In consequence of the accident, John A. Gilman was arrested Friday night as the probable murderer. Gilman was found Thursday night in an unconscious condition in the back room of a saloon where he had been drinking heavily all evening. The wife of William J. Patten, a prominent druggist of Portland, Ore., is now in St. Vincent's hospital recovering from the effects of a unique accident and novel operation which followed. Three years ago she felt the tender pain of an upper set of artificial teeth in back. Have a necessity to make a call before the plate was removed, she swallowed the piece. In her sleep, soon after she awoke and involuntarily pushing her tongue over her mouth her fingers pressed against her teeth, creating sensation of the plate as a tooth attached. Her head was turned back and her mouth being wide open, the teeth went into her throat and she tried to cough up the plate, but could not. She passed beyond death and suffocation. In a day or two she became so ill with severe pains and was unable to eat, and at the end of two weeks was in a serious condition. She was unable to go to St. Vincent's Hospital, where an operation was performed opening the stomach, but after a most thorough search no trace could be found. Patient improved and in a few days was able to leave the hospital and is now fast recovering.

Montpelier, Idaho, Feb. 22.—At a most excellent hotel Tabernacle Yoder at Paris, Saturday night, March 13, the mercury stood at 30 below zero. It was deemed best to let the inhabitants of the Bear Lake country through that night, so as to keep the building warm for the people were thinking of assembling there the following day. Having seen by the thermometer at noon, he decided to sleep and was awakened some time in the night in a suffocating condition by the tabernacle being filled with smoke. Jumping up in an excited manner, he soon had a window where Lake to fill the pipe, but felt the right side of the tabernacle of the hall W. knowing the place. He would not leave his post of duty, and working 24 hours in a stretch managed to keep the fire burning through the night, but the greatest anxiety. As soon as he could on Sunday morning he called to Bear Lake was taken to his home. Dr. Sagstad B. Young at the two branch fire and fired him so successfully as was possible. On Wednesday he was taken home all day and Thursday he died. His funeral took place Sunday, March 21.

Stake Conference at Paris.

The quarterly conference of the Bear Lake Stake of Zion was held in the Tabernacle at Paris, Idaho, on Saturday and Sunday, March 13 and 14, 1897. There were present on the stand—Elders Seymour B. Young, of the First Seventy, President of Seventies, James H. Hart and William L. Rice of the Stake Presidency; President J. U. Stucki of the High Priests' quorum, Patriarch Hugh Findley, members of the High Council, Bishops of the various wards and other officers.

Business was devoted to the giving of reports of the different wards of the Bishops, and addresses by Elders James H. Hart, William Budge and Seymour B. Young in the order named. The reports by the Bishops showed there had been considerable sickness during the winter, and a decline in tithing in the wards. The last meeting, since the change of time in holding them, was reported to be the best meetings held, and were very much good. The local association were in excellent condition, generally, and improvements seemed to be the order of the day. The record of the Stake presidency through all the wards was reported to have been productive of much good.

On Sunday morning Elder Wm. L. Rice of the Stake presidency, administered much valuable counsel to the saints, followed by an address in the same course by Elder Wm. Budge, president of the Stake, full of history, admonitions to saints and people with timely advice. In the afternoon Elder Seymour B. Young read the address delivered in the Salt Lake Tabernacle March 1, on the occasion of the anniversary of President Woodruff's birthday, and commented by Elder George A. Smith, allowing it with a discourse on the prophecy concerning the growth of Zion. Elder Amos G. Call and W. H. Lee of Woodruff were addressed the conference, bearing powerful testimonies to the truth of Mormonism.

Among the Bear Lake county representatives whom we have the pleasure of shaking hands with were Partners W. H. Lee, Sam-ue Haxtie, McKenzie, Kennedy, Price and Oxford, as Elders Byron Stadler, Samuel Weston, Charles Stuck, John Wesley, George Peart, Rank of Lee, W. H. Anderson and others, the presence of all of whom shower their love, faithfulness and their desire to bear the word of God as given unto them in His service.
