A SPANISH VICTORY

Appears to Have Been an Inglorious Defeat.

RIOS ROUTED WITH HEAVY LOSS.

The Madrid Government Determined to Conciliate Public Opinion in the Philippines.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 22.—Private advices from Manila, Philippine Islands, reported here today, which are verified by an account which appears in the Hong Kong press, deals with the attack by the Spanish on the Novaleta bridge, and the element of the Spanish to dislodge the insurgents in Davite and Vejo. At the end of the campaign, which lasted until the 14th of November, the Spanish celebrated and dispatches representing that the attack had been successful and that the rebel loss was very heavy. The Spanish claimed to have lost about thirty-five killed and 100 wounded. It is now learned that the great victory that the Spaniards celebrated ended in ignominious defeat. The rebels held Novaleta against wind-ships and troops. The Spaniards retired that having suffered heavy loss.

The Spanish forces under Gen. Rios were divided into two brigades of 7,000 men each, supported by the Spanish gunboats in the bay.

The insurgents numbered about 12,000, but they were strongly entrenched in Caridad and Novaleta. At the head of the Novaleta peninsula is a ground that overlooked with rifle pits and the town defended from south by earthworks planted with rapid-fire cannon and several pieces of heavy artillery.

Rios attacked the first line of fortifications at Novaleta, and the rebels fell back to the main line of defense, a mile to the east of the picket line. The Spanish had their plans well arranged. They placed the cruiser Castilla close to shore, and while her guns covered the attack of the land forces. The cruiser's shells reached the outside houses of the rebels but had little effect on the defenses of the city. The fight lasted six hours. On Saturday, November 8th, and by 1 o'clock in the afternoon the insurgents' outer works had been evacuated. Then a general attack followed, Rios throwing the main body of his first brigade against the rebel entrenchments. The gunboats opened fire on the enemy, but owing to bad gunnery failed to cause any damage to the defenses. The Castilla, the closest to the shore, was only six miles from the town and all of her shells fell short, owing to the extreme elevation given to the ship's cannon.

"When Rios's men reached the insurgents' works a terrible fire was opened on them. Very marched toward resolutely with the rifle pieces to beat forth, moving down the front ranks. The column faltered, then retreated slowly under heavy fire.

The Spanish troops were in the open and exposed to the full effect of the fire. Had the rebel gunners done good Rios could have been slaughtered.

On the morning of the 9th the Spanish were back in their camp again, and had repaired the remnants of the first brigade. The second brigade was suffered very little. At least 400 wounded were brought from the battlefield.

On Wednesday, November 11, Rios prepared and headed a second attack on Novaleta. He threw his entire army against the rebels and was routed with heavy loss in the first attack. The guns also failed to aid the troops to any extent, their shell falling short.

The Spanish did not attempt to renew the action, but waited until the following day, when a weak effort was made to drive the rebels, the failure of which ended the fighting for the time being.

INSURRECTION SPREADING.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—A Madrid dispatch to the Daily Mail says: In order to insure the success of the next loan the government is straining every nerve to conceal the true situation in the Philippines. The whole colony is in revolt, and scattered bands of Spanish troops have been hemmed in by the rebels. It is claimed that a certain proportion of German reserve officers are in the insurgent ranks.

MUST NOT VIOLATE THE LAW.

ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 22.—Gov. Morton has sent the sheriff of Queen's county a proclamation calling upon him to see that the law is not violated by those engaged in the Lovigne-McKeever fight on Long Island city tomorrow night.

ON TRIAL FOR MURDER.

The Alleged Slayer of Stambuloff, the Bulgarian Minister.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Dec. 22.—[Copyrighted, 1896, by the Associated Press.] The trial of the persons accused of the murder of ex-Premier Stambuloff, who was clubbed to the streets of the city on July 19th, resulting in his death on July 21th, was formally opened in the court house before a packed tribunal yesterday and was continued today. The accused are Petro Georgoff, aged 34, a former servant of Major Panitsa; Ivan Ilieff, a Macedonian, aged 23, the assassin who drove Stambuloff from the Union club to the scene of the crime; Nauo Tudeleoff, an employe in the building department in the ministry of public works here, and brother of Dimitri Tudeleoff, who died in prison, as he asserted, as a result of torture inflicted by the order of the former premier Stambuloff.

Tufl Kiuloff was accused of complicity in the murder of the minister of finance, who was assassinated in the streets in the presence of M. Stambuloff, for whom he was mistaken, on March 18, 1895.

A letter written by the murderous statesman to a friend some minutes before his death was read by the judge amid profound silence. The letter was dated 6 p. m. March 18, 1895, and gave to minute details the plot to Stambuloff's murder. The handwriting, the letter stated, came from one Ch. Z. charterw, who was in other towns was a band of Silesian Swabian who had sworn to free the country from the tyrant, Stambuloff."

The letter declared that the assassins expected clemency from the prince after a short imprisonment, and that a plot was also afoot for the murder of the prince himself.

The letter concluded: "These statements I have written in order that it may be known that the plot of the murderers was known to me, and that sooner or later my friends and my children may demand their punishment."

THEY WANT TO GO TO CUBA.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 22.—Col. Sol Miller of Louisville, an ex-Confederate soldier, has been here today in consultation with the governor and officers of the state. He asked them confidentially what permission there would come out to members of the state guard who should go away from home and enlist under the Cuban banner. He mentioned no knowing members of the guard who wanted to go to Cuba and who would be out if secured no actual punishment at home. The answer of the governor and adjutant general to Col. Miller is not known.

A FORWARD MOVE.

