LOSS OF SHRINKAGE IN MEATS.

Very few people know that the Shrinkage of Meats roasted in a close oven is from thirty-five to forty per cent. All fowls contain seventy-five per cent. of water and only twenty-five per cent. of solid matter, and the loss that is made in the cooking is made in the evaporation of the water, which is the VITAL PART OF MEAT.

Effect of the SOLID OVEN Door.

A TEN pound turkey, medium or well done, will be reduced to six pounds and four ounces of Roasted meat, showing a loss of three pounds and twelve ounces of juice. Now the loss is 37½ per cent. of the total weight, it shows the enormous LOSS OF FIFTY PER CENT. OF THE JUICE.

Effect of WIRE GAUZE OVEN DOOR

A TEN pound turkey, medium or well done, will be reduced to nine pounds and eight ounces of Roasted meat, showing a loss of eight ounces of juice. While the loss is five per cent. of the total weight, it shows the very small LOSS OF BUT SEVEN PER CENT. OF JUICE.

BURNED TO DEATH.

The Wife of a Canadian Farmer and Seven Children Lost in the Flames.

THE BODIES PRESENT A SHOCKING SPECTACLE.

The War In Dahomey.—Frightful Condition of Prisoners in Kansas City.

By Telegraph to the News.

THE FAMILY GONE.

A Canadian Farmer's Wife and Seven Children Burned to Death.

MONTREAL, March 9.—Mrs. Gesaine Collerette, wife of a wealthy Canadian farmer, and her seven children were burned to death in their home at Cote St. Mitchell. The family lived in a large stone house. At an early hour this morning the building took fire and before assistance could be given it burned to the ground. Collerette had left the house to attend to work about the farm and on returning found the place in flames. He tried to rescue his family but was overcome and fainted. He is terribly burned. The fire was caused by the explosion of a can of kerosene oil.

Later.—As soon as Collerette saw the flames he rushed toward the house. At the door he was met by a burst of flames. Then he ran to the rear. Only smoke was coming out of this door, and into it Collerette dashed. He got as far as the door of the sleeping apartment, but here was a solid wall of flames. The floor was burning beneath his feet, the ceiling was burning over his head, and the four walls of the room in which he was were BURNING FIERCELY.

To get to the stairway leading to the upper floor was utterly impossible, unless he dashed into a seething caldron of fire, wherein he had lost seen his wife. He could see the bed, but it was a mass of flame and empty. He felt himself being overcome by the smoke and heat, and seeing to go mad, as he explains it, and not knowing what he did, he made a rush for the door through which he had entered. It was afire, but Collerette got through and out in the air. All his clothes were burned off. A dozen people arrived on the scene within five minutes after the explosion took place, but even then it was impossible to approach within twenty-five feet of the building. The ground around it seemed to be ablaze, and the men who dragged Collerette out of further danger were badly singed. The bodies of the victims were all charred, and of that of Mrs. Collerette only the trunk was found.

The War in Dahomey.

PARIS, March 9.—Advices from M. Bahol, the French agent on the West Coast of Africa, dated yesterday, are to the effect that the situation in Dahomey is unchanged. The republican papers approve Etienne's proposal of vigorous measures against the king and people of Dahomey, but are opposed to carrying the war into the interior.

Too True.

KANSAS CITY, March 9.—The charges made by Alderman Ford concerning the frightful condition of prisoners confined in the workhouse are found to be true. Two reporters of the Times investigated the matter yesterday and found about seventy-five male prisoners crowded into narrow and filthy cells, reeking with vermin and not provided with sanitary regulations. The men are constantly manacled with shackels weighing from five to twenty-three pounds, and are therefore prevented from bathing.

For these seventy-five prisoners there are but two guards. The guards say that on account of the desperate character of the men, it is necessary to shackle them to prevent their escape. It is thought likely that a new brick prison will be erected, provided with proper sanitary regulations and a sufficient number of guards to do away with the shackles.

Wool.

COLUMBUS, O., March 9.—President Harpston, of the Ohio Wool Growers' Association, has issued a lengthy address to the wool growers of the State and nation, in which he says that there has been no time in thirty years when the farmers have suffered so much from low prices of farm produce as now.

