AN AVENGING ANGEL

Particulars of a Sensational Murder in San Francisco.

TRAGIC END OF A LOVE AFFAIR.

Story of a Pretty Chorus Girl and a Young Man of a Well-to-Do Family.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan 7.—A sensational murder occurred here this afternoon. Harry G. Poole, a young man well known about town and of a well-to-do family, was shot and almost instantly killed by Mrs. Shattuck, the aged mother of Estrella Shattuck, a young and pretty chorus girl of the Tivoli Opera house, who severed her connection with the Tivoli company last night and was to have left the city tomorrow with Henderson's [illegible] company.

Young Poole was summoned to Miss Shattuck's home, on Stevenson street, this morning, where the girl's mother met him, and demanded that he marry Miss Shattuck at once. Poole refused and Mrs. Shattuck put a pistol to his temple and shot him dead.

The woman was arrested for murder, and is now a raving maniac at the city prison. The girl is also in hysterics and unable to talk.

A Reading Report.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 7.—The annual report of the Reading receivers, which will be submitted to the stockholders' meeting tomorrow, will show that the apparent profit of $3,181,487 at the close of 1892 arose from methods of accounting and overvaluation of coal on hand. For the past year the operations show a deficit of $862,345; also a large increase in the interest account.

An Address to Populists.

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 7.—The State central committee of the People's party has issued a lengthy address, reviewing the disasters that prevail throughout the country and calling on the people to organize and rally for the purpose of securing needed reform. The address condemns the proposed bond issue by the national government, and says the public treasury is being plundered openly and the continual universal distress is the logical outcome of the well laid plans of the money owners of this and other nations.

An Expensive Conference.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 6.—There is no conclusion in the Northern Pacific conference on schedules and wages. The indications are that the men will be here another week, and possibly longer. They are here at an expense of $800 a day to the organizations, aggregating up to the present about $16,000.

Irish on California.

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 7.—Hon. John P. Irish of San Francisco, who is to be a prominent guest of the Jackson club tomorrow evening, speaking about the attitude of California people respecting prominent public questions, said: "We are with the administration on the financial and Hawaiian questions, and the sentiment with respect to each is pretty much all one way. California not being a silver state, there is no free coinage agitation, while the already immense and growing commercial interests there foster a demand for a safe monetary system, such as that advocated by conservative men.

"Being nearer to Hawaii than other portions of the country, and more closely connected with the affairs of the islands, we think we are just about at the truth of the trouble there, and we are anti-annexationists. We know the revolution there was simply a job, largely by those who robbed themselves rich in this country and are trying to do the same thing there, and hence we have no sympathy with them."

Irish sees no doubt the Chinese registration law will be complied with fully. "A few Chinese will not register and the question of deportation has no significance for us."

Concerning the Wilson bill, Irish said the California people are divided on party lines, though all the manufacturers of San Francisco are a unit in asking that coal be put on the free list, the duty on that commodity alone costing the San Francisco manufacturers $500,000 a year, most of the coal used there coming from Scotland as return cargo in holds that carry grain and other exports to British ports.

Indians Hostile Towards Mexico.

NOGALES, Ariz., Jan. 7.—It is stated that the Aztec Indians intend to join the Yaquis in their fight against the Mexican government. Prisoners captured by Temopa have said they are Aztecs, but this is not believed. As a general thing the Aztecs are far above the average, in point of culture, of any village of Sonora. The most of them speak and write English as well as Spanish. They say they school their children in their houses, independent of the Mexican government. An impression has long existed that the Aztecs are in sympathy with the Yaquis, but, strange to say, none have ever been found in the soldiery.

CAPTAIN MUNGER.

