FULL TEXT OF THE PROPOSITION.

The Bonds to be Delivered in Three Installments of $100,000 Each.

A special school board meeting was held last night for the purpose of considering a proposition to purchase school bonds. President Scott was absent and the chair was occupied by Vice-President Nelson. The members present were Messrs. Baldwin, Dale, Newman, Pratt, Young, Pike and Downey.

To the Board of Education:

THE BID FOR BONDS.

SALT LAKE CITY, January 14, 1892.

To the Honorable Board of Education, Salt Lake City, Utah:

Gentlemen—In the matter of the proposed issue of $300,000 twenty-year 5 per cent. gold bonds of your district, dated July 1, 1891, interest payable semi-annually, both principal and interest payable at some bank in the city of New York, we make you the following proposition:

1—We will take and [illegible] said bonds at par provided you pay us a commission for services in selling said bonds at 2½ per cent. and all interest accrued [illegible] to the date of payment of the same, including the interest coupons due January 1, 1892.

2—That the bonds are to be delivered for payment in the city of Boston, Mass., in installments as follows: $100,000 on February 15, 1892; $100,000 on March 15, 1892; $100,000 on April 15, 1892; we agreeing in case the bonds are not sold [illegible] the dates named for installments [illegible] to advance the payments on [illegible] at the time the commission is [illegible] and advances to be refunded [illegible] from the proceeds of sales when the bonds are sold.

3—The bonds are to be legally and regularly issued, and full papers evidencing the legality thereof, satisfactory to our attorneys, to be furnished us prior to any delivery of bonds.

4—This offer is further conditioned upon an amendment of the present law by the Utah legislature, which will authorize the issuance of the bonds, with semi-annual interest, and authorizing the board to pay a commission for effecting their sale.

If this bid is accepted, we offer to furnish within fifteen days the guarantee of the [illegible] National bank, of Boston, in the amount of $20,000, that this contract will be fully and faithfully performed.

This proposition is conditioned upon acceptance on January 15, 1892.

GEO. A. FERNALD & CO.,
24 Water Street, Boston.
By W. H. DALL, Agent.

FORM OF ACCEPTANCE.

The following form of acceptance accompanied the bid:

Geo. A. Fernald & Co., Boston, Mass.

Gentlemen—We hereby agree to the foregoing proposition for the sale of $300,000 of the bonds of the school district of Salt Lake City, Utah Territory, and agree to deliver said bonds in Boston, Mass., at the dates mentioned above in your proposition, and to pay for your services in effecting sale of said bonds at par the commission of 2½ per cent., and all interest accrued at the delivery thereof as mentioned; provided, that if it is found impossible to deliver the first installment on February 15, as provided, that the delivery shall be made as soon thereafter as possible, not later than March 15, 1892.

BID ACCEPTED.

After a brief discussion Mr. Young offered the following resolution which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Vice-President (the President being absent) and the clerk be and they are hereby authorized to accept in writing on behalf of the board the bid of Fernald & Co. for $300,000, school bonds, said this evening.

On motion of Mr. Baldwin it was decided that the finance committee should have $150,000 of the bonds printed.

An adjournment was then made.

If all the government railroads are counted, as one, there are now but one hundred railroads in the country, for there are in all ninety-nine lines run by private companies.

The following bold head lines appeared in the Helgolas the other day: A Republican form of government instead of a monarchial one; a free church instead of a state church; —this is the final aim of our paper.

A prominent and influential newspaper said the other day: "The minister of public worship ought either to learn the demands of the times better and act accordingly, or resign, or the Riksdag ought to change the laws so that churches can have ministers of their own choice."

A wholesale merchant named Svensson, of Helsingborg, has taken out a patent on a "snug preventer," invented by himself. It consists of an elastic band which is placed around the forehead and the chin for the purpose of keeping the mouth closed during sleep. Snoring is also prevented by the same means.

At a mission-house in Varmland, says The North, a public meeting was called for the purpose of arousing public sentiment in the realization of the necessity of strengthening the defenses of the country. But the result was wholly unexpected. When two officers of the army had spoken, Rev. Sjoelin, the pastor, of the place, also spoke in favor of stronger defenses, upon which a number of laymen would no longer keep quiet but expressed their astonishment at their pastor who always used to preach peace, but now preached fortifications, war, wholesale murder. Being asked if they would not support and defend their fatherland they coolly answered that under the present circumstances they did not see any reason why any one should ask the Swedish people to defend their country.

The crisis seems to be over. The King has been rapidly gaining during the last three days, and Dr. Brunzow, the King's favored physician, gives the best of hope.

It's proposed to provide the boats engaged in the cod fisheries with a petroleum engine powerful enough to propel the boat and haul in the nets, experiments with that end in view having been made by interested fishermen.

A consignment consisting of 3500 barrels of herring, canned goods, etc., was recently shipped from Bergen direct to New York. A large number of parcels and packages intended as presents to friends and relatives in this country went along.

The money market of Christiania is very tight at present. It is thought that the large private banks, four of which have an aggregate capital of about $17,000,000, will have to increase their cash balances by disposing of their marketable securities so as to enable their customers to tide over the difficulty. Every day gilt-edged paper is refused by the banks because they have not got any money to loan. On the contrary, every effort is made by them to draw in as many loans as possible.

At Holsted a young carpenter was arrested on the charge of using blasphemous language against religion, the king and the gendarmes.

On Vilderngade, Copenhagen, a parrot was taught the words "Foolish Hans," which she repeated all day long. This was very annoying to the neighbor Hans Hansen, who time and again asked the owner of the bird to have this stopped. But it did not seem to help. One morning the report of a revolver startled the owner of the bird and his family, and upon investigation Hans Hansen was found with a smoking revolver in his hand and the parrot dead. But this is only the beginning of the fun, for the owner of the bird has instituted a damage suit.

WARD SCHOOL BUILDINGS

Conditions Under Which They Can be Obtained for Political Meetings.

Applications for the use of the ward school houses for political purposes have been so frequent of late that the Board of Education has issued the following notice on the subject:

Before permission will be granted for the use of the public school buildings in this city for any purpose, application in writing must be made by a responsible resident taxpayer of the ward in which it is proposed to hold said meeting, stating the object thereof, and must be filed with the clerk of the board at least two days prior to the holding of said meeting. A fee of $5 for each assemblage must be paid to the clerk at the time the application is filed, to pay expenses of cleaning, lighting and heating the room.

The applicant will be held personally responsible for any damage done to the school property. The use of tobacco and liquor will not be allowed. The janitor will have charge of the building during the time it is used, and see that it is safely closed. The committee reserve the right to refuse an application, if, in their judgment, it is an improper one.

Odorous Ferns.

As a general rule ferns have no odor, but there are a few which have some fragrance. Mr. Alexander McElwee, Jr., one of our most observant and promising young gardeners, notes that the West Indian Adiantum trapeziforme emits a very disagreeable odor, as he describes, something between that of a tomato plant and an African marigold. The odor is so strong as to be perceptible in the evening sometimes fifteen feet away. [illegible] remarks that observations of this character are exceedingly valuable.
