President Snow and Party Entertained at Holden and Nephi.

LARGE MEETINGS ARE HELD

Children Greet the President With Flowers and Singing—Entertainment at Nephi.

Special Correspondence.

NEPHI, Friday, May 26.—President Snow's party was met yesterday morning, on approaching Holden, by an escort of horsemen, who welcomed the President into this town. On reaching the meeting house, a beautiful sight met the eyes of the distinguished visitors. Two lines of children extended from the meeting house to the street. The President descended from his carriage, and while he was passing between the lines of children they threw flowers at his feet until they entirely covered the pathway. A string band of young ladies furnished music while the children marched past the President and shook hands with him.

MEETING AT HOLDEN.

The building was crowded when meeting commenced at 10 o'clock.

During his remarks President Snow said: "When we left Salt Lake we did not know that we were passing to visit these southern settlements for, but it was clearly manifested to us at our meeting in Salt Lake. The Lord has sent us here for a special purpose. There is one important command that is given to the Latter-day Saints that has not been observed, it is the law of tithing.

"Jackson county must be built up by the Latter-day Saints and the most glorious temple that this world ever received, where the Lord will talk to His people. You are here not to gain wealth, but to obey Jehovah and prepare ourselves for the kingdom. It is of the highest importance that we are properly educated and prepared to go to Jackson county. Some of the Saints once settled there but because they did not observe the law of consecration, they lost their money ready." President Snow read from Isa. 60 of the Inst. & Cov.: "It is the command of the Lord," continued President Snow, "that we commit the Saints our tithing dollars. It must pay a full tithing, and we will prosper. If you pay your tithing I know I shall have your prayers, the Lord will sustain me and I shall come and see you again."

Apostle Lyman said: "There have been several referendums to the Church and another is necessary now concerning tithing. Through true repentance and honest obedience we shall be redeemed and all remembrance of our past wrongs will be obliterated. Apostle Woodruff addressed especially the young people on the principle of tithing, impressing upon their minds the necessity of obedience to this principle. He spoke also of the Word of Wisdom and advice to the people, this time regarding improvement and beautifying our towns, emphasizing the importance of union in the support around the building house. President Joseph F. Smith then spoke. He said: "We are on the great danger of getting into debt, and in strong language asked the people to get out of debt and to live within their means. He said: "I am pleased at the way in which you are commencing at once and pay an honest tithing. In spite of the hardiness of the Church, explaining how it was corrected. President Smith pleaded with the people to pay a full tithing, which is no more than the command of God, promising them if they perform this duty that Church will be relieved. After meeting the party took lunch and left at 1:30 o'clock for Nephi, fifteen miles distant. The drive was the first pleasant one of the entire journey. The wind was so strong that we were all out of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. We stop our Heavenly Father to spare you long in order the manifested affection of the people over whom you preside.

President Snow and his party, who arrived at 3:30. The President said he had to be the wind but got out of his carriage and shook hands with all the children, much to their delight.

EVENING MEETING.

The evening meeting commenced at 7:30.

During his remarks President Snow thanked the people for the token of respect they had paid his party in the demonstration, they made this afternoon. Reference was made to the importance of punctuality.

"The law of tithing is one of the most important ever revealed to man," said the President. "It was given about 60 years ago. There are certain blessings accompanying the obedience to the law of tithing in the Church, while a penalty will follow disobedience. The penalty following disobedience to the law of tithing is that the disobedient shall not live among the people of God. But through obeying this law the blessings of prosperity and peace will be given unto the Saints. I wish you to pay for me, because I need your prayers so much as I do your money." He said God has the people in this valley."

Bishop Preston, while addressing the Saints, warned them against the results of disobeying the principle of tithing, saying that the disobedient will be severely chastened by the Lord, but windows of heaven will be opened unto the obedient.

Dr. Seymour B. Young referred to the great good that has been accomplished by President Snow's visit among the Saints in the south. President Snow has never gone into debt," said the speaker, "but you will be has to carry the heavy indebtedness of the Church. Now, that he might relieve the Church of its burdens, he asks no more of us than God asked of us 60 years ago. May President Snow live to see the Saints in the south which he has made, and feel if the people observe the law of tithing."

