remarkable statement. The Citizens' ticket is not paying to advertising the Democratic of Florida to support the regular and prime columns of unsophisticated collection in demonstration of two years, if, at last nature, the Florida state convention, which is to be held October 6, either the Citizen or the Times-Union will answer no differences which will shatter Bryan and support the nominees of the Indianapolis convention. By this means the Finger-Plant combine hope to split the Democratic party in the state and know the state's electoral vote in Mr. Kinley. To guard against Bryan's receiving the full electoral vote of the state under any circumstances the machine which is manipulating things secured the nomination of two gold Democrats on the electoral ticket. These two men, if elected, it is alleged, will vote for the Indianapolis nominees.

To carry out their ends a very scheme is resorted to. President Blackburn's vigorous work at the time of the Democratic state convention prevented being captured bodily by the Finger-Plant gold wing of the Democracy. Vengeance was at once declared against him, and Secretary Carlile has acted so as to enjoy the ends of Plant and Finger. Both the Florida senators and American promised citizens have protested in vain against the removal of the government depositary from the Jacksonville bank. Secretary Carlile and Plant, that the removal to the Tampa bank was ordered because the principal collections were at Tampa. This excuse is not a good cap, because Secretary Carlile has orders that the funds be removed to the Merchants' National bank, which is also at Jacksonville. Henry M. Finger and Henry H. Plant are both Republicans and sound supporters of McKinley and Hobart. Yet, though their agents, they are in practical control of the machinery of the Democratic party in Florida. Unless the true Democrats of Florida throw off the yoke, and be sided in doing so by the national committee, the Finger-Plant combine and the administration may capture the state of Florida for McKinley.

BATTLE GROUND IN NEW YORK.

Leaders of the Democracy Believe That Silver Can Triumph in the Empire State.

New York Journal, Sunday: Senator Jones, the chairman of the Democratic national committee, is coming to New York this week for a conference with Senator Gorman of Maryland. Within the past two weeks the leaders of Democracy have had the conclusion forced upon them that notwithstanding their belief in the beginning of the campaign that New York was not a battle ground, it is here that a fight must be made with a splendid chance of victory. After Mr. Bryan's speech in Madison Square Garden there was some doubt as to the strength of the free silver sentiment in New York state. His advisers whose persuasion him and his friends that all their efforts should be devoted to the Middle West, the South and the Pacific coast.

New York leaders, however, assured Mr. Bryan that he could carry the state and they asserted that his reputation at the various cities would astonish. They told him that he would never see such enthusiasm. Their predictions were verified to such an extent, especially in Buffalo, where one-sixth of the population turned out to welcome him, that Mr. Bryan himself became convinced that New York could be carried by the Democracy. He told this to his friends, and hence it has been decided to make a desperate fight to carry the state. This is the reason that Senator Jones is to come here to meet Senator Gorman, who has promised that while he himself will not take a public part in the campaign here, he will help the committee all he can with his advice and counsel.

Candidate Bryan has told his friends that not in his whole trip from the West had he seen such enthusiasm for the cause as in the middle and western counties of New York. He is firmly convinced that many of the old time Republican counties will show Democratic majorities in November. Other leaders who have received advices from independent sources have been forced to the same conclusion, and it has been certainly decided to make the greatest fight of the campaign right here in New York.

Political Pointers.

Hon. Charles McRose and Sheriff McKenzie of Tooele came to Salt Lake last evening to be the purpose of going to Ogden this evening to attend the big silver rally.

Logan Republican: The friends of Nick Chisholm are getting him for the nomination of sheriff on the Democratic ticket, but that gentleman doesn't know whether he wants the office or not.

Richfield Advocate: Born in Beaver last week, to the wife of a prominent man, that they will linger in the shade or at least except silver papers. Next fall there will be nothing but shade for silver Populists.

Attorney S. A. King was up from Provo today. He says Utah county will give the Democratic presidential ticket 1,000 majority this year, while the party will carry the county and legislative officers by at least 500.

In an interview with Deputy Sheriff Polk of Uintah county, he told a News reporter this morning that Uintah would give Bryan 400 votes, even the sheepmen are favoring the free-silver candidate, as their platform is free silver 8in, protection next.

The Mammoth Record, the new silver paper, editorially observes: Every Democrat in Utah is sold to be for McKinley, excepting Auditor Hiswardie, and yet some people think McKinley and Hoxie have no following in Utah. The voters should make a memorandum of this for future reference.

S. A. King of Provo has made an election bet with Judge Sharp of the same place. The former wagers 100 that Angell will carry Illinois by 25,000 majority. Sharp, who doesn't believe he will be re-elected, promptly took the bet. If Judge Burton's prognostications published elsewhere in this paper are correct, then King will win.

