FUNERAL OF S. F. ASH.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Hiram F. Ash, whose sudden death last Saturday morning caused a profound shock to the people of Ogden, were held in the First M. E. Church at 2 o'clock p. m. today and were under the auspices of Fidelity lodge, No. 24, K. of P., of which the deceased was a member. There was a vast outpouring of people, for Mr. Ash was very popular in this city.

OGDEN CITY COUNCIL.

The city council met in special session Saturday night, for the purpose of acting upon the appointments of the chiefs of the police and the fire departments.

Orson Rice, chief of the fire department, submitted the following: Assistant chief, M. J. Hewitt; captain, Alonzo Rogers; electrician, N. T. Moore; hose men, L. Lewis, M. Tobin, E. E. Canfield, H. J. Chapple, E. C. West, F. J. Barton, C. A. Malan. On motion of Councilman Brewer all the appointments were confirmed by unanimous vote.

J. H. Dalrymple, chief of police, submitted the following: Captain, W. H. Whittaker; detective, J. P. Pender; patrolmen, W. J. Dyer, D. A. Murray, Robert Shaw, Ezra Parr, John Pender, night jailer, W. F. Critchlow; day jailer and police court clerk, Bernard Tyrrene.

On motion of Brewer, these nominations were confirmed by a unanimous vote.

Mayor Wattis then named, as the chief of the police force, Mr. Whittaker, who was strongly opposed by Williams and Brewer, on the ground of economy. They did not be considered desirable to have a captain, and furthermore if one was to be appointed he should come from the ranks of the old officers, and no new man should be selected.

Williams moved that the nomination be not confirmed. The motion was lost by a four to four vote. The name was then canvassed, and the others were unanimously confirmed as read.

Jenkins moved that Whittaker be confirmed. The motion was lost by 4 to 4 vote.

A recess was taken, and upon reassembling the chief of police was submitted the name of W. A. Brown as captain of police, and, on motion of Jenkins, Mr. Brown, a son of the late Hon. Francis A. Brown, and for many years a police officer of Ogden, was unanimously confirmed.

A long list of special police without pay was submitted, thirteen in number and on motion of Jenkins these were unanimously confirmed.

Resolutions of respect to the memory of the late Councilman Shirley P. Ash, and of condolence and sympathy toward his bereaved mother, were passed by the council before adjournment.

LOGAN.

Young Charles Olsen Fatally Attacked with Appendicitis—Arbor Day.

Logan, April 7.—Charles Olsen a 20-year-old son of Mr. H. P. Olsen of the Seventh ward, died at 7 o'clock this morning from unfortunate circumstances. He was seized with an attack of appendicitis yesterday afternoon, a doctor was summoned and pronounced an immediate operation necessary, which, however, he could not be performed because of the absence of the boy's father in Salt Lake, the physician not desiring of course to operate without securing the parents' consent. All kinds of efforts were made to locate the father but without avail, and when the physician was called in this afternoon he found that the abscess which formed in the intestines ruptured and the unfortunate young man dying.

A conjoint meeting of the T. L. and T. M. M. I. Associations of this Stake has been arranged to take place on April 16. The entire day will be occupied, and a noon-day outdoor dinner has been arranged for the occasion.

Elder Richard Yeates of the Third ward, returned today from a three years' mission in the States.

Mrs. Andrew Petersen underwent a serious operation today at the hands of Drs. Grimsly and Grimsly.

The Democrats of this city have decided to have a Thomas Jefferson Jackson celebration some time this month. At a meeting held in the court house last night, a committee consisting of J. M. Blair, J. F. Marshall and Wm. Edwards, was appointed to arrange the preliminaries.

In the district court today, Eli J. Bell filed a petition for letters of administration of the estate of Eli Bell, deceased.

ARBOR DAY CELEBRATION.

The city council is working industriously to have Arbor day properly observed here this year. At the last meeting a committee was appointed to take the matter in charge, and it has introduced the business men to clean their establishments until 1 p. m. on that day in order that all the people may come out and participate in the programme ceremonies which will be held in the cemetery. The city has also agreed to furnish trees to all who desire to plant them in the cemetery.

Funeral of Mrs. Barbara Crockett Lewis—School Courts Taken.

Special Correspondence.

Logan, April 8.—The funeral of Sister Barbara Crockett Lewis, wife of Bishop Lewis, of the First ward, was held at noon today, in the tabernacle, and was marked by a very large attendance, being the largest gathering of the kind here in many years. The services were very impressive. A sextette, consisting of Messrs. Frank Daisch and A. M. Clayton, Miss Cornie Thatcher, Mrs. Lucy Mortensen, Mrs. Nellie Sloan and Mrs. Kate Thomas, and led by Prof. G. W. Thatcher, jr., furnished music suitable and inspiring music for the occasion. The speakers were Elders A. O. Barber, Jos. F. Cardle, C. Ormsby and Bishops Thomas N. Smith and Henry Ballard. All testified to the womanly worth of Sister Lewis, who spoke in the highest terms of her faithfulness and integrity as a Latter-day Saint. A large cortege followed the remains to the cemetery.