Apostle Woodruff said: "We represent an apostolic doctrine because it is true, and the truth has always been remember. Since the restoration of the Gospel it has brought about a reformation throughout the world. President Snow is one of the few men now living who was acquainted with the Prophet Joseph Smith, and I mean the day when the last one will depart from us.

"It is not to benefit God but to benefit and strengthen us that we are required to pay all tithes. The ambition that is paramount above all others, in my mind, is that I may win souls to Christ and assist in building up the Church of Christ. President Snow is a servant of God, he now carries a heavy load—the indebtedness of the Church, for which he will not responsible. The great responsibility has killed one Prophet. It is my sincere belief that my Father would now be alive if it was not for the great responsibilities which rested upon him. President Snow is in his 85th year; now let us relieve him by obeying the command of the Lord.

He has prophesied to the Saints that he will visit them again if they will pay as honest tithing. If we do not, he heavy load will crush him into the earth."

Elder W. B. Preston called attention to the necessity of revelation, and testified to the blessings accompanying obedience to the law of tithing.

Horace Whitney spoke of the blessings enjoyed by the Saints and the command of the Lord in requiring us to pay our tithes.

President Smith said: "I have confidence in what the Saints speak and pray better, but I have unbounded confidence in a man whom He has always seen always approved." The speaker referred to the great expenses of the Church for which the tithing is used. President Smith bore a testimony to the truth.

Elder Arthur Winter testified that the people would be faithful in paying that pay to the Lord," said the speaker, "should be given liberally for the Church and not anything that we give principally."

Elder L. C. Snow bore his testimony of the Gospel.

The last speaker was Apostle F. M. Lyman. "The law of tithing," he said, "will another test to the faith more than any other principle in the Gospel. The man who will perfect himself in this law will prepare himself for other principles. If we disobey the law we shall surely apostatize from the faith."

ARRIVED IN NEPHI.

President Snow's party left Nephi yesterday morning at 8 o'clock. The weather being favorable and the roads smooth, the drive was an enjoyable one. Juab was reached at the kind invitation of Mrs. Taylor. Departing at 10:30, the President's carriage made remarkable time, arriving near Nephi, thirteen miles, in just one hour. The Nephi reception was taken in hand by the city in a special vehicle to the telegraph office, and the President waited for the arrival of the remainder to come up.

At 2:30 o'clock the President's party was met by a large body of mounted horsemen and the Nephi brass band, and was escorted into the city. President Snow rode into town with the President.

On his arrival in the city the Prophet, his wife and party were greeted by 500 beautiful children, who had gathered to pay reverence to him. As he alighted from his carriage they waved their flags, hats and handkerchiefs. The band furnished music, while all the children sang "Hail to the Chief," our venerable President, and shook his hand. The children were beautifully dressed and presented a pretty picture. The President responded to the greeting.

The members of the party were escorted into the vestry of the Tabernacle where preparations had been made for a feast to their tolls after the long ride. They then entered the main assembly room, which was crowded with children. It was a beautiful sight. After the opening exercises, President Snow arose and said:

"My dear children, I am overwhelmed with emotion because of the grand reception you have given us. I am satisfied that you will accomplish a vast amount of good. If I live, I may visit your ward. I know as well as I know anything that the Lord will bless me and sustain me in my declining years. I have confidence in you that rest upon me. I love the Latter-day Saints. I love you and have my wishes for your temporal and spiritual welfare. Listen to and respect your teachers in the Priesthood and you shall be one great people. Be obedient of God. You have been sent into the world to accomplish great things. Be good, my dear children, and keep your parents happy and you will live to be 100 years. Whoever lives twenty-five years will see many very great things. May the Lord bless you."

PRESENTATION OF FLOWERS.

An elegant bouquet of flowers was presented to the Prophet by Isabella Stuart Snow, daughter of Apostle Miss Louie Weir, leading him the bouquet said:

"I in behalf of my Sunday school class, humbly request you to please accept the small token of affection, which we presented to you. We are taught that the spirit of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. We stay our Heavenly Father to spare you long in order the manifested affection of the people over whom you preside.