Ogden Evening Press: It is very evident that the Bryan Republicans, so-called, are deserting protection. Of course some of the designing leaders are trying to keep up the cry of silver, but the rank and file are protection to a no consequence. If there is one principle that a large majority of the American people believe in, it is protection. For them Bryan seem to fritter the more is to convert it.

Logan Republican: F. K. Nebeker is an avowed candidate for the office of county sheriff on the Democratic ticket and isn't afraid to say so. He believes if a man wants an office he ought to come right out and say so, as there is nothing wrong in his opinion, in a man working honestly for what he desires. Frank's friends claim he stands a splendid chance of getting the nomination.

UNCHRISTIANLIKE CONDUCT

Elder John D. Bennett Cut Off from the Reorganized Church

On That Charge, after a Long Service as a Missionary of The Denomination.

Special to the News.

LAMONI, Iowa, Sept. 2.—On Tuesday evening last the Reorganized Church of this place met in business session and among other acts cut off Elder John D. Bennett and ordered his name to be stricken from the church records. This is all the more surprising, since Mr. Bennett has been a self-supporting minister and missionary of that faith since 1863 and is now past 81 years of age. The court reports nineteen sessions resulting in a verdict of guilty of unchristianlike conduct, without further grounds for action being stated. H. H. B.

The body left New York for home last night accompanied by Louis Cohn of this city and a nephew of Mr. Auerbach. Mr. A. L. Jacobs who was in Denver yesterday will join the party at Omaha and return to Salt Lake with them.

The Chamber of Commerce will meet tonight and pass resolutions of respect for the departed and honored dead and take such other action as the occasion may deem appropriate.

OUT WITH THE CHOIR

From Salt Lake to Denver and the Embodied First Day.

NOTES ON THE CONTESTANTS.

First Session and the Reception of Israel—Overtures Respectfully to the Choirs.

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 1, 1896.—Before giving details of the Tabernacle choir trip to Denver it may be pertinent to mention that after the afternoon service at Sunday last the members were addressed for a few moments by President A. M. Cannon and Joseph E. Taylor, and many kind words of encouragement were spoken. Elder Taylor regarded the efforts of a party of any kind as being productive of the greatest good; both the brethren regarded the efforts of the choir as missionary work of a high class, and told them that their efforts had the approval of the authorities. Each member should be a model of quality and self respect, so that the people among whom they mingled could regard them with the highest respect. They jointly wished them God-speed.

Promptly at 10:30 Monday morning the special train carrying the contestants and friends left the Union Pacific depot amid much cheering, toots and waving of handkerchiefs and arrived at Denver in 10 minutes. When fully made up for the trip the select of eleven coaches, although much in the regret of many of the members that their efforts failed to be certain, the best of the day coaches being substituted for them. The composition of the missionary train was A. E. Cannon, President, Mr. and Mrs. Cannon, Mr. and Mrs. Cannon and Anton Pedersen and forty-five members of the M. C. P. band, first division. Every car was filled up, a more jolly assemblage would be hard to find. To the credit of the party not very little smoking was noticed. By actual count there were 42 persons on the train, excluding the train hands. Mr. Dave Barley was doing so one that nowhere else was made. Nothing was left undone to pass the train through to Z2 hours as promised.

We left Ogden at 11:25 a. m. and with three engines we went with fault stories up Echo canyon, reaching Evanston at 2:15 p.m. Five minutes well at that point, time by the hand in front of the hotel, grand scenic for the church counsel, two photos taken—and the stream of the locomotive caused a terrific rush for the cars. This time, as the was left, Motal—If you want to see the country take a slow train. Five minutes for refreshments is built into time. The shades of night were falling fast as Granger, Green River and Rock Springs were passed. One of the choir members was called back to see a case of sickness at Green River.

We had vocal and instrumental quartets that serenaded each car during the evening and as the night grew darker the tired and sleepy members were trying to sleep in the luxurious day cars, but it was almost an impossibility where the merry chatter of the vocal sirens prevailed, and when daylight dawned a tired and sleepy band of singers were poorly prepared for the school of Denver at 7:30 a.m.

On the arrival of the choir they were all told to rally at the Albany hotel. The street cars were stormed and soon the auditorium of the hotel was filled. One hundred ladies were quartered at the Gilsey House; fifty persons in another place, twenty-five in another and the balance scattered over the city in different places. The reception committee were indefatigable in their efforts to treat the visitors properly—and the floor was soon shared of excitement.

