There is a company to be formed for the purpose of building a telephone line from Vernal to Fort Duchesne, says the Vernal Express. A telephone line to the post connects Vernal with a telegraph service to almost any point in the United States. The government is going to save a line connecting White Rock and Ouray.

One of the most disastrous conflagrations that has taken place in Laramie, Wyoming, for years was the burning of the Clark, Felton & Hodges company's lumber yard on Front street on Tuesday. The large lumber shed and all the lumber it contained was destroyed and the adjoining shed and office building were almost totally demolished. Loss $3,000; insurance $1,500.

Parties have returned from the San Marcial, Sonora, coal fields, for the working of which a syndicate recently secured a concession from the Mexican government. They brought a large quantity of anthracite coal taken from a two and a half foot stratum penetrated by a forty foot prospecting shaft. It is said that prospecting with a diamond drill has proved that three fine veins of anthracite, averaging eighty feet in length of anthracite coal.

The main idea with the people of Uintah county this fall is the removal of the county seat. Private the Vernal Express the attempt to remove the county seat of the county, as Vernal is now the central point where almost every one in the county comes to do business. It is some future time another town would spring into existence, which would be more convenient to the people, then Vernal would take a back seat if the people wished it to do so.

Colonel C. E. R. Ross, the defaulting treasurer of the Veterans' Home association, at San Francisco, has been sentenced to seven years' imprisonment at San Quentin. The ex-present lawyer appeared in court wearing a dressing gown of Albert suit, which was loosely tied over about his simple form. He and associate counsel with special care in some of the cases, and awaited the sentence of the court with an air of calm self possession.

A sensational mining suit has been filed in the United States court at Boise, Idaho, by Arthur Neal of Seattle against Fred Pope Tuttle and H. F. Parker of Boston and several Boston people interested in the Kokera Mining company, operating in the Neal district, about twenty miles from Boise.

Neal sold two valuable mines to H. F. Plowman, a Boise capitalist, for $100, received half in cash and the balance in notes, secured by a mortgage. Neal alleges that Tuttle and Parker got hold of him in Seattle and induced him under their influence to give two weeks to secure a release of the mortgage. During that time he signed what he claims was a power of attorney authorizing Tuttle to foreclose the mortgage. He says he might have signed a deed to everything he possessed. Tuttle foreclosed the mortgage in his own name, and it is claimed conveyed Neal's property.