Winter Trying to Prevent Cuban Force Concentration.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 22.—A special to the Commercial Tribune from Key West, Fla., says that Gen. Weyler is going into the field again in spite of the unusual inclemency of the Havana climate. Preparations are being made with money for a forward move. Three battalions of newly recruited troops left by water for the East. It is thought that this is a part of Weyler's coming campaign. Cubans are advancing rapidly and it is thought that Weyler will, if possible, prevent his coming to the province of Havana. It is stated from Cuban sources that the Cuban leader is willing to meet the number of his only son and his interest, and is turning to revenge that lack. The Cubans in the army are for united as ever the treachery of Dr. Zertorna.

Dr. Zertorna is a married man, but, and it is perhaps a crime will be made to doubt claim. He is now in a fortress some miles from Havana, with a strong Spanish guard. His life is Spain will be spared, the Cubans say, as if he goes over there, they have friends in that country who will avenge Moret and young Gomez. Major Cirodo also is down in for his share of hatred and revenge.

Strong insurgent bands are now so close to Havana that the Spanish soldiers seldom venture far out of the gates of the city except in strong force. A company of twenty-five were attacked Saturday and took over three mules from the place by an insurgent band and several of them killed. The supply was carried off. Weyler, but he cannot capture or disperse them. An American named Amos Johnson from Texas is a leading most prominent leader.

AMERICANS PROTECTED.

CITY OF MEXICO, Dec. 22.—Federal Judge Penn here has issued an important decree in the matter of the Monterey & Mexican Gulf railway, attaching the property of that corporation in the hands of receivers. This decision, which is of immense importance to the American creditors, was arrived at before the Belgian syndicate now operating the line did not deposit, as required to do by a previous order, $4,000,000, which would have protected the American creditors, among whom is Joseph A. Robertson, a well known capitalist of Monterey, who represents his own claims and several others of great magnitude. The decision gives protection to American holding claims against the corporation.

The morning newspapers were Spain that Mex can have the right in their own country to manifest their sympathy with Cuban patriots, and that they must not molest Mexicans. Profit being to simply in future stopping the inter stones of the Spanish with the personal liberty of the Mexicans.

ALBERT PIKE WANTED.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 22.—Gov. Budd today issued a requisition on the governor of Utah for Albert Pike, now serving a term in a Utah penitentiary. Pike was tried in Fulton in June, 1891, to serve a three years' sentence. The following year he escaped to escape and went on his way into Utah, where during the past four years he has been spending most of the time in the penitentiary of that state, having served two terms for offenses committed there. As he was a three-termer before leaving California he has the unenviable record of having served five times in the penitentiary. If the warrant is issued Pike will be brought back and made to finish his term at Folsom.

BATTLE BETWEEN GREEKS AND TURKS.

LONDON, Dec. 23.—An Athens dispatch to the Daily News says that a desperate fight occurred on Sunday at Propheteliss, in the Olympus district, between a Turkish detachment, eighty strong, escorting an investigation commission of eight Turkish officials, and a Greek insurgent band under Vendoulis. The wife of the Turkish commission and twenty-four of the Turkish detachment were killed, the insurgents losing only four killed.

AS A RESULT OF THE FAILURE.

CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—The estate of Angus A. Grant, general contractor, the American Brewing, Malting and Elevator company, the George A. Weyse Malting and Elevator company, and George A. Weyse individually, all of these being due to the collapse of the National bank of Illinois, and equal sums on their books, were the scenes today of the bank failure yesterday. Runs were made on the Garden City Banking and Trust company, the Hibernian Banking association, the Illinois Trust and Savings bank, but none of the runs were of much importance.

AMNESTIES IN TO CUBA.

PARIS, Dec. 22.—The minister of the Spanish embassy here, the Marquis de Novaliches, in an interview has declared that out of American influences the Cuban insurrection would have terminated long ago. He is quoted as saying:

"The recognition of the independence of Cuba by the United States would only be the signal for an insurrection which, I believe that the struggle will terminate before the end of February.

AS TO THE THREE FRIENDS.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 22.—A special to the Commercial Tribune from Jacksonville, Fla., says: There is much guessing as to the whereabouts of the Three Friends (not Mr. Fernandina the name) with stones and estimates that it is supposed that the Sabine her cargo. J. M. Barr, her attorney and part owner, was asked today if it was not time to hear from the Sabine yet. He replied, but thought she would be heard from in a day or two. It is the impression here now that she has two or more ships expeditions to carry over before coming here to be sound. The moment the vessels which reach it a rescue cutter has a dispatch will be given.

RESTRICTIONS IN SPAIN.

MADRID, Dec. 22.—The correspondents assert that the gag of silence have relaxed a small concession, and that we have been signed yesterday only. A official note was published from the evening in the report, interpreted an official telegram was published about the shelling that the Carmen and captured a cruiser in town, leading a republican flag at Novaldi, in the province of Alicante, and the capture of Cuban boats, have been so late.

A FRENCH ORIGINAL.

He Is a Statesman and a Leader of Labor.

PARIS, Dec. 22.—The Paris newspapers are full of gossip about Dr. Cronier, who has been elected deputy for Paris on a Socialist ticket. Dr. Cronier is a tall Hercules, and he intends to wear the national tunic in the Chamber of Deputies. His election was due to his endorsement by the Moderate Republican committee. He lived in the clothes with the title "The People at Work." He is highly educated, a good orator and a doctor of medicine. He never refuses a consultation to a poor man. He is a very high-minded man, fearless. He knows no law marriage and polygamy and attacks all the Mormons. Only Hobbing gained fame in the chair. The workmen popular and whatever he will vote the same in Paris.