The University Boat Race.

LONDON, March 9.—Betting on the university boat race, to occur on March 29th, now stands 11 to 10 on Oxford, in consequence of the wonderful improvement in the practice of the Cambridge.

Hebrew Convention.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—A convention of the order of Kesher Shel Barzel, or Cron Knot, one of the leading Jewish societies in the country, began today, with a full attendance of delegates. The order, which has a membership of 15,000, meets once in six years.

Alleged Newspaper Libel.

LONDON, March 9.—Parnell will prosecute the Exeter Gazette for reprinting the Times' articles on "Parnellism and Crime."

Texas Government.

ST. LOUIS, March 9.—The Republic's San Antonio, Texas, special: There is a curious and anomalous condition of public affairs in Hidalgo county. A factional war is constantly in progress there, and it has happened often within the past few years that the county has practically been without executive, judicial and clerical officers. Yesterday a self-constituted commissioners' court convened at Evesburg and declared vacancies in the offices of county clerk, sheriff and tax collector. A frontiersman was immediately appointed sheriff, and R. A. Marsh county clerk, and there will be serious trouble and probably bloodshed.

Stabbed.

NEW YORK, March 9.—A man is lying in St. Vincent's hospital, suffering from a severe stab in the side. He is believed to be a desperate pickpocket and ex-convict, known as "Dutch Alonzo," and the man who stabbed him is supposed to be the notorious Tom McCormick, bank burglar and murderer of Big John Casey, also a bank burglar. The wounded man said his wife stabbed him during a domestic quarrel. It was found on investigation that no such person lived at the house named and no such incident occurred. When the supposed assailant was arrested and taken to the hospital the wounded man denied that he stabbed him, and McCormick was discharged.

Taulbee May Die.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The condition of ex-Congressman Taulbee is worse tonight and death may come before morning.

The King of Portugal Ill.

LONDON, March 9.—It is reported that the King of Portugal is again dangerously ill.

The Wilkesbarre Mine Fire.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 9.—For the first time since the fire began smoke ceased issuing from the South Wilkesbarre shaft this afternoon. Over a thousand gallons of water a minute have been poured into the mine for several days, and it has now reached the fire. By Tuesday next it is thought the flames will be extinguished, and further search will be made for the eight men who were in the mine when the fire broke out.

From Berlin.

BERLIN, March 8.—The government has decided to open the business of the Reichstag with projects prepared by the Council of State, the most of which will be bills regulating the work of Sunday and restricting the hours of labor of women and children. The more complex measures relating to the hours of male adults and miners' work will be reserved until the autumn session. A bill will also be presented aiming to control strikes, and an anti-anarchist measure, designed to replace the anti-socialist.

It is impossible to foresee how the heterogeneous elements of the Reichstag will group themselves upon the government's proposals. The official opinion is that the projects of the Council of State will be quietly discussed and accepted, and the army credits and the anti-anarchist law will test the position of the government toward the majority.

$20,000 Short.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., March 8.—The committee to investigate the affairs of the State Treasurer have finished counting the cash and found it $10,000 short. They express an opinion that an examination of the books and papers will increase his to over $20,000.

In the Swim.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 8.—George W. Gregory and John R. Ewing were arrested this afternoon for robbing the Wells-Fargo box on the Oakland boat a couple of months ago. They have confessed a plot for an extensive system of robberies. Gregory was formerly messenger for Wells-Fargo, but resigned in December, after securing a key which would unlock the treasure boxes and another for express cars. He took Ewing into partnership and on January 5th they robbed the cars on the Oakland ferry boat between here and Oakland. Gregory had also learned the combinations of the safes in many country offices and they next tried to rob several of those. Unfortunately for the schemers, the combinations were changed after Gregory resigned. Then they planned to hold up an express messenger on the overland train, but while hesitating, through lack of courage, were nabbed by detectives.

A Question of Rates.

