POLITICS OF THE DAY.

New York Differences Adjusted—Letters from Hancock and English—Indiana Struggle—State Conventions, Nominations, Etc.

CHICAGO, 2.—The Tribune's special from South Bend says: The first of the joint debates between A. G. Porter, republican candidate for Governor of Indiana, and Franklin Landers, his democratic opponent, here to-day, suffered in the matter of crowd in consequence of rain deluging the country for miles around. Undeterred by the rain and mud, however, from 2,000 to 2,500 of both parties gathered around the stand in the court house yard from which the orators spoke. Everything in the way of preliminary demonstration was dispensed with, the meeting assembling without the aid of procession or brass band. The only decorations was a Garfield and Arthur banner flying from the Club headquarters, near by, and another bearing the names of the democratic nominees stretched across the street from the court house to the hotel. Dr. L. J. Ham, Mayor of South Bend, introduced Mr. Landers, who in an hour's speech, proceeded to the arraignment of the republican party, State and National. When he had concluded Hon. Lucius Hubbard, presented Mr. Porter in a brief speech, and he in a speech of an hour and a half's duration, discussed the issues between the republicans and the democratic parties in Indiana and the United States. According to arrangement Mr. Landers closed the agument in half an hour's speech. Both speakers were frequently interrupted by applause, which was about equally divided as the crowd seemed to be.

Albany, 2.—At the democratic barbacue here yesterday the following letters were read:

GOVERNOR'S ISLAND, N. Y. Harbor.

F. M. Dawcher, Chairman:

Dear Sir—I am compelled by engagements to deny myself the pleasure of accepting your invitation to a political barbacue of the Nolan Association, Albany, on the 1st of September. I regret my inability to be present. The occasion will, I am sure, be of great importance and will furnish an illustration of the deep and active interest which the people feel in the cause we have at heart. Thanking you for your letter of the 20th inst., I am yours truly,

WINFIELD S. HANCOK.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 2.

F. M. Dawcher:

Dear Sir—It would afford me pleasure to accept your kind invitation to attend the political barbacue given by the Nolan Campaign Association on the 1st of September, but circumstances would hardly admit of my leaving this post of danger at that time and so I am reluctantly compelled to decline the invitation. We are counting confidently upon the vote of the great Empire State for Hancock and English, and we will see that our vote is cast for the same ticket.

Very respectfully,
WM. H. ENGLISH.

New York, 2.—The democracy of the city, through a committee from its two leading organizations, met this afternoon to settle the division of congressional districts so as to more thoroughly unite the democrats to vote in New York at the ensuing election for Congressmen. The sub-committees on either side held a joint conference, and after deliberation, reported that Tammany Hall should first select two districts, then Irving Hall, and the remaining three should be drawn for, with the understanding that whichever drew the Eighth district should also take the Eleventh district. This plan being agreed upon, Tammany Hall selected the Sixth and Ninth districts, represented by S. S. Cox and Fernando Wood. Irving Hall selected the Fifth and Tenth districts, represented by Nicholas Muller and James O'Brien. The remaining three numbers were put in a hat, when Tammany Hall drew the Seventh, represented by Edwin Einstein. Irving Hall drew the Eighth, represented by McCook, and as by agreement, took the Eleventh, represented by Morton. The conference was harmonious throughout.

Chicago, 2.—The Tribune's Indianapolis special says: Barnum, chairman of the Democratic National Executive Committee, has arrived. He refused to be interviewed, but it was learned indirectly that he intended remaining in Ohio and Indiana for the next 30 days, or until after the October election. It is said, apparently on good authority, that Barnum has no doubt about Indiana as he regards it as merely a matter of organization, effort and money. English has the money, and his methods are in perfect accord with Barnum's policy. Both Barnum and English begin to fear the influence of Hendrick's masterly inactivity and indifference, and the primary object of the former's visit is to ascertain how many are sulking in their tents with Thomas. It is no secret in Indianapolis that the ex-Governor prefers to have Indiana carried by the republicans and his conduct recently has impressed this belief upon the democratic managers, hence Barnum's arrival and intended stay. He will be in Ohio in a few days.

Baltimore, 2.—The democrats of the First district nominated G. W. Covington for Congress.

St. Louis, 2.—Republicans of the Sixth district nominated R. C. McBeth for Congress to-day, and democrats in the Thirteenth district renominated Judge A. Bushner.

