THROWN UNDER STREET CAR.

Little Daniel Davis Has His Left Arm Frightfully Lacerated.

IMPRESSIVE FUNERAL SERVICES

Over Remains of Mrs. Diana Fife Farr And Moroni Skeen Sen. —Gov. Wells To Speak in Ogden Memorial Day.

Daniel Davis, the 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Davis, was seriously injured Saturday night by being thrown from a horse in front of a moving street car on Twenty-fifth street, and as a result of the same may lose his left arm.

At about 8 o'clock in the evening the boy was riding down Twenty-fifth street slowly on his horse, when it became suddenly frightened and jumping to one side, threw the boy directly in front of a car, his left arm catching in the car some way, so that the flesh was torn from the bones. He was picked up and carried into Carr's drug store and Drs. Conroy and Forbes summoned. The physician dressed the injured member and gave the boy every relief possible. He was then placed in a carriage and sent to his home, 221 west Twenty-first street. The doctors report that he is resting as well as can be expected and that they are going to make a special effort to save his arm from amputation. The horse on which he was riding was pushed along for some distance in front of the car, but received only slight injury.

MRS. FARR LAID TO REST.

Very impressive funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Diana Fife Farr were held at the Third ward meeting house yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Bishop James Wotherspoon presiding. The ward choir sang some choice music and Mrs. Mary Farley and Miss Bessie Blair sang fine solos.

The speakers were President C. F. Middleton, Elder Joseph Parry, Patriarchs Barnard White and George W. Larkin, Sr., Apostle George A. Smith and Bishop Wotherspoon. Each referred to the goodness of the deceased and her faithfulness to her religious convictions, their remarks giving much comfort to the bereaved family.

The meetinghouse was entirely too small to accommodate the numerous friends who gathered to pay respect to the memory of the departed. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful and a very large funeral cortege followed her remains to their last resting place.

FUNERAL OF MORONI SKEEN, SR.

All that was mortal of Moroni Skeen, Sr., was consigned to the silent tomb in the Mountain View cemetery yesterday afternoon after the holding of impressive funeral ervices over his remains in the Baptist church.

The funeral cortege was headed by Foster's military band, which discoursed sweet strains of funeral music en route to the church and cemetery.

At the church the services were conducted by Rev. J. E. Carver, the choir furnishing some sweet music.

Judge Agee, Hon. Frank J. Cannon and Rev. J. E. Carver delivered impressive eulogies to the memory of the deceased and offered words of comfort to the bereaved.

The church was crowded with friends who gathered to pay a tribute of respect to the memory of one of Ogden's best known citizens and many beautiful floral tributes were laid upon his bier.

GOV. WELLS TO SPEAK.

Governor Heber M. Wells has promised the G. A. R. committee that he will deliver the address at the Memorial day services in Lester park pavilion Monday next. Another number on the program will be the reading of Lincoln's Gettysburg address. There will be also the singing of patriotic songs and other characteristic exercises. The marching and parade features of Memorial days of the past are to be eliminated. The organizations will march from their halls to the pavilion. After the exercises, details will be sent to strew flowers over the graves of dead comrades.

OGDEN'S NEW SCHOOLHOUSE.

A new school building is to be erected probably during the present summer, on a site purchased during the past week by the board of education. The purchase was ratified at the board meeting Saturday night.

The site is located on the south side of Twentieth street between Washington and Adams avenue. It cost the board of education $1,700. It is expected that a building of not less than eight rooms, modern in every respect, will be put up on this site.

The board also selected as the board of examiners for this year Superintendent William Allison, D. H. Adams, principal of the Madison school faculty. Examinations are to be held June 13, 14 and 15.

A list of supplies for the school during the coming year was submitted by the superintendent and approved, and the clerk was instructed to advertise for bids, the bids to be in by June 17. Supplies include everything used about the school building, such as blackboards and supplies, tablets, pencils, ink, etc., as well as the articles used by the janitors.

VICTIMS OF GRIM REAPER.

Three Called to Their Reward—Close of Successful School Year.

Special Correspondence.

Moroni, Sanpete Co., May 20.—On the night of the 17th inst., the grim reaper visited the homes of three families in our city. Lars C. Larsen, a native of Denmark, aged 73 years, was the first called. Cause of death general debility. He was a quiet, honest, industrious citizen, having made his home here over twenty years ago, during which time he has earned the esteem of all who formed his acquaintance. He was an honored member of the High Priests' quorum, and is survived by a loving wife, three sons and one daughter.