KANSAS CITY, March 8.—The Trans-Missouri Passenger Association authorized today all roads interested to make a $10 rate between Kansas City and Colorado points. The Rock Island has already posted a notice the new rate to be effective Monday. It is expected the Santa Fe, Union Pacific and Burlington will announce a new rate tomorrow, to be effective in three days.

Spotted Fever.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 8.—There is great excitement in the vicinity of Fountain Head, Sumner County, this State, over the appearance of spotted fever. In all there have been seven deaths, and there are several new cases. Those who take it live only a very short time.

In the Earth's Bowels.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 8.—The fate of the eight men entombed in the Wilkesbarre shaft five days ago is not sealed far good yet. The workmen engaged in laying a pipe from the Stanton mine to the Hillman mine were startled this evening by a loud knocking on the main water pipe, which runs through all three mines. There is good reason to believe now that the men are still alive. Redoubled efforts will be made to find them.

Hitting the Cattle Men.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan., March 8.—Immediately after the issuance of the President's proclamation ordering the entlemen to remove their herds from the Cherokee strip they began to negotiate for leases on several Indian reservations in the Territory, and some have consummated such leases. All were greatly excited today by the receipt of a notice from the Indian agent that Commissioner Morgan had instructed him to allow no such arrangements to be made by any entlemen or others to treat with the Indians for lands for grazing purposes or not to allow cattle on the reservation.

Apache Murderers Caught.

GLOBE, Arizona, March 8.—The five renegade Apaches who murdered George Herbert, a freighter, a week ago, were overtaken yesterday on Salt River, thirty miles north of Globe, by a detachment of troops under command of Lieutenant Watson. The troops had a sharp fight with the Indians, resulting in the killing of two renegades and the capture of the other three, one of whom was wounded. The troops had traveled over three hundred miles of the roughest country in the Territory and in the skirmish with the Indians escaped without a scratch. The killed were buried where they fell and the prisoners brought here today. They will be turned over to the authorities of Graham County for trial.

Eighteen Years' Imprisonment.

CINCINNATI, March 8.—At Lebanon, Ohio, today, Al Graham, former auditor of Warren County, was sentenced on a plea of guilty to an indictment charging him with embezzling the funds of the county to the amount of $33,211. The court sentenced him to the penitentiary for eighteen years, and to pay a fine of $126,422.

Those League Books.

CHICAGO, March 8.—Michael Corcoran of Lincoln, Nebraska, has written a letter to the Inter-Ocean and explains why the books and checks of the Irish Land League were not produced before the Times-Parnell Commission in London. Corcoran says Patrick Egan left these papers with him in the Hibernian Bank, Dublin, January 18, 1883. Subsequently Egan left for America and it seemed best to him (Corcoran) to have the books and checks burned, though Egan in a note had assured him there was no treason in them. Corcoran says it was his own thought to burn them, without a suggestion from anybody else, and if it were a fault, it was his alone.

Here is the Denial.

MINNEAPOLIS, March 8.—Captain Tidd, government timber inspector for the Indians, returned today from a trip to the Red Lake and White Earth Indian agencies. He says the reports circulated about destitution among the Indians on the reservation are false.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

A Brother of Secretary Blaine Gets a Quarantine Appointment.

A SISTER OF CHARITY MURDERED IN RUSSIA.

An American Swindler Imprisoned.—"Buffalo Bill" Hissed in Italy.

By Telegraph to the News

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Executive Session "Leaks."—Knocking the Money Lenders.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Senator Dolph's committee tomorrow resumes the interrogation of each of the members of the Senate respecting their connection with executive session "leaks" in the past, and the report of their discoveries may precipitate a discussion similar to that of last week. So much time was taken up with that discussion that the Blair educational bill was not disposed of, and it still heads the calendar as unfinished business. A general feeling exists in favor of closing the debate this week and taking a vote on the bill if possible.

The report of the committee on privileges and elections on the Montana case is likely to be made this week, but the debate that must ensue will not begin until the Blair bill is out of the way.

The Urgent Deficiency Appropriation bill will be reported from the Committee on Appropriations this week.

