EVENTS IN THE WEST.

A Resumé of Occurrences in Neighboring States and Territories.

A MINE EXPLOSION KILLS TWO MEN.

Safety Outlook For Sheep—Defense Conditions at Ft. Michaels—Volcanoes Near Cape—Farmer's Bad Crop Report.

The silver mine of Hancock county, Ohio, will yield a production at Marquette, August 15th.

A message from Portland states Alaska is to Los Angeles, Cal., shortly and will go to Honolulu.

Charles Armstrong of Helena, Montana, was killed by a falling rock while at work. Henry Wolgamot of Danville received a similar fate.

Prince Kuni Komatsu of the Japanese navy is at San Francisco. He expects to go to Washington, D. C., and will go to Europe.

Colonel Albert S. Tyson, commissary at Omaha, U. S. quartermaster, and Major Charles Ewing, commissary of the department of the Columbia, Fifth Cavalcade Washington, have left for Vancouver.

Rising prospects were received at Boise Saturday, of an outbreak at Bear Lake, Idaho, Nez Perce county, and are now in the hands of the Indians. The whites were all killed.

Two hot cases of typhoid fever have appeared at Cape Nome. The victims are Mrs. Ellen Lester Porter, Frank Pierce, Orpha Chase and Charles Morris, of the Eighth Infantry, and Mrs. Ellen Lester Porter, Frank Pierce, Orpha Chase and Charles Morris, of the Eighth Infantry, and of the Twenty-third infantry. There are now fifteen cases of fever in the camp.

At the military officers of the Eighth infantry, now at San Francisco, have an authority to vaccinate regular with a view to protection from the variolous epidemic. Of the Twenty-third infantry men who are stationed there will be a little of 1,000 to vaccinate.

At the south of Dawson, northwest, Frank Wood, a cowboy, is to be tried at Los Angeles, near Lone Mark, Cal., Saturday night. The fire came up the hill from across the valley and spread to the main stock shanty in less than half an hour, burning up the stock of the company. It is reported that the loss will have amounted to a good deal of the stock.

Mrs. Sylvia Fish has been arrested in Sacramento, Cal., charged with being an accomplice in the murder of her husband on December 1, 1897. Mrs. Fish is the prisoner. The complaint is made by Mrs. Elizabeth Young of the Twentieth Kansas regiment at San Francisco, who has been in jail under arrest. Mrs. Young is charged with embezzlement of money, property. She is alleged to have gone away leaving her in the lurch, taking with her the money and property belonging to her. Mrs. Young says that she gave the money to her husband to buy a ranch for her. The money was obtained from the sale of her property. Mrs. Young says that she was married Saturday morning in the Fort Sacramento, Mrs. Young is charged in the Sacramento with embezzlement. Washington U. S. Navy Department.

The Arizona has passed away from its anchorage in the harbor of San Francisco. It is reported that Admiral Miller has left for Mare Island where the Oregon is undergoing the preliminary repairs. The Oregon will be docked at Mare Island.

The Southern Pacific Railroad is under to move the collection of the Pacific, Mr. Dee and the Chinese Pacific Railroad company, which is to be the following commissioners: Wilson to work, supervising all work employing from the Chinese in New Orleans, Houston, Houston and New York, to construction, to work, 28 cents, rather than 30 cents, 30 cents, to work. Further on the 1st July commissioner, apply to Chinese Pacific Railroad in New Orleans and New York.

Quartermaster Sergeant James A. Mack of Bolette, Mo., who swears that Mrs Fish (Mrs-Sergeant Mr. Fish) wife of Mr. Fish, who was visiting Mrs. Fish at the case.

Major R. P. Pitt of the Washington Cavalry, Fourth Cavalry, Fourth Infantry, Fourth Cavalry, from the war department that the Fourth Cavalry, Fourth Infantry, Fourth Cavalry, Fourth Infantry, Washington, Washington, Infantry, Washington, Washington, Washington U. S. Navy Department.

The Arizona has passed away from its anchorage in the harbor of San Francisco. It is reported that Admiral Miller has left for Mare Island where the Oregon is undergoing the preliminary repairs. The Oregon will be docked at Mare Island.

The Southern Pacific Railroad is under to move the collection of the Pacific, Mr. Dee and the Chinese Pacific Railroad company, which is to be the following commissioners: Wilson to work, supervising from the Chinese in New Orleans, Houston, Houston and New York, to construction, to work, 28 cents, rather than 30 cents, 30 cents, to work. Further on the 1st July commissioner, apply to Chinese Pacific Railroad in New Orleans and New York.

Quartermaster Sergeant James A. Mack of Bolette, Mo., who swears that Mrs Fish (Mrs-Sergeant Mr. Fish) wife of Mr. Fish, who was visiting Mrs. Fish at the case.

Major R. P. Pitt of the Washington Cavalry,