LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Gene East.—Chief Justice Schaefer left for the east this morning, expecting to be absent something over a month.

Court.—The citizens of Ogden are endeavoring, by petition, to induce Governor Emery to provide for the holding, in that city, of at least one term in each year, of the Third District Court.

Lecture.—To-morrow evening Mr. S. W. Darke will deliver his very entertaining lecture on the "Deluge," under the auspices of the 19th Ward Mutual Improvement Association, commencing at half-past 7 o'clock. All are invited. J. R. MATTHEWS, Secy.

Home Industrial.—Mr. Daniel Dunne has commenced the manufacture, on Second South Street, one block from East Temple Street, of iron goods, such as rail fencing, gates, tree guards, garden rollers, chairs, bedsteads, cots, etc. He assures us that he can successfully compete in excellence and price with importation. Mr. Dunne was trained to the wrought iron business in the vicinity of Birmingham, England.

Theatre To-Night.—It should be kept in mind that the entertainment at the Theatre to-night is for the benefit of the Tabernacle building fund. The house should be crowded because of the worthiness of the object. The audience will have the pleasure of seeing and hearing some of the most popular of Salt Lake's favorites. A bill has been selected with a view to suit the popular taste. Certainly, let everybody go and take his friends with him.

Goats.—People in the lower part of the city complain that the owners of goats allow the animals to run loose upon the streets. They gnaw the bark from young shade trees, break into lots, play havoc with the vegetation and do other serious mischief. Their depredations are generally really more serious than those committed by stray cows, the goats being able to break through so much smaller apertures. The law in reference to stray animals, we believe, includes goats.

Rescuing Party.—The Ogden Junction states that it has information that last Saturday evening a party of Bannack Indians stopped the stage coach on the Kelton road, about fourteen miles north of Camas Prairie, for the purpose of rescuing the Indian Tamblago, convicted of murder, while being conducted to Boise City. It happened, however, that the prisoner was taken to Boise by way of Silver City, instead of by the Kelton route. Falling in with the object, the Indian party ran off eight head of stock belonging to the stage company, and caused the station master to put a goodly distance between himself and them with great activity.

Supreme Court.—Tuesday, June 4th.

In the absence of Chief Justice Schaefer, Associate Justice Emerson presided.

John L. Panchon was admitted to the bar as an attorney and counselor at law.

Christian Rhenke et al respondents, vs. Jeter Clinton et al, appellants; (from the Third District) on the motion in this case, submitted yesterday, it is ordered that the remittitur heretofore issued herein be and is hereby recalled, and that the judgment entry herein made at the last term of this court, be and is amended, by striking therefrom the words, "with leave to amend the complaint and for new trial," and inserting, in lieu thereof, the words, "with leave to plaintiffs to amend their complaint."

In the Estate of D. Berens, deceased, Albert Uebel appellant vs. Salvador Males, respondent; (from the Third District Court) judgment of the District Court affirmed, with costs.

Sunday School Union.—By invitation of the authorities of the Seventeenth Ward, the regular monthly meeting of the Sunday School Union was held in the meeting house of that ward, last evening. The assembly was very large, the hall being densely packed, and many having to turn away, being unable to gain admittance.

Brother George Goddard presided, and the ward choir under the leadership of Brother J. S. Lewis, did some delightful singing.

Addresses were delivered by Brothers S. L. Evans, George H. Taylor, William McLaughlin and Bishop John Henry Smith. The main topic treated upon was a prevalent tendency, among portions of the community to break the Sabbath day. Some people who had arrived at the age of maturity appeared to consider it no harm, on Sundays, to play croquet and to go out pleasure driving. These were not only of themselves infringements upon the explicit command of God to keep the Sabbath day holy, but they were had examples before the young, causing them to take license from such circumstances.

Superintendent Goddard made a few remarks in commendation of those of the young men and women who were seen as individuals favorable to the keeping of the Sabbath.

Meeting adjourned till July 1st at the 14th Ward Assembly Rooms.

Prisco has the Telegraph.

Smelting and Leaching.

Editors Deseret News:

Just built a telegraph line from Salt Lake to Prisco, a distance of 11 miles, opened an office this afternoon, Wm. S. Godde being the principal mover in this grand enterprise, which brings Prisco in communication with the outer world. Day day is approaching, and everything is lively in consequence.

Both smelters are running. The Prisco Reduction Works are nearly ready to resume leaching, with every prospect of success. The Prisco Smelting Works, W. S. Godde manager, is successfully making the best run ever made, having averaged over a car load of bullion per day from one stack, exclusive of stoppages, for over two months, and will run finely under the very efficient supervision of Mr. J. W. Livingston, foreman.