The first session of the Eisteddfod was held in a large structure, hall lumber and half canvas, which can hold 10,000 persons or more. It was erected at a cost of $11,000 and is paid for. I understand. A large audience was present. Speeches were made by the governor and the mayor of the city, all complimentary to the procession. Mr. Josiah Hughes paid a great compliment to our choir, and spoke of the warm reception given to the Duke of Veldon last year and of the generous visit of the choir this year, which gave importance to the movement and helped greatly to make this year's gathering possible.

Professor Apendoe called upon the whole audience to sing America, which was rendered enthusiastically.

The first session was between the Knights of Pythias band of Salt Lake, Anton Pedersen conductor, and the Colorado State band, both excellent organ solos and high class musicians; how the judges will decide is not as yet known; my mind is made up, but I am too modest to confess it.

This was followed by six soloists, ladies, who possessed charming voices; one of the six being a colored lady.

Four male quartets also went through the service but of singing before adjudicators. One of the four was possibly, but I must draw the curtain of charity over the rest. Good quartets are very rare, but especially so in Denver, if the competing ones are a fair sample of the ones on hand.

The Tabernacle choir were called upon and rendered the Soldiers' chorus, which brought out an enthusiastic encore. The children responded with Voice of Doctor. Professor Apendoe in a felicitous speech referred to the choir as the children of Israel, and said many pleasant words.

Prizes were awarded for literary compositions by Henry M. Edwards, member of congress. This took up the afternoon session. Excepting the choir there were nearly 2,000 persons present.

The weather is hot here, but not unbearably so. Our Utah visitors are having a good time, and upon reporting home I will be in every case they note a city kissed and well provided for.

THE MURDEROUS BURGLAR.

The Bullet Which He Fired, Found Yesterday—Officer Johnson's Condition.

A revolver which is supposed to be identical weapon used by Officer Johnson's assailant, was found yesterday lying in the entrance of the Masonic hall building on the corner of Second South and West Temple streets. The weapon is a large 44-caliber and had an empty shell in one of its chambers. The fact of the burglar's having thrown away his firearm, makes the officers believe that he is a professional at the business and "no sheep cop," as Detective Steele puts it. "You can go to betting," says Steele, "that that fellow is no petit larceny, but a thief that goes in for big game. Money is what he wants and if he can't get the dough, he won't have nothing else." Officer Johnson is getting along nicely and gives every indication of being about in a few days. The only thing that has to be guarded against now is infection, and if that does not set in, the plucky patrolman will "pull through," none the worse for his thrilling experience.

Arrested and Set at Liberty.

Edward Hoffman, a lodger at the Metropolitan hotel, was arrested early this morning on suspicion of being connected with a thieving gang, but was afterwards set at liberty without being taken into court. The cause of Hoffman's arrest appears to be in the fact that on Monday night he came home at the hotel was robbed of drafts amounting to $1,000, and later the drafts were found on the doorway leading to Hoffman's room. Developments, however, proved to the officers that Hoffman was as innocent as a lamb and he was allowed to go. The man did not take very kindly to his arrest and felt that he had been somewhat imposed upon.

MUNICIPAL REPUDIATION.

A Tax-Payer Who Asks a Very Pertinent Question Regarding Discounted Water Scrip.

To the Editor:

The hard times are responsible for much dishonesty; but no stress of circumstances is an excuse for acts of bad faith in the dealing of officials with the people they represent. Such an act is the recent resolution of the City Council, providing that taxpayers who pay their water tax "in money" shall get their water rates at five per cent less than those who pay in water scrip. After issuing a mixed lean from its citizens by waterworks by giving non-interest bearing scrip for cash and making it only redeemable in water rates—after compelling the citizens to carry this scrip for years without interest, to now make them pay five per cent more for their water rates than those who pay "in money" is a piece of business that in the business world would be called "rascality." When is this jugling with city finances to cease? Have not the people come to a pretty pass when the city dishonors its own paper by receiving it at five per cent discount on the very account for which it was issued? TAXPAYER.

NOT A SICK DAY

For Over Thirty Years!

RESULT OF USING

AYER'S PILLS

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills for over thirty years have kept me in good health, never having had a sick day in all the time. Before I was twenty I suffered almost continually—as a result of constipation—from dyspepsia, sick headache, neuralgia, or bile and other sympto diseases. When I became subject that nine-tenths of my troubles were caused by constipation. I began the use of Ayer's Pills, with the most satisfactory results, never having a single attack that did not readily yield to the remedy. My wife, who has been invalid for years, also begins to use Ayer's Pills, and her health is rapidly improved. With my children I find that they nearly all their sickness was preceded by constipation, and I now find the pleasure of knowing that my children as well parents, Ayer's Pills, if taken in season, ward off danger of sickness."