He at Last Consents to Say a Few Words.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7.—The attitude of Captain Munger of the revenue cutter Corwin to representatives of the press and public in general is without precedent in this port. From the moment the Corwin arrived the men on board have been as inaccessible as if in midocean, save for a brief interview a reporter had with Captain Munger yesterday evening, when the captain went ashore to mail letters. The captain saw fit to go ashore with the letters himself, rather than trust a messenger, who might let some news drop while on shore. This time for a very few minutes, the Corwin's captain talked with a reporter and verified the correctness of the Auckland cablegram to the Associated Press. He also stated that the Corwin left Honolulu December 24th. The reporter quotes Captain Munger as follows: "I can tell you no more than come in the Auckland dispatch. It is no pleasure for me to hold news, as information, from the people, but you must remember that I am powerless in the matter. Even if I knew the contents of secret dispatches, as an officer and gentleman, I could not reveal them without permission. Here I am within twenty minutes of my home and cannot get away. It is no pleasure, I assure you, but I will have to stay here for two or three days, or maybe a week."

The San Francisco papers are bristling with severe criticism of the authorities responsible for the suppression of the news the Corwin men might make public.

The rumor telegraphed from Washington to the effect that Minister Willis has been given his passports by the provisional government, and that he arrived at this port in the Corwin, is current here. Though it is considered probable that the minister has been tendered his passports, it is not believed that he is on board the Corwin now nor was a passenger on her. The unprecedented action of the Corwin's officers, however, might indicate the truth of the story, as it is certain that they are concealing some important fact from the public, and it may be that the minister to Hawaii is hidden in her cabins.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Program of Congress for This Week.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 7.—The tariff bill will occupy the attention of the House during the coming week. After four days of fruitless effort to secure the presence of a voting Democratic quorum, the House adopted, just before adjournment, the extreme expedient of ordering the arrest of all members absent without leave. Deputies were sent in all directions last night to serve warrants on the members. Of the forty absent without leave, twenty-nine are Democrats and nineteen Republicans.

Privately some Democrats admit that the gravity of the situation is very great. The possibility of defeat strikes terror into their hearts and some of them, like Oates, of Alabama, openly advocate a resort to the preliminary expedient utilized by the Fifty-first Congress of counting a quorum.

Altogether the prospects are good for a very interesting contest in the House during the coming week. Of course, if a quorum is secured tomorrow or Tuesday the special order will be passed. Once the debate is under way it will proceed to the exclusion of everything else.

THE WILSON BILL.

Sperry, of Connecticut, who represents the Democratic objectors to the Wilson bill, says the committee on ways and means has reported a tariff bill showing a $75,000,000 deficiency, and has agreed on an income tax. Every one is able to act intelligently on the tariff bill, but the internal revenue bill is not yet reported, and nobody knows what it will contain. Every congressman is entitled to have intended legislation put into print with the majority and minority reports before voting the closure on a bill not in existence.

Geary, of California, says he opposes the Wilson bill and shall continue to refuse to vote.

THE SENATE PROGRAM.

The principal item on the Senate program for the week has been agreed upon. It is consideration of the federal election bill, to be taken up after the conclusion of the morning business Tuesday.

Hawaii may again command the attention of the Senate to the exclusion of all other subjects for a portion of the week. If the government should fail to give an explicit denial of the report that Willis has asked the Dole government to retire in the interest of the queen, there are sure to be a number of resolutions of inquiry introduced, and several pointed speeches may be expected.

The whole matter depends very largely upon the news from the Pacific and the attitude assumed by the administration. If it should become apparent that the Auckland report was not truthful, the Senate would be disposed to let the subject alone until the committee on foreign relations can conclude the investigation.

A conference was held this afternoon, at which a number of prominent Republicans were present, to decide on a course of proceeding on the Hawaiian question, one of the latest devices from Honolulu. It is understood some very radical views were given expression to, and the question of impeachment of President Cleveland for his course was brought up.

Secretary Gresham was seen at a late hour tonight and stated that absolutely nothing would be given out on the Hawaiian question, and would not be until the arrival of mail advices. This would seem to controvert the theory that the President intends to send a special message to Congress tomorrow on the Hawaiian question, including the correspondence received by the Corwin. It is understood that dispatches obtained are rather meager, and the administration prefers to wait for full advices before making anything public.

Many congressmen expect the President will send another Hawaiian message to Congress tomorrow. In such case the information so eagerly awaited would be a few hours ahead of the arrival of the steamer, which left Vancouver January 1st, and the City of Pekin, which sailed for San Francisco January 2nd, both due Tuesday. The belief is that the President would prefer communicating the news as to the situation, rather than to have it made public through the incoming steamer.

