SECOND EDITION.

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

Saturday, - - June 11, 1892.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

ARRANGEMENTS were completed today for the annual excursion of the salt folks, to the 25th inst. Papers in the place thereof.

CHARLES & SOLOMON of Main street have just received a large selection of regular stock. Among the list is a charming white cashmere, very pretty, and so on.

THE Quarterly Conference of the Primary Association of Salt Lake Stake will be held on Saturday, June 11 in 18 days, and 2 p.m., at the Assembly Hall. L. C. Lawrence, President.

A REPUBLICAN meeting will be held in the Salt Lake Theatre on Thursday evening next, for the purpose of ratifying the nominations of the Minneapolis convention. See advertisement.

BROTHER GEORGE C. LORENZO, business manager of the DESERET NEWS establishment, returned today from a trip to the East. On the outgoing journey he accompanied the party who received on the train which made the initial trip of the R. G. W. Ry. to Chicago.

The Eleventh Ward Primary Concert.

The Primary concert held last evening will be repeated with some few changes in the first part, on Monday evening, at 8 o'clock, in the Eleventh Ward meeting house.

Public School Exhibit.

A large and most creditable exhibition of the work done in the public schools may now be seen in Calder's Hall, on Market street. The "home" display consists of almost every kind of fancy work and doll dressmaking. In some of it there is evidenced artistic ability of a high order. A number of pieces of home made "physical apparatus" freely and only to the interest taken in those subjects by the teachers, but also to the ingenuity of the boys who made them. Prominent among the street products of the schoolroom are the herbarium and the relief maps. Some of the latter are worthy of a place in the schoolroom, not as the product of a pupil, but as a reference map. Lack of space prevents a detailed notice of the exhibition, but the names of those to whom credit is due for the exhibition of the skill of the young people of our city. The teachers have shown great industry in the arrangement.

Before Judge Zane.

The following matters, among others, have come before Chief Justice Zane today:

The case of Henry Corrigan vs. Salt Lake City was dismissed without prejudice.

In that of the United States vs. Edward Crofts, charged with mailing, the bail was reduced to $1000.

Notice and order for publication of notice was made to disincorporate in the case of The People vs. Parley's Park Scenic Railway company.

In the matter of the Great Salt Lake and Hot Springs Railway company vs. The Oregon Short Line and Utah & Northern Railway company, an application for an order to enter upon premises and construct a road, etc., was argued in Judge Zane's court this afternoon.

In the case of The People vs. Edmund Halliday, charged with admitting poison, Judge Zane made an order for the release of the defendant on his own recognizance.

In the case of Joseph H. Smith vs. Levi H. Cole, the hearing on the report of the referee was continued and the findings of the referee sustained.

The motion to retax costs in the case of Wm. Hardman vs. W. J. Harvey was argued and submitted.

CLOSING EXERCISES

Of the Latter-day Saints' Seminary of the Eighteenth Ward.

The closing exercises of the Latter-day Saints' Seminary of the Eighteenth ward were held in the Independent schoolhouse yesterday, commencing at 11 a. m. The upper hall was profusely decorated with flowers and well filled with parents and friends of the students. The programme was made up of theological and other exercises, songs, solos and recitations, from pupils representing the different departments, also a very appropriate and touching valedictory address by one of the graduates.

Encouraging and satisfactory remarks were made by President Joseph E. Taylor, Bishop O. F. Whitney and Brother Robert Patrick, chairman of the board of education.

The principal's report shows an attendance of 248 pupils for the past year. The following passed successful examinations and graduated with honor: Ray Grant, Bertha Anderson, Bessie Eccleston, Thomas M. Mutford, Austin Whitney, Joseph Patrick, Thorvald Jensen, William D. Eccleston, Albert Jensen and James Forster.

The institution is in a healthy condition, and will open its next academic year under more favorable circumstances than ever before. The services of Brother G. M. Mumford, who, as principal, has given great satisfaction in the position for many years, have been retained for next year, also those of Mrs. Hardy, a very efficient teacher, who will take charge of the preparatory department.

Married on at Elkton, Md., Lieutenant Victor Kilian and Elizabeth Fredrick were made husband and wife by Justice Lloyd L. Wheeler Friday afternoon by authority of a marriage certificate issued that day by the clerk of the county. The license bore the signature of Clerk Geo. E. F. C. Rigdon. Kilian is an Army three years old, and she is two years older. The couple to whom has kept their secret so well, attendant some years was the scene of an injury felled. A year ago the father died, and after waiting twelve months for propriety's sake the eternal knots were married. —Chicago Herald.

A JEKYLL AND HYDE.

