LOCAL BRIEFS.

The public schools will have a holiday on Wednesday next, Washington's Birthday. All business houses will likewise be closed on that day.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the U. V. U. A. and the officers of the Union will meet for further arrangements for the coming reception that is to be given next Tuesday evening.

The funeral services of the late Joe Woolgamoor will be held at the Fourteenth ward meeting house, beginning tomorrow at 12 o'clock noon. Friends respectfully invited.

March 3rd at the First Congregational church Miss Katherine Oliver gives a series of impersonations of characters from Scotch fiction. The affair is under the auspices of the First Presbyterian church, and promises to be a success socially as well as artistically.

Yesterday afternoon, instead of a mock trial, the class in commercial law at the L. D. S. University held a strongly contested debate. The question was, "Resolved, That the Philippines should be annexed to the United States." No decision was rendered.

A class in oratory was organized last evening by Prof. Whitney of the Salt Lake school of law. This is the first class of the kind that has been instituted in Salt Lake and it has promised of much success. The class will meet at the Salt Lake College in the rooms of the law school.

The burning face of First Lieut. Benner X. Smith of the Utah troop of cavalry is again seen upon the streets, after the month he spent in the care of the service. Mr. Smith took a trip to Honolulu and returns in the pink of health and spirits. He states that Company K of the engineers are in fine shape with but little sickness among them.

The Ladies' Literary club propose to celebrate the 22nd anniversary of its organization by what promises to be a delightful entertainment, at the club house on Friday next. The members intend on that occasion to make an effort to pay off a part, at least, of the indebtedness on the house, and there is such an enthusiastic interest taken in the matter that they expect to secure quite a handsome sum for the purpose.

The "Pop" at the Y. M. C. A. this evening will be conducted by Bliss for the entertainment of all their particular acquaintances. There will be a short program of music and recitations and then the remainder of the evening will be spent in spinning yarns and singing college songs. As an addition of the phonograph with the new polyphone attachment will be given at intervals during the evening.

Efforts are being made by a number of Salt Lake sporting men to match Jack Stelzer, the big ex-training partner of Bob Fitzsimmons, with "Mexican Pete," who defeated Jim Williams at Ogden a few nights ago. Stelzer it will be remembered was down upon the knees of Williams in a battle in this city about two years ago. He is a big fellow and has improved wonderfully, it is said, in hitting accomplishments since that time. The bout will be for twenty rounds.

LADIES' SUITS JUST IN, AT Z. C. M. I.

Information wanted as to who murdered Angelin Welch, a resident of Massachusetts, at the Salt Lake Herald of tomorrow (Sunday).

THE MORMON BATTALION.

The third of the series of lectures on Church history was delivered by President William Dean of the Latter-day Saints' College, in the Thirteenth ward hall last evening. Notwithstanding the disagreeable weather, a large audience was present.

After giving the main facts connected with the calling of the Battalion, the speaker detailed the line of march from Council Bluffs to Los Angeles. Much time was devoted to the hardships of the journey, in the unavoidable absence, through illness, of Brigham Young's brother, Lorenzo D. Young, the lecturer, the speaker read extracts from his journal, detailing some interesting incidents of the march. The patriotism, trials, privations and sufferings of the men were gratefully portrayed, and the patriotic spirit of the Battalion was characterized as one of the most remarkable military facts on record.

The consideration of the disbandment of the Battalion began with the discovery of gold in California, was continued, and credit given to Brigham Young, who determined the presence of the gold, by careful tests. Though Mr. Marshall was the man to discover it.

The lecture for next Friday evening will be on the subject of Pioneer Days, and will be given, by request, by a representative, by one who entered the valley in 1847.

DWELLING HOUSE BURNED.

A lath and plaster residence in the Thorndike addition, situated on Fourth East and Twelfth South, was burned to the ground last night. No call was sent into the fire department, owing to the isolated position of the house. Neighbors gave a friendly hand and the furniture of the family inhabiting the house was removed in its entirety.

ABBOTT ON B. H. ROBERTS.

A Candid Statement of the Facts in the Congressional Case.

A Political Opponent Magnanimously Comes to the Front and Faces Popular Opinion.

A report of a meeting held in Washington, D. C., appeared in the Post of that city. Mrs. Emma de Heymer, recently a missionary in Ceylon, made an address against the seating of Congressman-elect B. H. Roberts. "At the conclusion of the address," the Post says, "Lt. Fort introduced the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, the election of Brigham H. Roberts, a polygamist with three wives by the people of Utah, to a seat in the Congress of the United States, is a defiant repudiation of Utah's covenant with the American people, and

"Resolved, That we, as law-abiding citizens, raise our most solemn protest against such an affront to the American people, whose power rests upon the Christian home, the bulwark of the Republic, and therefore petition the Fifty-fifth Congress to exercise its right in refusing this lawless man a seat in the halls of the sacred old United States Congress."

Mr. Abbott addressed the following letter to the editor of the Post, which, in behalf of Jan. 20, from which this clipping is taken:

The above I cut from the Washington Post this morning, and it is only a sample of the character of work being done against the Government Bill, in spite of the different conferences, sermons, etc., throughout the whole land.