Illustrative Picture.—Mr. Geo. M. Ottinger has painted to the order of Mr. James Dryer, a pictorial of Joseph Smith, the Prophet, receiving from the Angel Moroni, the plates from which the Book of Mormon was translated.

The scene is the Hill Cumorah, and the figure of Joseph Smith is in bold relief in the foreground in a kneeling posture by the stone box, containing the plates, &c., while the angel, clothed in white raiment, stands at a distance from him. In order to give stronger effect and more distinctness to the figures, a cloudy atmosphere has been introduced.

The subject is a difficult one to depict by the painter's art, yet the artist has shown excellent ability in delineating this intensely interesting historical scene.

We have frequently thought that historical pictures of scenes described in the Book of Mormon would be exceedingly attractive to students of that authentic record.

That Excursion.—The committee of the Old Folk's Excursion desire us to say that the report of the names and ages of those who have 70 years of age or more is as follows: The 12th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, and 21st Wards, as these reports are sent in to Bishop Hunter, the committee can then determine how many can be accommodated who are a little under seventy years of age.

We are also requested to state that the excursion will take place next Tuesday, providing the weather is favorable. And that the committee are prepared to receive contributions toward defraying the expenses of the affair.

"Juvenile Instructor."—The latest number of the Juvenile Instructor is very interesting. It has "The Water Spider and its Diving Bell," illustrated; "Secrets of Success," illustrated; "The Echinus or Sea Urchin," illustrated; "Joseph Smith the Prophet," questions and answers on the Book of Mormon and Bible; "Facts not Generally Known," editorial thoughts; "A Japanese Archer," illustrated; "Improvements in agriculture," "Our Sulphate," "Incidents of a mission," "The Gospel Principles," "Learn a Trade," "Sunday Lessons," "The Children's Sunday School Song," with music.

Progressing Nicely.—The affairs of the new tannery in the 19th Ward are progressing satisfactorily. A new piece of machinery is now being put up and will soon be in running order. It is a "splitter," for splitting the hides. A large amount of raw material is being placed in the vat, so that when the establishment begins to turn out the manufactured article it will be in a position to furnish a continuous supply. Mr. H. B. Clawson is the agent of the association for the purchasing of hides. Those who have these articles to dispose of should keep this fact in remembrance and encourage home manufacture.

Coming.—Denman Thompson and his splendid dramatic company, after the most successful engagement of any company which has appeared for several months on the Pacific Coast, will reappear at the Theatre in this city on Friday and Saturday next, in the ever pleasing drama of "Joshua Whitcomb." Secure your seats in advance.

Eleventh Ward.—The children of the Eleventh Ward Sunday School, with their friends, have been spending the day at Fuller's Gardens.

Correspondence.

VENTNORVALE No. 11, Runners, Denmark, March 5, 1878.

Editorial Note.

We had conference on the 11th and 14th of April in Ashbury, 50 were baptized the last five months, and the prospects are good for more soon. Presidents Fygar and Lijonquist were there and we had a good time together. Time are hard here, many of the poor have been suffering through the past winter and work is still very scarce, although the weather is warm and the people are busily putting in their crops.

It is quite a comfort to see the Deseret News here, for not only do we receive the home news, but we get much more general news from different parts of the world than we do in the papers printed here.

The Elders here and all well as far as I know; most of the native elders are released now.

Mr. Moody advised his brethren to "eschew tobacco in all forms." An illiterate young man, who had been faithfully tried to do so, but it made him so sick that he would rather not be saved if the only way lay in to chew tobacco.

DIED.

At Ogden, Utah, June 1st, 1878, of Cholera, MERRON CHRISTINA, daughter of John and Mary Farrell, aged 7 years, 4 months and 2 days.

At Riverdale, May 28, Mrs. FRANCES, nee Johnson and John R. nee Wells, born Nov. 18, 1841.

The funeral took place from her father's residence on the 31st inst., and was attended by a large number of sympathizing relatives and friends.

Deceased was a fine, promising young man, and generally respected by all who knew him. He had the misfortune two years ago, to lose himself heavily while hunting by which contracted set in and ultimately ended a career of promise. May he rest in peace.—Ogden Junction.

At Hyrum City, Cache County, May 19, of inflammation of the lungs, CALISTA ANN, eldest daughter of Andrew A. and Sarah Ann Allen, aged 10 years and 25 days.

She was highly respected as a Sunday School teacher and a faithful home. A very large attendance of Sunday school children and members of the Ward to her funeral to the grave. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Allen in their bereavement. Mrs. Allen was raised here, and was a first grade teacher at the school in the settlement of Hyrum.—Ogden Junction.
