HOW TO CURE A COLD.

Be as careful as you can, you will occasionally take cold, and when you do, get a medicine of known reliability, one that has an established reputation and that is certain to effect a quick cure. Such a medicine is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has gained a world wide reputation by its remarkable cures of this most common ailment, and can always be depended upon. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. For sale by all druggists.

BENEFIT FOR INJURED BOY.

Subscription Dance to be Given to Aid Clarence Hendricksen Wednesday.

A strong appeal is being made to the public in behalf of the benefit dance that will be given at Odeon Hall, Wednesday night, Oct. 27, for Clarence Hendricksen, who lost both legs by falling into an elevator shaft during July. Persons who are behind the move are making great efforts to have as many persons as possible secure tickets to the benefit.

The Hendricksen boy with the loss of his legs is almost helpless and the public has been appealed to for assistance. C. M. Nielsen, 239 Constitution building, has been taking an active part in securing assistance and any subscriptions may be sent to him.

Among those who have come to the assistance of young Hendricksen are Maj. R. W. Young, $5; R. W. Cordkett, $5; Mrs. Moulton, $1.

OF INTEREST TO MOTHERS.

There is one subject which always interests the mothers of young children, and that is how to treat their coughs and colds, or to ward off a threatened attack of croup. For this purpose we can recommend Chamberlains' Cough Remedy. It always proves beneficial in case of croup it should be given as soon as the croupy cough appears, so as to prevent the attack. Keep it at hand ready for what use. Many mothers do so, and it saves them much uneasiness. For sale by all druggists.

TYPOS GATHER TO HONOR J. M. LYNCH

President of I. T. U. Is Guest at Banquet Given at Commercial Club.

TALKS ABOUT CONSUMPTION.

Says Printers Are Particularly Siezed By the Plague Because of Prevailing Conditions.

President James M. Lynch of the International Typographical union was entertained Wednesday by the local typographical fraternity, the principal feature being the banquet at the Commercial club. George T. Hanson, president of the Salt Lake union presided, with general managers and managing editors of local papers among the guests. Among the speakers were Judge C. C. Goodwin, Col. H. G. Shearer, Dr. A. C. Behle, H. W. Dennett, Capt. J. E. Caine and others. The principal address was by President Lynch who said in part:

"It has been my experience that every man who amounts to anything in the world has at one time or another been a printer. I once sat at a dinner with Mark Hanna on one side and Gen. Bliss on the other. The conversation turned on the printing trade. Mr. Hanna casually remarked that he had once set brevier, and Gen. Bliss, when asked, also offered the information that he, too, had set brevier for three months. No doubt," said Mr. Lynch, "Brigham Young also set brevier.

"We have gone through all of the troubles that beset trades unions. We have gone through more strikes, 50 to one than any other trades union. Until eight years ago there was a condition of recurring turmoil, but when we signed our agreement with the American Publishers' association we had made a great step toward eternal peace. Under our arbitration contracts with the American Publishers' association which includes publishers employing 20,000 of our people, we are down to a solid business basis. The publisher knows that his paper is going to come out every morning and every evening. Of course, under the arbitration rule we do not always get what we want; neither does the publisher. But we come to an understanding. Usually it is a compromise. In the end, however, we always get what we go after. We have adopted a policy of diplomacy and patience, and we know that, sooner or later, we get what we asked for in the beginning. We are the most agreeable fellows in the world. We will agree to anything if the other fellow agrees with us. We do not want trouble; we do not want strikes. It is certain that they result in a waste."

TO FIGHT CONSUMPTION.

"There are few trades unions, whose membership owes a greater percentage of deaths to tuberculosis than the Typographical union. This is largely due to the unsanitary conditions under which our people are compelled to work. Until a few years ago any old place—filthy, unsanitary, disease-breeding—was good enough for the composing room, and if another room just a little bit worse could be found it was made the press room. While doing the work at the printers' home we are doing a great deal more through the literature we are sending out. We show our people how to prevent tuberculosis, and we urge personal cleanliness and right living."

Dr. Behle in speaking on consumption, said in part:

"Tuberculosis causes the death of 160,000 persons and the constant illness of a half million more each year, in the United States. The disease is preventable. Statistics show that tuberculosis in the last four years caused more than three times as many deaths in this country as occurred from wounds received in action during the Civil war. The United States today has no national public health agency vested with power to cope with the evil.

WHAT PRINTERS ARE DOING.

"Robert Koch states the tuberculosis situation in Germany has become distinctly favorable during the last three decades, thus, for example, the rate of mortality due to tuberculosis in Prussia has been reduced to practically one-half. This is equivalent to a gain of about 30,000 lives per annum in Germany. What has the International Typographical union done to reduce mortality from tuberculosis? It was my pleasure to be an active member of the sixth International Congress on Tuberculosis, which was in session Sept. 28 to Oct. 5, 1908, at Washington, D. C. The display and educational exhibit of the Union Printers Home of Colorado Springs, Colo., under the personal charge of Superintendent Deacon, attracted marked attention. Among the collection of exhibits none received greater praise. The tuberculosis tent colony at Colorado Springs ranks with the foremost in the world. Their steam-heated and specially ventilated tent was not surpassed. In competition it, a prize of $1,500 was offered for the best exhibit of an existing sanitarium for the treatment of curable cases of tuberculosis among the working classes. The exhibit of the Union Printers' Home received honorable mention. When you consider that in this class only 12 awards were granted in a world-wide competition, you can realize where your sanitarium stands—in the foremost ranks. The home tent was considered one of the very best, and the National Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis is now exhibiting the tent in the various cities of the country in connection with the traveling exhibit of the national association. Union printers should be proud of the splendid work they have done in helping to stamp out this great white plague."

Those present at the banquet were: H. W. Dennett, George F. Sahn, Joseph J. LeBoe, J. L. Corey, J. C. Derks, G. V. Emigh, H. H. Daniels, William Grimsdell, Jack Christensen, L. Beasley, Sidney Hecker, Frank L. Hart, Sidney Groo, Charles Howard, B. L. White, H. R. Freeman, W. F. Richardson, C. N. Butler, C. M. Hirsch, J. E. Holmes, Bastion Grandmann, J. Burgess, James H. Budd, Thomas A. Ord, William E. Sharpe, A. Davis, P. C. Brown, H. J. Bowles, F. F. Phelps, Charles P. Jennings, George S. McAllister, Dr. Augustus H. Behle, Geo. E. Hale, A. J. Brown, George F. Hanson, Frank J. Sefrit, Arthur C. White, Judge C. C. Goodwin, W. J. Halloran, General R. G. Shearer, Theodore Lovendale, A. Thompson, J. E. Bosch, C. P. Ball, H. G. Fisher, M. J. Collins, E. E. Porter, George Burgess, H. P. Pinkey, Rulon Proctor, Arthur E. Graham, Milt L. Shuprey, Joseph E. Caine, J. L. Perkes, P. Vilo Pedersen, Fritz Schneider, Cal Stillwagner, J. E. Jepperson, F. E.
