OVER ANOTHER WEEK

Case Against Salt Lake Athletic Club Be Heard Today.

ONLY ONE WITNESS PRESENT.

[illegible]

This was the day on which the Salt Lake Athletic club management was to have had a formal preliminary hearing before Justice Wenger on the charge of promoting the prize fight which resulted in the sudden retirement from the pugilistic stage of Tom Carter and also of his death. But the hearing didn't come off. The fact was only one witness put in an appearance and like the deserting colleagues he, too, would have considered it the wisdom of good fortune had circumstances so adjusted themselves so that he could have been conveniently absent. But counsel for other side were in good humor and the court was not inclined to gain things along with unnecessary haste and now the case has gone over for one week.

The only witnesses who can be induced to testify in this case or whose evidence is sought is that of the newspaper men. The mortuary sheet of those were using subventions and other assignments and did not respond to the call of their names. There was an evident indication on the part of the prosecution to avoid spending much time in the investigation. Mr. Waite said in view of last week's hearing it was known in advance what the testimony would be—simply a repeat of the case of Bob Thompson. The one thing to do now was to establish whether the "entertainment" at which Carter was killed was or was not a prize fight.

Attorney McClellan replied that so far as his clients were concerned they were ready to establish that without any unusual delay. In answer to this Mr. Waite spoke called attention to the absent witness and added, "I don't want to get out attachments for them and I think for once we had better subject ourselves to their convenience." And it was done, the Week from today at 10 a.m. being Exes for the time to hear the case.

CARNIVAL FIREWORKS.

Lively Preparations for Saturday Night's Pyrotechnical Display Being Made.

The great spectacular performance now under way at Saltair was presented again last night with unmistakable success. The troupe of Sam Lucchese and his musicians went through their celebrated engagements with the ease and grace of experienced. The increase of light which came from the electric lamps introduced some time back placed on a strong pin-mounted platform had the effect of making it much easier to recognize individual acts than on the opening night.

The weather itself was all that could be desired, cool, refreshing and [illegible]. A gentle breeze blew towards the pavilion where 3,000 spectators sat watching the novel performances and applauding the clever feats of the stars of the company. An incident that created a temporary air of excitement was the sudden giving away of a pair of the lagoon guards and falling, sending one of the [illegible] to the glass floor with terrific force. It was noticed at first that he was seriously injured, but fortunately that conclusion was not correct.

As to the fireworks display it easily surpasses all previous efforts at pyrotechnic show made in Utah. The whitening of the beach alone is worth a trip from the east of the trip. The 10:15 train last night brought hundreds of people, while it set many more at the beach to come home also.

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL BOYS.

In Salt Lake on the Way Home From Boulder Where They Were Vanquished.

The Nebraska city football team and their friends, seventeen in number, arrived in Salt Lake this morning from Boulder, Montana, where they played the crack team of that city and were defeated. W. H. Hayward, captain and manager, however, thinks the defeat rather complimentary than otherwise. To a News man he said today:

"We made the first score on them in a year. Every other team that attempted to do so during that period failed. In one game the score at the finish stood 19 to 4 with one touch down contested. The contest has been referred to Walter Camp the celebrated authority on football rules, for adjudication. We lost the game through lack of team work and handling of the ball. Our men never freed up together before getting to Butte. With a little practice we could easily beat the Montana eleven."

The Nebraska kickers visited Saltair this afternoon. Tonight they will leave on the Union Pacific for Denver, where they will stop one day on their home.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Election Bonds Considered—41 Labor Inspection Reported Upon.

G. S. Holmes and Mrs. J. D. Todd, by M. Christopherson, attorney, petitioned the county commissioners yesterday for a quit claim deed from the county to the southeast quarter of section 12, township 1 south, range 3 west, which was sold for taxes. Referred to the county attorney.

John H. Bowman asked the commissioners to extend a sewer [illegible] to his place. Referred to Mr. [illegible].

J. A. Cunningham asked that a tax wrongfully assessed on a mortgage of $2,000 be abated. Referred to Mr. [illegible].

Engineer Lawson reported that he had taken the surveys filed by the [illegible] and building all the improvements of the counties. He found very many operations in the matter of bridges, roads and culverts in the majority of the appropriations. Mr. Arnold, who asked for relief, was present to explain the situation.

John Newman & Co. were given a [illegible] to operate in Hogsback.

County Attorney Whitlock reported the results of his interviews with [illegible] in regard to the Australian ballot system which will prevail in the election next November. As there is not very much time to save the needed work he recommended immediate action. The report was referred to the whole board and two weeks from yesterday was the time set to move this for hearing the bodies.

It was decided, upon recommendation of the county surveyor, that the county pay one-fourth of the cost of removing Mr. David McKinnon of the county building to the city jail.

A requisition from County Clerk Spears for $100 per month, was unanimously granted.

After examining and allowing a bill of $[illegible], the court adjourned.

A STRANGE APPEAL FOR HELP.

An Unknown Lady's Unique Method of Seeking Money—Which Is Right Is If "Crank."

A News reporter while on his perambulations in search of information today was suddenly accosted in a down town office into which they had both dropped for a moment, by one of Salt Lake's best known business men. The latter immediately asked the man of news to assist in throwing the Roentgen rays on to a mysterious lady who suddenly had crossed his path a day or two ago. Said he:

"I don't want any publicity over this matter, but something is going on about here that ought to be stopped. A messenger boy wearing livery and star, came into my store with a sealed stamped military envelope. It was addressed to me but I was not present and one of my boys thinking it was very urgent on account of the messenger saying he had positive instructions to wait for an answer, opened the envelope and read it with a puzzled air and then handed it back saying he could do nothing." The note was couched in about the following language:

Mr. ——

My dear Sir—I am in the most urgent need of $20 on any consideration on earth that I must have it at once. Knowing your good and generous heart and kind acts I look you to help me out of my trouble. I have good reasons for asking my identity. Lily.

"Well, sir," continued the gentleman addressing the newspaper, "who the deuce is Lily?" The sorrowful look he had in solemn apostrophe and patiently listened to what Mr. —— would have done in the way of securing a dump message in reply to "Lily" and endeavoring to locate her had he been at his store at the time the note appeared came. It is the opinion of the troubled recipient of the note which was written in a feminine hand—and in some entirely plausible—that the writer either with or without aid is working a novel scheme to the community to raise money. Mr. —— says his action in the follow business is to try, "If you get a note from Lily asking for money find out who she is before you respond to her appeal for assistance."
