MR. CHAMBERLAIN INTERVIEWED.

Senators and Members of the House Sign a Petition for Parties—Etc.

(STRAIGHT AT EXPENSE.)

LONDON, April 29.—Contrary to all rule in the process, Joseph Chamberlain, accounted in the House of Commons today from the Prince of the Royal committee of Jameson Aug. 17, H. Hammond, Francis Hoskin, George Farrer, Leonard Phillips and Charles Leonard, imprisoned, and upon the charges were read to him. Mr. Chamberlain added that have thereby he was to be raised to the position of Cecil Rhodes. Mr. Chamberlain then rose and read the following to Parliament in full:

"The government has not failed but the most one of doubt has been placed upon the Rhodesian in the Transvaal. They can not but be regarded with the greatest sympathy the subject of their country by the Boer Republic, and have always expressed their sympathy with the Uitlanders.

"A Mission from Pretoria to the Queen after the raid, in which the very high officials of Pretoria, one of the most distinguished men in South Africa, was Americans.

MEETING OF MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT.

Mr. Chamberlain, in response to the request of Members, made a statement in the House of Commons today, which was received with the most profound attention by the House. The petition is addressed to Lord Rosebery, and is signed by a great number of members of both Houses, and is in the following terms:

"The undersigned, Members of Parliament, have learned with the deepest sorrow and anxiety the recent events in South Africa, which have so seriously affected the honor and interests of the Queen's Dominions. We feel that the Queen's Government, in the discharge of its duty to the Queen, has been placed in a position of great difficulty, and we have no doubt that the Queen's Government will be able to take such steps as will secure the honor of the Queen and the interests of her Majesty's Dominions in South Africa."
