HOMICIDE AT BAR HARBOR, CALIFORNIA.

Disastrous Fire in a Winery—Sixty Men Victimized—Suicide of an Electrician.

The hearing of Charles Drexel for murder, now in progress at Cheyenne, Wyo., is producing evidence tending to show the innocence of the accused.

William Mann, a prominent man of Sacramento, Cal., while visiting the Sacramento pine works Wednesday afternoon had one of his arms caught in some belting and the arm was so badly injured that it will have to be amputated.

Fred Howard, who confessed that he was one of the three masked men who recently robbed several persons in the town of Santa Ynez, Santa Barbara, Cal., was sentenced Wednesday by Judge Hart to fifteen years' imprisonment at Folsom.

Frankie Robbins, aged 19 years, attempted suicide at the home of her mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Cox, 224 Dwight street, San Jose, Cal., Wednesday afternoon, by taking carbolic solution. Miss Robbins had been in bad health for some time, and was supposed to be mentally affected.

Joseph Berkeley, an electrician living at 150 Corbett avenue, San Francisco, committed suicide Wednesday morning by jumping from the saloon deck of the Oakland ferry boat Santa Cruz, and drowning himself from the forward of the paddle wheel, and, although the vessel was stopped and a thorough search made, no trace of him was seen.

The trustees of the Oil Producers' association of Los Angeles, Cal., are considering the advisability of a further shutdown of the wells. The move has again become necessary on account of the lack of storage facilities and the over-production due to prohibitive freight rates to Interior points. The daily production is now about 4,000 barrels and the net consumption not over 2,500 barrels. The shutdown will doubtless be ordered for Saturday next.

A telephone message was received at Ukiah, Cal., Friday evening by Sheriff Johnson, giving information of an excellent business at Bear Harbor. Henry Sutherland was stabbed and completely disembowelled, and although it is said there were three eye-witnesses to the killing, nothing was done at the inquest to establish the identity of the murderer. Deputy Sheriff Helm left Friday night for Branscomb. He is bold county, whither it is said that a man named Mains, suspected of having committed the crime, had fled.

A suit for divorce was commenced at Stockton, Cal., Wednesday by Mrs. Mary Elias Johnson Howell against M. B. Howell, the latter who became notorious through his three sensational trials in the United States court for counterfeiting and passing counterfeit money. The divorce action was commenced on the ground of habitual intemperance, though it is said the attorneys established other grounds for some time, but concluded to confine the issue to the charge given. Summons was issued and served on Howell Wednesday afternoon, just before he left for San Francisco.

At army headquarters Denver, Colo., Friday, an order was issued issuing sentence in the court-martial of Lieut. Hoffer, of troop B, Seventh cavalry, now stationed at Fort Grant, and in Private George Fabert, troop B, Twenty-fourth infantry, at Fort Huachuca. Miller's sentence was four months' hard labor and a fine of $10 for conduct contrary to military discipline while Fabert, on a similar charge, was sentenced to a dishonorable discharge from the service of the United states, forfeiting all pay and allowances due him and to be confined at hard labor for three months.

Neil Greenway, a prominent society and club man of San Francisco, Cal., has been arrested by a detective operator. A few days ago, upon the strength of a telegram received from some someone claiming to be Thomas H. Williams Jr., president of the California Jockey club, Mr. Greenway was given charges on a parcel addressed to his care to Williams. An examination of the parcel revealed the fact that it was no more than a whisky bottle filled with water. It was then certain that Greenway had been removed. The police were notified, and Policeman Thomas Gibson and Patrick Sullivan were detailed on the case.

The main winery at the celebrated El Quito farm near Saratoga, Cal., and one of the principal ones there, was destroyed by fire early on Wednesday morning. The property belonged to E. R. Woodworth, who resides in the ranch. With the winery was destroyed 1,000 gallons of wine of the vintage of 1895, valued at 50 cents per gallon. The winery is used for crushing olives and converting them into commercial oil, which was also destroyed. The machinery was imported from Italy. The origin of the fire is not known. The total loss is placed at between $7,000 and $8,000, with only $1,000 insurance. The family robbers and a number winery accident. Thomas Gibson, who resides at Saratoga, commission, Several Italians, who assisted in the burned property, and everything the last.