STANFORD WILL OFFER

a resolution tomorrow instructing the finance committee to investigate the report upon the expediency and desirability of the government loaning money upon real estate mortgages at a nominal rate of interest, one or two per cent per annum, retaining the right to call in a certain proportion of the loans when occasion demands.

In the morning hours the Oklahoma Townsite bill may be considered, and further progress made in the disposition of public building bills and private bills upon the calendar.

IN THE HOUSE.

The work in the House this week will probably be devoted principally to adding new stars to the national flag. The Oklahoma bill will be taken up Tuesday and passed upon finally, as far as the House is concerned. Then, according to notice already given, the Territories Committee will present for consideration the bill to admit Wyoming, and this will be followed by the Idaho bill, if any time remains.

ROBERT G. BLAINE, brother of Secretary Blaine, who for some time has held an office in the Department of Agriculture, has been appointed, by Secretary Rusk, Superintendent of Quarantine Stations, under the Bureau of Animal Industry.

Buffalo Bill Hissed.

ROME, March 9.—Col. Cody recently offered a large sum of money to any one who should succeed in riding his wild horses. Some peasants accomplished the task yesterday, but Cody refused to pay the promised reward on the ground that they were too long in mounting. The spectators hissed.

Decorated.

BERLIN, March 9.—To mark the anniversary of the death of the grandfather of the Emperor, William I, the Emperor today sent Von Boettlicher, minister of the Interior, a decoration of the order of the Black Eagle. Accompanying the decoration was a letter written by the Emperor, in which he associates the honor with the memory of the late Emperor, to whom he refers as the pioneer of social reforms by the government, which, he says, he is resolved to pursue with all persistence. In his efforts to carry out the desired reforms the Emperor says he found Von Boettlicher his main supporter. The incident is much remarked in connection with the rumors that Von Boettlicher will succeed Bismarck.

Postoffice Robbery.

GREENVILLE, Texas, March 8.—The postoffice of this place was robbed of several thousand dollars Friday night.

Who Would Pity Him?

LINDSAY, Ont., March 9.—John A. Barron, member of Parliament for North Victoria, today administered a severe beating with a stick to a married man named Raymond, who, it is alleged, committed an indecent assault on the little daughter of Barron. Raymond has disappeared.

The Burchell Case.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., March 9.—Government Detective Murray, in speaking of Burchell in an interview today, says he has the strongest case of circumstantial evidence he ever had, and when presented it will be impossible for him to escape the clutches of the law. This is not the first, second or third young Englishman lured to this country by him, he says, and before the case is finished the fate of all will be cleared up. Within the past three or four years two other bodies were found in the vicinity of Blenheim swamp, and neither identity nor manner of death was established; then there was young Pickthall. All these are recalled now, and the events of the Benwell murder give them new significance. It is impossible to describe the feeling of horror that pervades the community which has been the scene of the incidents connected with the awful crime. Developments have sprung up so thick and fast that every one is constantly on tip-toe of expectancy. The opinion is general that Mrs. Burchell is innocent of any complicity in the crime. Her forlorn condition has excited sympathy. If she is guilty, they argue, it is only of shielding her husband for a crime of which she knew nothing until after it was committed.

Murder of a Sister of Charity.

MOSCOW, March 9.—Tremendous excitement prevails here over the horrible murder of a sister of charity named Hulotsky, a woman well known for her many charitable deeds. Her body was found cut into small pieces in a sack. From some evidence, which the police will not disclose, the murder was put upon a young medical student named Belsonoff, who was arrested in the province of Vladimir and immediately committed suicide.

Don't Want It.

NEW YORK, March 9.—The attention of ex-Secretary of the Navy Whitney was called today to a paragraph in the San Francisco Examiner, stating that he would be the democratic candidate for the Presidency in 1892. After reading the article Whitney said:

"I do not know what led to its publication. I am not a candidate for President and can only repeat what I said in a letter some months ago, that I will not be a candidate under any circumstances."

Mrs. Flack Disappears.