Chicago, 2.—Hon. T. S. Mallory by democrats of Seventh district, Iowa. Henry W. Kelly, democrat, First Minnesota district.

Patterson, N. J., 2.—Fifth district republicans nominated John Hill for Congress.

Baltimore, Md., 2.—Sixth district republicans re-nominated Milton G. Miner for Congress.

Macon, Ga., 2.—Third district democrats nominated Gen. Phil Cook for Congress.

Portland, Me., 2.—In an interview to-day Gen. Weaver, Presidential greenback candidate said there is no fusion on the State ticket in Maine. If Gen. Plaisted is elected it will be a solid greenback victory wholly without democratic significance. There was no trade of the electoral ticket with my consent either with the democratic party in Maine or with the republicans in West Virginia.

Lincoln, 2.—The Nebraska Republican Convention adopted resolutions endorsing the national platform, denouncing the seizure of Alabama polls by the democrats as an act surpassing all former errors of the party, congratulating the State on the increase of population and wealth, and pledging support to national or State legislation preventing railroad extortion and discriminating charges.

Des Moines, 2.—The democratic State convention assembled here today, with 88 out of 99 counties represented. Daniel F. Miller was chosen temporary chairman. Resolutions were adopted which endorsed the national platform and nominees of the Cincinnati Convention as giving assurance of a pure and careful administration of national affairs.

Columbia, 2. — The republican State convention met to-day, E. M. M. Mackey presiding. All the counties were represented except Horry. After settling contests from Alaufort and Union counties, the convention then went into secret session. The indications are that the State ticket will be nominated. Such appears to be the desire of the colored delegation.

Dover, Del., 2.—In the republican State convention to-day Henry Dupout, D. P. Barnhard and John D. Rodrey were chosen presidential electors, and John W. Honston nominated for Congress.

The Hayes Party.

CHICAGO, 2.—The Presidential party, composing the President and Mrs. Hayes, R. B. Hayes, Jr., Birchard Hayes, with several lady friends, Gen. Sherman and daughter and several others, left here a little after 11 o'clock this morning, over the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy for Omaha, en route for California. The Director's car of the Central Pacific met the party here and was placed at the disposal of President Hayes and family. Two other coaches, a dining car and baggage car, made up the special train which goes through to Omaha, where the party will be transferred to the Union Pacific road at noon on Friday. From Omaha the party goes to Salt Lake, and thence to Sacramento, where the party will attend the State Fair on September 29th and 30th. From there different places of interest on the Pacific Slope will be visited, including a trip to the end of the Southern Pacific Railroad, arriving back at Washington about October 25th. The first stop after leaving here was made at Naperville, Ill., where the President and Gen. Sherman addressed briefly the 105th Illinois Volunteers, holding a re-union there to-day.

Galva, Ill., 2.—At Mendota, President Hayes, in addressing the crowd, briefly alluded to the trips made by Washington and Monroe during their presidential terms over comparatively small areas, yet requiring a vast amount of time. Now the conditions are reversed, and what would have been an appalling journey to the President of 50 years ago is an easily accomplished and swiftly completed trip, the comforts of which are greater than some of us enjoy at home. The contrast shows what this Government is doing and what it is capable of.

Princeton was reached while the party were at dinner, but the shouts of several thousand people brought them to the platform, where a general hand-shaking took place, in which Mrs. Hayes and Gen. Logan (who had joined the party) were called to take part. It is noticeable that in all places where the train stops calls are made for political speeches but none are made. President Hayes, referring to this fact, exclaimed that this was not a political party, that there was an unwritten law that the President was not to make partisan speeches, and that the President, at least, should observe the law faithfully.

Burlington, Ia., 2.—The President and party arrived here at 6 o'clock, on a special train, having made but few and brief stops after leaving Galesburg. There were large and enthusiastic crowds at all the stations.

At Monmouth a special train from Burlington met the Presidential train and accompanied it hither. On the special train was a committee composed about equally of republicans and democrats who bade the excursionists a hearty welcome to Burlington. At the depot here the concourse of people was very great and the city seemed to have taken a holiday in honor of its distinguished guests. As the stay was only twenty minutes the reception was not as elaborate as was desired to give.

Irregular Accounts.

Jackson Landers, ex-county treasurer of Marion, Ind., whose accounts are $4,000 short, is a brother of the State gubernatorial candidate. The case is clear against him.

NEWS FROM THE METROPOLIS.

The Canada Railway—California Commerce—The Brigand—Explosion in Canada, Etc.