The Louise Bandit and Louis Band, mana Theatrical Company's Latest Performance.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE FARMERS' ALLIANCE DEAD.

Joy in England over Blaine's Defeat —Falsen's Force Routed.

By Telegraph to the NEWS.

BANDIT SUES BANDMANN.

The End of Playing "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde."

HELENA, Mt., June 11.—Louise Blanchi has brought suit against Louis Bandmann for half the interest in his extensive ranch and personal property. Bandmann and Miss Blanchi formerly had partnership in a theatrical company of San Francisco, about ten years ago, and took in Australia, Ceylon, India and other countries, the play of "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde." Up in their route they continued the performance through this country, after which Bandmann has come to Montana and bought the cattle business and bought and stocked a ranch near Missoula, Mont. All this time he was playing "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" so successfully off the stage as before the footlights, for half the money in the limit of $50,000 expended in the ranch belonged to the complaintant bandit as her share of the profits of the theatrical business.

The Sentiment in New York.

NEW YORK, June 11.—The nomination of Harrison with Reid for second place on the ticket has created a variety of sentiment and opinion from prominent men of both parties. The general opinion is that the ticket is a strong one, and satisfaction with the result of the convention is freely expressed by bosses men generally, with the exception of a few of the most ardent Blaine sympathizers, who have hardly recovered from the disappointment of their hopes.

President Monti's New Cabinet.

NEW YORK, June 11.—The Herald correspondent at Santiago telegraphs that the convention of President Monti's new cabinet is as follows: Minister of the Interior, Pepe Lorca; foreign affairs, Isidore Errazuriz; finance, Eduardo Lyon; war, Manuel Delano; marine, Vicente Dardis Lorca; war, Rodriguez Rosa.

Three Persons Killed.

ATLANTA, Ga., June 11.—A car jumped the track yesterday afternoon on the Atlanta and Chattanooga River road and went down the embankment. Three persons were killed and several seriously injured.

Reported Defeat of Brazilian Troops.

NEW YORK, June 11.—The Herald correspondent, at Montevideo, Uruguay, telegraphs that advices have been received from the rebellious state of Matto Grosso, Brazil, announcing an utter defeat of the government soldiers sent to quell the uprising. The government troops are reported to have left 1000 men killed upon the battlefield and a larger number of wounded. All the chief officers of the government forces were killed. Cuyaba was entered and sacked by the victors.

Pledging Their Support to Harrison.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—A large number of telegrams from Republican clubs, and other organizations all over the country were received at the White House, pledging President Harrison their support, including the State central committee of California and the Harmony Leagues of San Francisco. Governor Beaver, Penna., says the nomination of Harrison is the best that could be made. He would take the stump for him with much satisfaction, and more confidence of victory than for any other man.

Colonel Polk Dead.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Colonel L. L. Polk, president of the Farmers' Alliance, died at 11:15 this morning.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Colonel Polk was a relative of President Polk and a native of North Carolina, aged 55. He served at one time in the Confederate army, but resigned to enter the State legislature. Later he was State commissioner of agriculture, and still later began the publication of the "Progressive Farmer." At the time of his death he was serving the third term as president of the Farmers' Alliance. Had he survived, he would probably have been nominated for President or vice-president, at the People's party convention soon to be held at Omaha.

Joy Over the Defeat of Blaine.

LONDON, June 11.—The burden of comments of all the evening papers on the renomination of Harrison and the selection of Whitelaw Reid as the Republican candidate for Vice-President is joy over the defeat of Blaine.

World's Fair Matters.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Sub-committee of the World's Fair committee of the House has prepared a substitute bill for that now before the committee, providing for government aid to the Exposition. The substitute proposes that ten million silver subsidiary half dollars be coined from the present subsidiary silver coins now in the treasury to aid in defraying the cost of coinage, providing the work at Chicago. $500,000 are appropriated to reimburse the treasury for the loss on such coinage. Out of the net amount received into the treasury of the exposition so the government is to receive such proportions as the appropriation bears to the whole amount expended. Provision is made for the preparation of 50,000 bronze medals and 50,000 silver impressions for diplomas to be awarded to exhibitors.

Theatre Fire at Denver.

DENVER, June 11.—The People's theatre, owned by ex-Senator Tabor, burned early this morning. Loss $50,000.

Paine's Throne Routed.

NEW YORK, June 11.—The Herald's Costa Rican, Venezuelan Dispatch says a battle was fought yesterday near Caracas between the dictator's troops and the revolutionists, which resulted in a decisive victory for the latter. Palacio's forces were defeated after stubborn resistance, leaving dead and wounded on the field. The revolutionists now marching toward Caracas and panic prevails in the capital.