NEW YORK, March 9.—Mrs. Flack disappeared yesterday after a conference at the district attorney's as to what her testimony was to be tomorrow in the trial of Sheriff Flack for criminal action in procuring a fraudulent divorce from her. Detectives were sent out today and found Mrs. Flack at the house of a close friend of the sheriff. They took her away and are keeping her at a hotel. She says she will not give evidence against Flack nor prosecute him any further. He has promised to give her $30 a week for support.

Elections in France.

PARIS, March 9.—Elections were held in a number of districts today for members of the Chamber of Deputies. In the first district of Toulouse, Leygue, radical and socialist, was elected. In the second district another ballot will be necessary. Lorenzin, who was unseated for Gien, is re-elected, receiving 7033, against 7224 for Portalis.

The Dakota Sufferers.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Clara Barton, president of the American National Association of the Red Cross, has been investigating the statements concerning suffering and destitution among the pioneer settlers of North and South Dakota, with a view to aiding those who need help. She ascertains that there is urgent necessity for immediate action, and now appeals to the public for cash subscriptions large enough to meet every emergency. She has information that there are at least 5000 people dependent, and many more who, though they have provisions for themselves, need feed for their stock. H. T. Helgesen, State Commissioner of Agriculture, Grand Forks, will distribute all funds sent to his address.

Delagoa Bay Railway.

LONDON, March 9.—The Standard's Lisbon correspondent says: Magare, director of the Delagoa Bay railway, who has been here ten days trying to effect a settlement of the railway trouble, has satisfied himself that Portugal is determined, at whatever cost or hazard, to keep the railway and its lands and exclude England entirely from Mozambique. The company claims $750,000. America's claim on behalf of the estate is $750,000. In view of Portugal's deliberate attempt at forcible confiscation, England and America will insist upon ample compensation for their outraged citizens.

A Mausoleum Dedicated.

BERLIN, March 9.—The imperial mausoleum at Charlottenburg was dedicated today. The route to the tomb was lined with sightseers, who respectfully uncovered their heads as the imperial party passed. The services were of an impressive character. Prince Bismarck was absent. Before returning to the palace the Emperor and members of the family placed wreaths upon the coffins of William and Augusta, which were completely hidden from sight by the flowers that were heaped upon them.

Russian Forgers.

NEW YORK, March 9.—The German and Russian socialists say they have succeeded in running down a desperate gang of Russians whose headquarters are in this city. They have been in communication with them and have had them under espionage for weeks and have determined to unmask them today. The socialists in question declare that they have enough evidence to show that the gang is well organized and that it has carried on a number of successful forgeries which until now have baffled detectives.

Doesn't Like Cremation.

PARIS, March 9.—The Archbishop of Paris has ordered his clergy to denounce cremation as a triumph of materialism over spiritualism. M. Renan, in commenting on the pastoral which embodies this command, speaks of it as in perfect conformity with "the Christian doctrine of the resurrection of the body," and he sympathizes with its purpose and intent completely. He says that burial is sad enough, and that cremation is positively repugnant to the survivors of the family.

Will Take Their Places.

PHILADELPHIA, March 9.—Ames and Prichard, representing the Union Iron Works of San Francisco, will leave here Tuesday for California with fifty iron moulders, who are to take the place of the striking men in their shops. The men are all skilled mechanics.

Fire at Detroit.

DETROIT, March 9.—Gray & Boffy's six-story brick furniture factory, 98, 100 and 102 West Congress Street, the Carroll & Hunt Chair Company's establishment, 104 and 106, the Ostler Printing Company and Carroll's cigar factory, occupying two numbers on the east, burned this evening. The loss is over $250,000, partially insured. The burned buildings were the property of Senator McMillan and valued at $70,000.

Disgraced Himself.