NEW YORK, 2.—Canadian advices respecting the Pacific Railroad, states that two syndicates are offering to complete the road for the government, the new company to construct about 2,000 miles, including 645 miles from Lake Nipissing to Thunder Bay, the company to work and maintain the entire road upon completion. It is stated that one offer is for $10,000 in bonds per mile, and 50,000,000 acres of land. It is stated that the Rothschilds at first refused to take a million of the company. Baron Erlaner, the Parisian banker, is said to be a subscriber of a million; the Barings are also said to be largely interested. The Dominion, it would appear, is to guarantee four per cent, on $20,000,000 and to furnish an unmentioned number of millions of acres. The road, we are further told, is to be built throughout from Lake Nipissing to Puget's Sound at once and that a portion of the road already constructed is to be given to the company.

The Times, reviewing the shipping prospects, and particularly the California foreign trade, says: If California farmers get their grain to market they must hold out inducements sufficient to call to their port from 200 to 300 more vessels than visited it last year. It is this fact that has forced up the rates of freight, and is likely to force it up still higher before the opening next year, one though taking into account the probable price of wheat in England, the chances of profit to California farmers are not encouraging, it is reasonable to suppose that scores of American grain carrying ships will during the coming season net handsome profits to their owners.

Taking all circumstances together, our American ship owners would not be greatly out of the way if they anticipate higher freight rates during the next twelve months than in any similar period within the last decade.

Rosario Meli, the Italian brigand, was before United States Commissioner Duel, this afternoon, who remanded the prisoner to Ludlow Street Jail, to await the action of the Italian Consul, Commissioner Duel deciding that he had no jurisdiction, as the case had already been decided by a United States Commissioner at San Francisco. Several Italians here declare that Meli is innocent and was kidnapped from California. Extradition papers signed by the President of the United States, are in the hands of the Italian Consul, and Meli will be sent home by an early vessel.

An Ontario dispatch, says: Some Chinamen at work on the Canada Pacific Railway were standing on a rock over a blast when a premature explosion took place. They were hurled into the air. Two had their skulls fractured. The friends of the men seized picks and axes and started to wreak vengeance on the foreman of the gang, a white man, whom they chased for several miles, but he finally escaped.

Rev. D. E. H. Chapin, the well known Universalist pastor, is seriously ill. He is reduced in weight from 220 pounds a few weeks ago to 140 pounds.

Mexican and Apache News.

DENVER, 2.—The Tribune's Santa Fe special says: The latest news from Chihuahua is that Col. Vale has gone south with all the available Mexican troops to intercept the revolutionists and suppress revolution in the State of Durango. Col. Joaquin Terrassas, with 200 mounted volunteers, has taken the field against Victorio's Indians, and the different towns on the border have been called upon to furnish volunteers for the campaign.

The Agreement Signed.

The Tribune's Lake City special says: The Southern Utes signed the agreement to-day, and the question is practically settled. The commission will proceed to the enumeration of the Indians, the payment of money and the location of lands.

Drunken Row.

At Central City, Wm. Hackaday fatally shot Jos. Angove, as a result of a drunken quarrel.

Horrible Homicide.

OMAHA, 2.—A foul murder has just been brought to light in Arapahoe County. Frank A. White, a young man residing 12 miles south of the town of Arapahoe, left on Tuesday morning, under very suspicious circumstances, with a team that was mortgaged to D. M. Tomblin, a banker, who learned during the day that the property was not White's, but was owned by an old man, with whom White was living. Yesterday morning the body of the old man was dug out of a manure pile on his farm. It is supposed the body had been there two days.

Colored Guards.

ST. LOUIS, 2.—The Colored National Guards Convention completed their work to-day. It was decided to have a general reunion every two years instead of annually; the selection of place was left to the decision of the officers of the organization. This morning the troops here had a parade, which attracted a good deal of attention, and to-night a grand reception and ball is being held.

Snug Harbor for Disabled Seamen.

NORFOLK, Va., 2.—The National Board of Steam Navigation to-day adopted resolutions recommending the establishment of National Snug Harbor for worthy seamen and officers who become permanently disabled in the line of duty; also the fostering by Congress of a system of training for navy and mercantile marine.

Grant's Visitor.

GALENA, 2. — Miss Kot Aoki, daughter of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Japan, and Eakhouse, a prominent American resident of Japan, are visitors at the house of Gen. Grant. Miss Aoki is finishing her education at a leading college in this country.