Sister Margaret Curtis, wife of the late Erastus Curtis, succumbed to an attack of dropsy, with which she had been afflicted for some time. She was born during the early persecutions of the Saints, during which her parents lost their lives. She was brought to Utah in the early days, and passed through the many trials incident to pioneer days, in which she bore her full part well. She leaves four sons and many warm friends, who love and revere her memory.

Dropsy also caused the death of John Franklin Larsen, son of John H. and Augusta Larsen. He had been a quiet, patient sufferer for about two years, of his short life of twelve. He battled bravely to shake off his sickness. He is mourned by many of his young friends, to whom he had endeared himself.

B. Y. UNIVERSITY GRADUATES

Listen to Impressive Baccalaureate Sermon by Prest. Joseph F. Smith

MARRIAGE AND LIFE'S OBJECT

The Themes of a Powerful Discourse Given Before Graduating Students.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, Utah Co., May 23.—A large congregation filled the tabernacle last evening to hear the baccalaureate sermon delivered by President Joseph F. Smith to the Brigham Young university graduates. On the stand were seated members of the university board of trustees and faculty; the graduates occupied places in the body of the house in front of the stand. President George H. Brimhall presided. The services commenced by the choir, conducted by Prof. A. C. Lund, singing, "We thank Thee, O God, for a Prophet," etc. Invocation was offered by Elder J. E. Hickman. The choir sang "The Pilgrims' Chorus." President Smith commenced his address by soliciting the sympathy of the congregation in speaking to the students as he always felt in a degree unprepared to speak to young men and women who had applied their minds to study, and who had enjoyed the advantage of modern education, a privilege with which he had not been blessed; all the education he had obtained having been in the school of experience. He had considered for some time the question of a subject, and had finally decided to speak upon a matter which was of great interest to all, who realized that life and our existence here is an important and real thing. He read from the first chapter of Genesis, commencing with the twenty-sixth verse, the creation of man and woman in the likeness of God, and the commandment to them to be fruitful and to multiply and replenish the earth. The purposes of God could not have been realized without the creation of the two. It might be considered blasphemy to the world to declare as is plainly taught in the scripture, that our Father in heaven is dual, just as the scripture declares our first parents, created in His image, were dual. Other scripture were read showing the purpose of the Almighty in creating man and woman, and that "man is not without woman in the Lord." The man was placed at the head, and it was his duty to obey God, and woman was placed as his helpmeet and commanded to hearken to him, in righteousness. This seemed difficult under the present conditions, but that was because of the apostasy which had taken place from the laws of God. If the husband observed the law of God he would be righteous, and obedience to him on the part of the wife would be obedience to righteousness. No man who did not observe the law of God had any right to demand obedience from his wife.

President Smith also read from revelations to Joseph Smith, showing the purpose of marriage to be the fulfilment of the design of the Almighty, and read further from Leviticus the penalty against adultery. The revelation to the Prophet Joseph Smith, on the eternity of the marriage covenant was also read. In this connection the saying of the Savior in reply to the Pharisees who asked whose wife a woman would be in the world to come who had seven husbands in this world, was referred to. They erred because they did not understand the Scriptures; she had been sealed to one husband and could not have any other husband in the world to come. Marriage is a law of the Gospel. God Himself performed the first marriage, uniting Adam and Eve in their immortal state for all eternity.

President Smith wished to impress upon the students of the university that it was the duty of man to become united with a woman under the promises of the law of God, and for the purpose set forth by the revelation of the Lord. This union should be solemnized under the authority of the law of God, and it would continue throughout eternity. The speaker in most earnest words implored the young men and the young women to observe the laws of personal purity, and spoke of the fidelity to the marriage covenant as the basis of the mutual love and confidence that should exist between husband and wife.

This union between husband and wife, if it is desired to endure must be built on eternal principles and cemented by confidence and love, in which case it would grow in strength and bring increased blessings throughout all eternity.

Prof. A. C. Lund sang "The Song That Reached My Heart."

President Brimhall made some announcements of commencement week examinations.

The choir and congregation sang the doxology, and the benediction was offered by President David John.

GARDEN CITY NOTES.