The city board of education held a meeting last night, and among other things appointed the following school census commentators: First ward, N. P. Nielsen; Second ward, Mrs. Louisa Lawson; Third ward, Miss Emma Kerr; Fourth ward, Mark Fletcher; Fifth ward, J. L. Mair.

Bids for the purchase of half the old Lindquist fair were opened. There were two, one from Thomas Morgan, and the other from Geo. O. Hatch, both of whom offered $25 for the land. Both were rejected as too low.

GLENDALE.

A Correction—Views the Writings of Abraham and Joseph.

Special Correspondence.

Glendale, April 7.—I wish to correct an item or two in your special correspondent's communication from this place, published in your issue of April 2, with regard to myself. He states that I first saw Joseph the Prophet at Nauvoo in May, 1837. He should have said that Richard L. Ballard first arrived in Kirtland on the 13th day of May, 1837. We went from our home in Greenwood, Rensselaer county, N. Y. My two brothers and two of our neighbors, who were going to Michigan, being delayed in their journey, joined us at the Temple, stopped off the steamboat at Fairport, Lake Erie, and accompanied us to Kirtland, my father, who had been to Kirtland during the summer of 1836, had become acquainted with Joseph, and introduced us to him at his house. He received us very cordially. After a short interview with him, his father, Joseph Smith, Sen., went with us to the Temple and exhibited to us the four Egyptian Mummies, and the record found with them, which was written on papyrus. He said the records were the writings of Abraham and Joseph the seer of Israel, and those portions written in red characters were pertaining to the Priesthood. The calves were in the room, though they were recently written, instead of about 2,000 years ago.

I went on the Mulder mission in May, 1865, not in 1868, as stated by your correspondent.

WARRAN FOOTE.

THURBER.

A Chapter of Accidents—Flying Irrigating Waters.

Special Correspondence.

Thurber, April 7.—Dee Taft (son of Seth), was thrown from a horse and kicked in the mouth, receiving a painful, though not a serious wound.

Tom Dobson accidentally got a log fast on him at the saw mill, and is now going about on crutches.

Royal Brunkerhoff, ten years of age, was thrown from a horse a week ago and severely injured the right shoulder. He has been taken to Salt Lake for treatment.

James Smith, of Grant, Smith & Co., refused a liberal offer the other day for his interest in the business. It will take a great deal more money, be sure, to buy him out of that mine.

There is talk of a ball in Thurber with an outdoor water right, for it will save sun-up.

John C. Jones is preparing to plant in another period of mountain water to irrigate the town lots. He contends there is water enough to irrigate a lot, in the highest part of the town to serve as an ice pond and skating rink.

RICHFIELD.

Death of Banker James H. Peterson—An Active Victim of Typhoid.

Special per Deseret Telegraph.

Richfield, Sevier County, April 10.—Banker James H. Peterson, one of the most active and highly respected citizens of central and southern Utah, died at his home here yesterday at a complication of diseases. He first had organic disease of the heart and kidneys, this was followed by typhoid fever, and another short time before he passed away internal hemorrhage set in and caused his death.

Deceased had been in public career as a surveyor when a young man, and subsequently became interested in the mercantile business with which he established the J. M. Peterson bank in this city, which was the predecessor of being one of the safest institutions of its kind in the State. Among the other enterprises with which deceased was connected are the J. M. Peterson Mercantile house of this city, the First National bank of Nephi and the Nephi Commercial and Savings bank of Salt Lake City, of which he was one of the founders.

Deceased was 49 years old and leaves a wife and two children. His funeral will take place at the family residence at 2 o'clock Tuesday.

The thirteen-year-old son of Peter Brown, of this city died of typhoid fever yesterday morning at 9 o'clock.

KANOSH.

Alma Gardner Heard From—Now in Belmont, Nevada.

Special Correspondence.

Kanosh, Millard Co., April 2.—News has been received here from Mr. Gregory of Snake valley, that the sheriff of Belmont, Nev., had written him that on the 26th of last month a man who said his name was Alma Gardner, desired to be seared in jail for stealing a gun from Mr. Gregory's ranch, and that the demented sheep-herder who started out six days before, and who had made some 'a hundred miles in that time. Those who have so hastily suggested foul play with Alma may be surprised at the news that in cowardliness it is the little rascal cupid (who has previously played some pranks with this city) who has shot the lad in the head. A subscription was immediately taken up upon receipt of the news, and seventy-five dollars was collected to pay expenses of two men, Antoney Paxton Jr. and Oscar Anderson, to receive here tomorrow morning and bring down our unfortunate citizen and bring him home. We hope to find him in good condition. The Belmont newspaper says that Alma's story was told to obtain food and lodging, and therefore would not take him in, but as Gardner had been on hand, the sister (?) gun the sheriff notified Mr. Gregory.

SANDY.

Sudden Death of John Potter, of Paralysis

Special Correspondence.

Sandy, April 10.—John Potter, an old and respected resident of this place, died very suddenly this morning at 10 minutes to 8 o'clock. He was in apparent good health yesterday and took his son-in-law's supper up to the sweetheart of his daughter, Miss Lizzie, yesterday then he has felt for years although he has not been well for a number of years. He went to bed last night about 9 o'clock and in a short time he got up all of a sudden and commenced groaning in the most terrible way, and