There is a wild rumor here tonight, which cannot be traced to any reliable source, that Minister Willis is aboard the Corwin, and that he was given his passports by the provisional government. The rumor is received with no credence here and the state department officials characterize it as a fabrication.

THE BOND QUESTION.

Chairman Wilson says there there will be no consideration of the bond question till the tariff bill is out of the way. The committee has not given the slightest attention yet to the matter of bonds.

Harter of Ohio today introduced a bill giving the secretary of the treasury authority to issue bonds whenever he considered it necessary, the bonds to bear interest at 3 per cent, and run thirty years or less, at the option of the government. Harter says the bill is not the result of any talk with Carlisle or any other administration official.

Mexican Robbers.

DALLAS, Tex., Jan. 8.—A News Fort Hancock, Texas, special: Last Monday, J. H. Bond, of the Carrizo ranch, Chihuahua, in company with Luis Acosta and four assistants, left there for Ranas Berrera, forty miles below, to gather stock. After completing their work they started back, and when ten miles from the ranch were surrounded by a band of twenty-five Mexican revolutionists, under command of General Ochoa, and relieved of six mules, fifteen horses, eleven revolvers, saddles and ammunition, and carried back to the ranch, where all the provisions and everything useful were taken off, including all the laborers who were enlisted.

CAPRIVI ABOUT SILVER.

He is Aware of the Importance of Raising the Value.

Proposals of Experts and Theorists in the Various Professions and Trades Will Be Considered.

BERLIN, Jan. 7.—In reply to the resolution of the Conservative association in favor of bimetallism, Chancellor Caprivi acknowledges that recent events in India and the United States have increased the importance of the question, but said:

"I am still of the opinion that the methods proposed heretofore for the restoration of silver have been proved impracticable, and I have good grounds for believing that renewed attempts set on foot for common deliberations between the foreign governments on this subject would, at present, be unsuccessful.

"I am inclined, therefore, in addition to the official inquiry already proceeding, to hear the proposals of experts and theorists in the various professions and trades, for raising the sunken value of silver, and necessary steps have already been taken to bring about this hearing."

The Central American War.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—The World's special from Managua says: General Williams, who was taken prisoner when Cholutera was captured January 24 by Honduras troops, tried to escape today and was killed by a sentinel. General Ortiz has sent a body of troops to capture Amapala, the port of entry of Honduras on the Pacific Coast.

The Herald's special from Salvador says: A messenger has arrived with dispatches announcing that the Honduran and Nicaraguan armies were on the point of collision. When the messenger left skirmishing had already begun. The opposing lines were within an hour's march and a bloody and decisive fight was imminent.

Lobengula Has an Army.

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 7.—A dispatch from Jansey says a special runner from Tatti brings news that Lobengula has arrived on the banks of the Zambesi with 2000 young and well-armed warriors. Small bodies of Matabeles are concentrating around Inyati.

In Search for Wilson.

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 7.—A dispatch has been received from Jamestown saying a large patrol has been sent in search of Captain Wilson and party. The information shows that he is now less hopeful of the prospect of Wilson and his men being saved.

The Brazilian Outbreak.

LONDON, Jan. 7.—The Times tomorrow will print the following dispatch from Rio, January 4th, via Montevideo, January 6th: "Admiral Da Gama still holds out, stating that he expects the Aquidaban and Republica with reinforcements tomorrow from the south. He appears confident of the ultimate result, and received £12,000 on Saturday from sympathizers to pay his men.

The government continues mounting artillery on the heights within the city limits, and is awaiting the arrival of the new warships before attacking Gama.

Wednesday the insurgents attacked Enxadas island, opening fire from the ships at midday. At 3 o'clock they landed 200 men, and for half an hour there was sharp fighting. The rebels captured a Krupp field piece and a seven-pounder Whitworth gun. The government loss was thirteen killed and five wounded. Five officers and sixty-three men and twenty-five civilians were taken prisoners. The insurgent loss is two killed and five wounded.