The speakers at the tabernacle yesterday were Elders David H. Madsen and David Johnson, lately returned from missions to the Sandwich Islands, and Elder Seymour B. Young.

President Joseph F. Smith followed and expressed great pleasure in the spirit manifested by the returned missionaries and advised that they be given work to do in the Church that would keep alive that spirit. He also cautioned the young people against giving way to the spirit of the world and forsaking the principles of the Gospel.

SUNNYSIDE.

SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT.

Shooting Scrape Ignored by Prosecuting Attorney—Few Strikers Left.

Special Correspondence.

Sunnyside, Carbon Co., May 21.—The most pleasant entertainments ever witnessed in Sunnyside were those of the 19th and 20th of May, given by the school children at their closing exercises. The programs of all departments were well rendered, and great praise and credit given to both teachers and pupils for the excellent work done. This is the first time in the history of Sunnyside that any have graduated from the eighth grade. There were five graduates, viz: Joseph M. Naylor, Steve Leger, Sarah C. Potter, Matilda Powell and Zora Brock.

A shooting affray occurred here Wednesday night. A man went to a house of questionable character, and, finding the door locked, took a shot at the window, the bullet taking effect in the face of a woman who gives her name as Mrs. Robinson from Price, making an ugly wound. The man was placed under arrest, the prosecuting attorney sent for and on his arrival he investigated the affair, and turned the man free, as there was no case against him. The facts are as stated. The shooting was done in the presence of another man, who took the count away; and the woman was shot, as stated above. Many of our citizens are indignant at such a state of affairs.

High winds have prevailed in this section for some time. The strikers have dwindled down till there are less than 50 men now, but they are still confident of winning their case.

The coke ovens are burning the coke 72 hours now instead of 48, as in the past, taking less slack. The mines have been idle one day during the week.

A CRAZY MAN.

FOUND EATING AN EGG, SHELL AND ALL.

Rational people thought it was awful, as the shell had no food value, and was, of course, indigestible and injurious.

It is just as crazy for rational people to swallow a lot of cod liver oil, to get the medicinal curatives from it, as it was for the crazy man to eat the egg, shell and all.

Modern science has proved that the oil, or greasy part of cod liver oil has no value whatever, and only upsets the stomach and retards recovery. It is the medicinal elements which are enveloped in the cod liver oil, of which there are about fifty, that represent all the tonic and curative power of the famous old remedy.

A preparation containing all the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cod's livers, but entirely free from oil or grease, must, therefore, be the very best tonic reconstructor possible. Such is Vinol. It positively does contain every one of the fifty odd medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil, fresh and sweet, just as the egg shell contains the nutritious food, and we throw away the useless, indigestible oil, just as you throw away the egg shell.

Knowing its wonderful medicinal and curative power, we guarantee to restore health and strength to the following or refund their money without question:

Run down, debilitated, tired, overworked people; old people, weak, women, nursing mothers, puny, ailing children, convalescents, or to people suffering with hard colds, hacking coughs, incipient consumption and bronchitis. Vinol never fails to make rich, red blood and give strength to the weak and health to the sick. Try it on our guarantee. If it doesn't do you any good it won't cost you a cent. —Druehl & Franken and Smith Drug Co.

JOSEPH CLARK STICKNEY.

Joseph Clark Stickney, was born April 3, 1819, in West Andover, Mass. Went to New Hampshire in his boyhood, where he married his first wife, Rachel D. Cram, who died in June, 1855, leaving two children, Albert and Hanna. He married a second wife, Elizabeth Jane Stewart in Peterbors, New Hampshire, in 1856, both having been united to the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in 1842.

They with the two children left their home for Utah, traveling across the plains with an ox team in Augustus Campfield's company in Oct, 1862. He located in Salt Lake City for two years, when he moved to Santaquin, Utah county, where he resided for 40 years. There his only son, Albert, was killed in a snowslide, in 1874, leaving a wife and four children.

Brother Stickney was president of the High Priest quorum, about 20 years, but owing to the infirmities of old age, he with his wife, moved to Murray in 1901, to spend their remaining days with his only child, Mrs. W. H. Atwood, where he was very tenderly cared for until the end. He died May 19, 1904, leaving an aged wife, one child, 11 grandchildren, 41 great grandchildren and two great great grandchildren. He died as he had lived an honest, noble and true Latter-day Saint, beloved and respected by all who knew him. Blessed is the memory of Grandpa Stickney.