LONDON, March 9.—The New York Journal's correspondent cables: The American colony is grieving over the disgrace and imprisonment yesterday of W. P. Tilghman, who hails from Baltimore and comes of an old and honorable English family. He is also a connection of the Secretary of the Interior Department, and began life as a lawyer. President Cleveland appointed him one of the thirteen consular clerks, and he was detailed first to Berlin and next to Rotterdam. At each place he made money by one confidence game or another. He pledged his year's salary with a banker, whom he cheated, and then was arrested and put in prison. Some compromise was effected, and he was let out, and "being removed for cause" from his position, returned to New York to sue a newspaper there for a libel sent from this side. He went to Bristol, where, by a sudden piece of luck, he was employed as a clerk by the new consul, a son of Olive Logan, who was ignorant of his antecedents. He based cards as an attache of the Consulate, and on the credit which he thus inspired he obtained fifty dollars worth of furniture, which he paid for with a large draft on San Francisco, and got some cash in change. When the check was dishonored he fled to Southampton, where he visited the American Consulate and stole some bank checks from Consul Brooks.

He passed merrily on to Brighton, where he met a green youth named Gritten, who, after a brief acquaintance, introduced him at his club, where they obligingly cashed his bogus checks. Next he made a trip to Ghent, where he lost a very short space of time got $100 from the Vice-Consul there.

He next turned up in London, where he stumbled across one of his victims in the street, who quickly called a constable.

Tilghman was arrested and tried at Middlesex sessions and sent to prison for a year. I saw him in prison last night. Altogether his last rounds netted him about $1500. He is a good successor of Ross Raymond, who is now undergoing a term of penal servitude.

The Cherokee Strip.

ST. LOUIS, March 9.—A Wichita, Kansas, special: It is reported that E. B. Roll will head a company of 120 men at Caldwell and leave Monday for a point twenty miles south in the Cherokee strip to locate and commence farming. There are no soldiers to interfere at present, and it is believed that other points along the border may be entered on the same day.

Will Appeal.

SEATTLE, March 9.—The applications of Byron Van Houten vs. the Seattle, Lake shore & Eastern railway, Seattle & Eastern Construction company, and Union Trust company, of New York, to enjoin the first named corporation from building operations, were last evening denied by Judge Steinberger. Van Houten was a subscriber to the original stock of the Seattle, Lake Shore & Eastern Railroad company, and claimed that the S. & E. Construction company was absorbing the S. L. S. & E. railway company, and was seeking to defraud the small stockholders. The defendant corporations, in answer, sought to prove that the Northern Pacific company was back of the whole proceedings for the purpose of killing competition. Van Houten's attorney will appeal.

Suicide of a Kansas Man.

CHICAGO, March 9.—The sixteen-year-old son of ex-mayor Thomas, of Parsons, Kansas, brought a letter to police headquarters this evening, in which the ex-mayor threatened suicide because of a trifling deception on the part of his son. A search was instituted for Mr. Thomas, but he has not been found and it is feared he jumped into the lake. The ex-mayor, who is a nervous man, is separated from his wife, who is at present matron of a municipal institution in Denver. He is employed here as a collector.

Telegraphed from France.

PARIS, March 9.—The government will immediately equip and send out an expedition to maintain its rights to the territory on the slave coasts conceded to France by the King of Dahomey. The grant was made by treaty in 1868, and renewed and confirmed by another treaty in 1878. The King of Dahomey has recently contested these grants and sought to break the treaties. He posted a force of blacks in a village near Kotonou. It was promptly expelled by the commandant, Terrillon, with a handful of troops from Senegal. Reinforcements have since been landed by French transports, and it is with these that the brave commandant has since successfully repelled the attacks of the army of the King of Dahomey.

THE HON. MARY NETTLEVILLE, sister of the eighth and last Viscount Nettleville, an Irish nobleman, has just died here. She occupied expensive suites of rooms in an aristocratic neighborhood, but was entirely destitute of the necessaries of life. In her sumptuous apartments the most terrible squalor prevailed, and rats and mice had taken complete possession where the unfortunate woman was found dying.

THE PANAMA CANAL.

The commission of engineers who were sent to Panama to report on the state of the canal have returned to Paris with a most disastrous story to tell to Lesseps, who always hoped the result of the report would be of a nature to warrant further appeal. All are obliged to confess that the canal scheme is a disastrous failure. Lesseps is broken down about it. It is sad to compare him, as he appeared today with what he was a year ago. A reporter has been to see him this week. Contrary to the usual custom, he was unwilling to speak of the matter, alleging that the report of the commission had not yet been laid before him.