Now for Want to be Governor.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 11.—The Journal publishes a letter from Albert G. Porter, minister to Rome, declining the nomination for governor.

Protected Innocence.

BAUTHOT, TEX., June 11.—Tobe Cook, a colored rapist and murderer, has been executed. He protected innocence.

BROWN'S SUIT

Withdrawn at His Own Request from the National Committee.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 11.—[Special to the DESERET NEWS.]—The last gun in the test battle for recognition by the Utah factions was fired yesterday, when Cannon moved for a division of the vote adopting the majority report of the committee on credentials. It was promptly seconded by Carter, and so all the Utah delegates were seated with a half a vote each.

In the evening session, Cannon withdrew as national committeeman at Brown's own request, and with the consent of both factions substituted that of O. J. Salisbury. Cannon said if the ayes and nays could have been taken on the vote, the minority report seating Salisbury and Cannon only would have been adopted, but Chairman McKinley seemed committed to the policy of constitution and disallowed even standing vote.

THE NAME OF ARTHUR BROWN

The smoke of the battle having cleared away the straight Republicans came out unscathed while the field was strewn with and Goodwin and Allen severely wounded. More than that, the straights have by their courage, energy and righteousness of their cause secured allies of the greatest political warriors in the party or the nation, and in any possible future conflict will rout the enemy in every engagement.

Overtures for the settlement of the differences have been made by Goodwin, who seems anxious now for white winged peace.

A Strange Story of a Felon.

A story, which, if true, is one of the most sensational on record reaches Paris from the Spanish frontier. A farmer and his wife, living at Prolada, near Figueras, had saved up sixty pounds in order to hire a substitute to serve in the army for their son, who had been called upon to join the colors. The parents accompanied by their boy, set out the village for Cerveta in order to find the substitute, leaving their daughter Dolores to keep house in their absence. Meanwhile a loud bad character named Fonlanes, who lived in the next house to the farmer, overheard the latter and his wife as they were conversing about the object of their proposed visit to Gerona. Hence learned through seven dropping operations the amount of money based and heard the farmer's wife locking it up in a wardrobe.

When the coast was clear of every body but Dolores, Fonlanes, the fate forced with a mask—entered his neighbor's house, closed the door of it securely after him, and going to the kitchen there seized the girl, gagged her and bound her to an iron spit which supported a bank. Standing over Dolores with a knife, the robber made her point to the place where the sixty pounds was secreted. As he was putting the money in his pocket the girl muttered some words which the robber did not hear and that so she recaptured. Into despite his disguise she knew him. She could however, choose the manner of her death, whereupon the girl said she preferred being killed by being butchered with the robber's knife.

The most sensational part of the story is its climax. Fonlanes, in tying the rope when he intended for the sudden, got his sock hopelessly entangled in it and was so fearfully strong up himself. Then there arrived on the scene, like a true hero of romance, the lover of Dolores, who was accompanied by a crowd of villagers and Fonlanes's wife. The robber was released from his perilous position, received his comeuppance and handed over to justice. The curtain fell as Dolores was lifted from the ground by her delivered, while the mother's with were off into a fit of hysterics.—Paris Cor. London Telegraph.

Bismarck's Former Cook the Quickest.

The fastest cooking, authoritatively attested, was done not long ago by Prince Bismarck's former cook, who is now chief cook in a famous restaurant at Berlin. He had made a bet with a traveler guest of the place that he could kill, dress, cook and serve a chicken in six minutes. The exploit was to be performed in the presence of spectators.

At 9 o'clock on the appointed evening the cook appeared with his gas cooking stove on a platform in sight of all in the room. He wrung the chicken around his neck, killed it, dexterously. Depluming the fowl with one blow of a gilt cutting knife, the gastronomic expert within sixty seconds had removed every feather from it. The gas stove was already lighted, with a frying pan in it. The fowl was cut up and put in a pan on the stove, and fried in butter and other ingredients, in some other minute and placed upon the broiler, a hot dish garnished with watercress was at hand and in less just a second of the six minutes when the chicken was served.—Publishing Department.

Pioneers Fought White the Village Burned.

At 3 o'clock in the morning word came from Peoria, Ind., a village of 1,500 inhabitants, that one of the principal business blocks was on fire. Two fire companies were sent from Warsaw but could do nothing with the burning tenement, and it was soon destroyed. Edward Shoup, clerk in a store in the burning block, jumped from the second story window and broke a leg.

When the fire was at its worst a crowd of the veterans of the two companies became involved in a controversy. Each company took the side of the town between and for awhile the fire was forgotten and the companies turned their attention to each other. In the meantime the building was consumed.—Cor. Washington Post.