This right to be a dependion in a Republic, and especially in a Republic of intelligent Christian Children, is what caused the Civil Skirmish and consequent furious. There seems to prevail in this country a disposition, on the part of some, to be slaves rather than hold up. Ex-Governor Headly, formerly of Ohio, once said that there was a disposition on the part of his own party in his native state, not to permit a man to grow more than six inches high, and when the Government Bill was in the Senate, he said in equality true of a vast majority of the people the country over. People, who are members of the church very often, through religious zeal or enthusiasm, have called on to the town of Cork, Ireland. Mike has developed such a fondness for jail life that he has decided to go jail for life. No sooner is he released before he goes and gives himself up again. Mike is known to the Cork police as he has been known to make for the past year is that much required to get a comfortable jail.

Ed Kimball, who has charge of the city jail, is known to be a patient man. He has put up with Mike's jailing for the last all patience and for some time past has been endeavoring to get rid of the troublesome guest. Mike has at last obtained the plan of painting O'Shannon-off on the country. He accordingly wrote a letter to the Mayor of Cork, addressed to Jailor Thomas of the county jail, making O'Shannon the subject of the letter.

"City Jail, Feb. 14, 1899.

"Mr. Thos. Thomas:

"This man has been in this jail for 28 days, and we have failed to fill him up. Inclosed is a testimonial signed by the Mayor and Council of this institution has failed to every instance. We send him to you. Drinking probably you can do something for the man.

"E. F. KIMBALL, Jailor."

After reading the note Mr. Thomas had a long talk with O'Shannon, who had fed fast up, but judging from the following, soon tired of his bargain:

"County Jail, Salt Lake,
"Feb. 14, 1899.

"Hon. Sol. F. Kimball, Chief Magistrate City Bastile.

"I have the honor of acknowledging receipt of your honorable favor of the day morning. Would say we are already overcrowded with ornaments of the municipality, and unless willing to overburden the poor taxpayer our of entertaining the acquaintance of such a cultured gentleman as Mr. O'Shannon, I am compelled, after already giving him fourteen plates of soup (and sups the pan with the best of the lot), and twenty-eight and one-half pounds of bread, one ration of coffee and five pounds of sugar, to respectfully decline to entertain the gentleman longer. Would say we are already overcrowded with ornaments of the municipality, and unless willing to overburden the poor taxpayer our of entertaining the acquaintance of such a cultured gentleman as Mr. O'Shannon, I am compelled, after already giving him fourteen plates of soup (and sups the pan with the best of the lot), and twenty-eight and one-half pounds of bread, one ration of coffee and five pounds of sugar, to respectfully decline to entertain the gentleman longer. I remain,

"Respectfully yours,
"T. F. THOMAS, County Jailor."

O'Shannon, at last accounts, is still a guest at the Kimball.

OLD TIME BALL.

The old time ball given by the Twenty-third ward Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement association at the Eighteenth ward school house last night may be considered as one of the social successes of the season. The characters represented were all well and appropriately quaint and picturesque. Among those deserving special mention were Mr Brizen, representing a gentleman of 1776; Mrs. Marshall, an old lady of about the same period; Mr. Nye, a Scotch lad; Miss Tomlinson, a new woman in bifurcated skirts and modern accessories; Miss Anna Cullen, a Dutch Yankee; Mr. Toronto as Dr. Johnson; Miss Toronto, as a Scotch lassie; Miss Ellen Young, a Dutch lady; Miss Ethel Young, a Dutch lady; Mr. Owen Romney as a coon; Mr. Miles Romney, as a farmer (harvest); Miss Ethel Romney, as a Dutch lady; Miss Frank Winn, as a Russian general of ladies; Miss Frances, as George Washington; Miss Lillie Winn, as Martha Washington, as Pioneer ladies. Many other excellent characters were portrayed. The refreshments were those of old-fashioned ilka, and all details were equally appropriate to the occasion.

It is understood that there will be a longer ball will be given in the near future at Christensen's, to aid in the work of the association, for which suitable ward grounds—such a hall for entertainments being greatly needed.

COLLIDED WITH A POLE.

Electric Car Tries a New Route, and Hurts a Motorman.

Motorman E. E. Prisk believes thirteen to be an unlucky number. He started to work Feb. 13th, on the front platform of a Salt Lake street car, for three days he shared a share of being freight safely over the Waterloo-Warm Springs route, and then his good fortune forsook him. At 4:42 on Thursday morning a car left the Waterloo depot on its first trip over the new line. The car was empty, so non meeting live belts to thwart on the current and all charmingly smooth sailing for awhile. At ninth East Prisk on the Rocky car struck the track crossing, a couple of blocks north, and struck a telephone pole 100 ft. Prisk struck his head dirt, and the conductor struck the head door with unusual force.

The motorman, although not badly hurt, got a nasty shaking up, strained his back, and lost some of his hair. The car lost its front platform. Today the car is in the hospital and Prisk is nursing another jag.
