a small sum of money.

Superior Judge Prewett, of Placer county, Cal., has just given out an exhaustive opinion relative to our registration law. He holds that electors cannot vote at the general election on certificates. These names must be on the primary register used at the polls.

Many business men of Evanston, Wyo., are arranging to go into the sheep business, mainly for mutton. Jackrabbits and prairie dogs have been cleared and commission merchants are invited to handle the carcasses from these investments.

At last it is possible to buy telephone outfits, despite the Bell monopoly. A Chicago firm will have a private line on set the necessary instruments at $5.50 each. This was announced on Thursday at a conference of the local managers of the Colorado Telephone company throughout the state.

The board of registration at Glenwood Springs, Colo., after going in session three days, registered a total of 472 voters. Of this number 207 are women. Quite a great deal of excitement prevails among the ladies. Both parties have nominated some candidates who just can vote against equal suffrage. The ladies are after more separate for office and vow vengeance at the polls.

Says the Ketchum (Idaho) Keystone—Mr. V. W. Clement, well known here as the manager of the Bunker Hill and Sullivan, and now manager of the New Primrose mine in South Africa has had trouble with his black miners, says the Kimberley Miner, some 2,000 of them struck and a riot ensued in which a hundred were wounded and several were killed. His relatives with his mine to the Coeur d'Alene mining country and it is to be pioneer for the last year of its day shows, to be worse to have jumped from the frying pan into the fire.

Colonel Charles Trevitt, governor of the Soldiers' home at Santa Monica, Cal., has just died in the Sepulveda post from consumption. Colonel Trevitt was a cavalry officer during the Rebellion and gained the rank of colonel by meritorious service. When General Arthur became collector for the port of New York, Colonel Trevitt was appointed sailor of the New York custom house. He held that position until the Pacific branch soldiers' home was established at Santa Monica and the board of managers selected him for governor. He was a native of Pennsylvania.

The Idaho Sheep Growers' association, says the Nampa Leader, have appointed a committee to look into the matter and to be found that the valuation of sheep in Idaho from $2 to $1 per head. Actual value have been in the same proportion, it will now be in order for all the papers to call on the assessor and contend that valuation be reduced one half.

One of the oddest accidents in the history of Montana occurred, says the Missoula (Idaho) Mirror, the counter at the mill of G. E. Foster. While Mr. Foster's blind mice were changing feed with a chop mill, the little one-year-old son of Mr. Foster slipped into the hopper, and in spite of attempts to stop over the machine, which he always caught at the handle and drew him out. Those who were present think that he must at least seventy-five revolutions around the mill before the horse power could be stopped. He was certain to death.

The register lists to the several wards of Central City, Colo., show a total registration of 1,340 voters, of whom 916 are male and 424 female. The highest number of female voters registered in one ward is that of the First, where the names of 128 appear, in the second 80, in the Third 95, in the Fourth 95. The prospector, says a special to the Denver News, that said Tuesday the largest vote ever polled in the city for years will be polled by the number of women cast for municipal honors.

The supreme court of Colorado, says the Denver News, has refused to issue the injunction asked for by Orr and Martin against Mulkey, Patton et al to restrain law inter from interfering with the former in discharging the duties of the fire and police board. The court held that it had no jurisdiction to entertain the proceeding, as a writ of error because the matter is still pending in the district court. Without final determination, we view that it cannot exercise original jurisdiction during the pendency of the suit in the court below. The supreme court will not consider the question in any way pro nunc upon the merits of the case, but that it has grave doubt if any constitutional question is involved until left to give it jurisdiction to entertain the suit.

An old man accompanied by his wife walked slowly into the police court, San Francisco, on Wednesday afternoon, to the Southern Pacific ticket office and purchased tickets for Monterey. As they walked out to board a car by the time he had taken two steps, staggered, and would have fallen out, for present assistance. In a moment he recovered himself, but stumbled and his hands exclaimed, "I'm blind! I'm blind!" A physician was sent for and from a hasty examination gave it as his opinion that the man had suffered a stroke of paralysis and the blindness was permanent. The sufferer is L. J. Nichols of Grand Haven, Mich., who with his wife had been touring for several weeks in California, and had about concluded to take a home near Monterey, where friends of theirs are living. Nichols is still blind, but has gone to Monterey, where he is now under the care and attention of friends. One thing only has this case in common with that of Mr. Foster's—it is a mystery.

Who Has Been Cured and Is Now the Z. C. M. I. as a Result of Taking Its Wonderful Way and Form.
In writing the testimonial for publication she states as follows:

MRS. MARY A. NELSON, OF SALT LAKE CITY.

I was troubled with a very bad case of kidney and bladder complaint. I had pain in the small of my back, and was so lame I could not stand upright. I had also a very bad case of piles, and was very much bloated. I had tried many remedies and had given up all hope of ever being cured. I had read of the wonderful cures of Z. C. M. I. and I thought I would try it. I did so, and I am happy to say that I was cured in a few days. I recommend it to all who are afflicted as I was, and I feel that I owe my life to Z. C. M. I. I am 60 years of age, and have been a sufferer for many years. I am now well and strong, and can do my work. I feel like a new woman. I cannot say too much for Z. C. M. I. I shall always be its friend, and recommend it to my acquaintances.