THE NEW SHIPS.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—The Herald's Washington special: Minister Mendonca has received from Flint & Co., Brazilian agents in New York, information that the cruisers Nictheroy and Benjamin Constant, which have been so long fitting out at Toulon, are ready for sea, and will sail immediately. Mendonca is a little doubtful if they can reach the Brazilian coast before the crisis comes, but says success will be made doubly sure if the insurgents have not been suppressed before they arrive. With these two vessels added to Peixoto's fleet Mello's squadron will not only be outnumbered, but outclassed.

ENGLAND AND AFGHANISTAN.

The Ameer Desires the Friendship of Great Britain.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—Sir Mortimer Durand and Major Fyne, who have been the confidential advisers of the Ameer of Afghanistan for nine years, returned to London tonight. Both said there was nothing to fear in Afghanistan from Russian intrigues, as the Ameer desires the friendship of Great Britain. Major Fyne describes the journey of the Russian general, Vanovsky, across a portion of Afghan territory while Sir Mortimer was en route to Cabul, as a mere bluff, with a view to thwarting the British mission, and finding that impossible, the Russians retired disgusted.

Anarchists in Rome.

ROME, Jan. 7.—A crowd of workmen tonight assembled in the Trastevere quarter and marched to the center of Rome, bearing two red flags and shouting, "Live socialism!" "Live Sicilian martyrs!" Police on guard at the passage of Garibaldi's bridge ordered the crowd to disperse, but the latter opened fire on the police with revolvers, and during the riot which followed a policeman was stabbed with a dagger. Finally the police succeeded in dispersing the crowd, and in capturing two red flags and two anarchists.

A mob yesterday evening attacked and disarmed a corporal refusing to join in the seditious cries, and afterwards they brutally beat him with cudgels.

A manifesto signed by the socialist deputies has been circulated at Modena. It says the deputies are going to Sicily to force the government to take proper and beneficent measures to restore peace.

A LIVELY SCENE.

The Closing of the $5 Rate Last Month at the Zion Medical and Surgical Institute.

Many Patients Who Were Unable to See the Doctors Can Call During This Month, As This Low Rate Will Be Extended Up to Feb. 1st. —All Medicines Furnished Free!

During the last fifteen days of January over 150 patients placed themselves under treatment at the Zion Medical and Surgical Institute.

This week many have applied for the benefit of the $5 rate for all diseases. In order to give all an opportunity, Drs. Shores & Shores have decided to extend the $5 rate for all diseases up to February.

Remember at the Zion Medical and Surgical Institute you have the opinion of two physicians. All medicines free of [illegible] two physicians, thus making a rule doubly sure. All medicines for your case is prepared by the two doctors themselves, thus avoiding any mistakes.

The doctors also request that people intending placing themselves under treatment not to put off until the last week. The last few days of December it was almost impossible for the doctors to treat all, consequently making an extension of the low rate.

Remember by applying for treatment this month you are treated until entirely well for a month and all medicines furnished free.

Drs. Shores & Shores have practiced six years in Utah. They are well known and successful physicians.

Below will be found a case of more than ordinary interest, that of Bessie Madsen, [illegible] East Street.

The trouble was first caused by a severe attack of diphtheria, which [illegible] enlarged tonsils. Her mother, who [illegible] the case [illegible]:

"My little daughter has [illegible] a [illegible], but all failed until we brought her to Drs. Shores & Shores.

"The enlarged tonsils were very troublesome, causing repeated attacks of sore throat. They would [illegible] ing a high fever. [illegible] from the [illegible] catarrh was very offensive, causing derangement of the stomach. I consulted many physicians in California and elsewhere. They told me that a surgical operation, removing the enlarged [illegible] with the knife, was the only course to pursue, but I had a great dread of the knife, and after reading of the success of Drs. Shores & Shores in the treatment of catarrh and throat troubles, I decided to consult them, and after an examination they informed me that no surgical operation was necessary, and that the enlarged tonsil could be removed by [illegible] the proper local applications. I will say that I placed my daughter's case in their hands and can truthfully say the result has been very satisfactory, and I cheerfully recommend the doctors of the Zion Medical and Surgical Institute."

Mrs. Madsen can be interviewed at her residence, [illegible] South, Eighth East Street, and will verify the above statement.
