THE WEEKLY CROP BULLETIN.

Report of Climate and Crop Service, Weather Bureau.

Weather in Utah the Past Week, and Reports from the State of the Condition of Crops.

Salt Lake City, June 20, 1898.

Though the mean maximum temperature of the State for the past week was 83.7 degrees, two extremes 104 degrees and the average 67.8 degrees, the weather has not been excessively warm; thus the average temperature for Salt Lake City for June, compared with that of twenty-four years, is 0.1 degree. The past week was the warmest for the present season, a maximum of the present season having occurred on the 15th of more places throughout the State, on the 16th and 17th. The rainfall was partially locally extended in some sections by thunderstorms showers, on the evening days the possible amount of moisture.

Under the beneficial influences of the recent showers and cooler weather, all crops have improved, though a report to telegraph has been necessary. Reports to the Weather Bureau fall for this time of the season.

Most of the fall grain and much of the early spring grain, especially in the counties of Washington county, harvest of fall grain has commenced. Wheat is coming in fine condition with large, well filled heads giving promise of a yield that will bring to our notice, farmers. Barley, also, is in fine condition, that received too much moisture from the May rains, has greatly improved by the warm weather.

There has been improvement in corn potatoes, peas and garden vegetables, would bring prices high. Apricots, cherries and strawberries are plentiful in the markets. Apricots indicate a bumper crop. Other fruits, peaches, apricots, plums and pears will have bumper yields.

Sugar beets have passed through the stage of thinning and weeding; they are looking well and are growing at rapidly as could be desired.

Well pleased are the farmers that the harvest of beets was attended with warm weather that and the prospect as that the first crop is well advanced to completion.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

Whereas Frank Bullen the 9th day of October, 1891, executed and delivered to the Western Loan & Savings company, a corporation, his certain promissory note, by the terms of which he promised to pay to the Western Loan & Savings company the sum of twenty-five hundred dollars, on June 15, 1892, with interest thereon at the rate of 8 per cent per annum, such interest being for and during the ensuing year, to be paid in advance, and payable on the 15th day of June, 1892, and on the 15th day of October, 1891, for the purpose of securing the payment of said note and said interest thereon, the said Frank Bullen and Frank Bullen and Nellie Bull, his wife, executed and delivered to P. W. Madsen, trustee, their certain trust deed upon the following described real estate situated in Salt Lake county, Salt Lake county, State of Utah, to wit:

All of the west half of block Fifteen (15), plat "A" Salt Lake City survey, being all of lots 1, 2 and 7 of said block; also all of lot three (3) in block sixty-one (61), plat "A" Salt Lake City survey; also all of lots two (2) in block sixty-one (61), plat "A" Salt Lake City survey, the said trust deed was duly acknowledged and recorded on the 9th day of October, 1891, in book "Y" of mortgages, page 27, and in book 2 of trust deeds, page 27, in the records of said office.

And whereas said trust deed provided that if default be made in the payment of any of the interest upon said promissory note when the same should become due and payable, then the whole amount of said note should at once at the option of the legal holder thereof, become due and payable, and said trustee should on the application of the legal holder thereof, sell said premises at public auction at the front door of the Court House in the county seat of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, for cash, thirty days' previous notice of such sale being given by said trustee, notice to be given in such work for four successive weeks in any newspaper at that time published in Salt Lake County, State of Utah, for the purpose of paying the amount of said promissory note together with the interest due thereon and the costs, commissions and attorney fees for executing said trust and making said sale; and Whereas the said Frank Bull has made default in the payment of the interest on said note for more than twelve months. And Whereas the Western Loan & Savings Bank, the owner and holder of said note has by resolution of its board of directors duly adopted, declared the said note due and payable, and has requested the said P. W. Madsen trustee as aforesaid to sell said premises pursuant to the authority conferred upon him by the terms of said trust deed. Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that I, P. W. Madsen trustee as aforesaid, will, on the 20th day of July, 1898, at the hour of three (3) o'clock p. m. of that day, at the front door of the court house in Salt Lake City, in the county seat of Salt Lake County, in Salt Lake County, State of Utah, sell at public auction to the highest and best bidder for cash, the said above described premises, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount of said note together with the interest thereon and the costs, commissions and attorney fees of executing said trust and making said sale.

P. W. MADSEN, Trustee.
C. W. Morse, Attorney for Trustee.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

Whereas Malta Fitzgerald and Nay West Fitzgerald, on the 7th day of March, 1892, made, executed and delivered to the Western Loan & Savings company, a corporation, their certain promissory note, by the terms of which they promised to pay to said Western Loan & Savings company the sum of twenty-five hundred dollars, on June 15, 1892, with interest thereon at the rate of 8 per cent per annum, such interest being for and during the ensuing year, to be paid in advance, and payable on the 15th day of June, 1892, and on the 15th day of October, 1891, for the purpose of securing the payment of said note and said interest thereon, the said Malta Fitzgerald and Nay West Fitzgerald, executed and delivered to P. W. Madsen, trustee, their certain trust deed upon the following described real estate situate in Salt Lake City, Salt Lake County, State of Utah, to wit:

Part of Lot Three (3) in Block Twenty-Eight (28), Plat "G," Salt Lake City survey, commencing at a point one rod and one-half rod north from the northwest corner of said Lot Three (3) and running thence south 1 rod; thence south twenty-five (25) feet; thence south thirty-nine (39) feet; thence east one rod; thence north 1 rod; thence west thirty-five (35) feet; thence north thirty-nine (39) feet to the place of beginning, which said trust deed was duly acknowledged and recorded on the 10th day of March, 1892, in book "G," of mortgages, page 328, and in book 2 of trust deeds, page 328, of the records of said office.

And whereas said trust deed provided that in the event of the failure to pay any of the interest upon said note provided for in said note or any part thereof, the whole of said indebtedness should, at the option of the legal holder of said note become due and payable, and the said premises should be sold by the said trustee at public auction at the front door of the court house in the county seat of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, thirty days previous notice having been given by publication in such work for four successive weeks in any newspaper published in Salt Lake County, State of Utah, for the purpose of paying the amount of said note, together with the interest and premium due thereon and the costs, commissions and attorney fees of executing said trust and making said sale.

And, whereas, the said Malta Fitzgerald and Nay West Fitzgerald have made default for more than two months in the payment of interest and premium provided for in said note, and, whereas, the Western Loan & Savings company, the owner and holder of said note has by resolution of its board of directors declared the said entire amount of said note due and payable and has requested the undersigned, P. W. Madsen, trustee as aforesaid, to sell the said premises described in said trust deed. Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that I, P. W. Madsen, trustee as aforesaid, will, on the 20th day of July, 1898, at the hour three o'clock p. m. of that day, at the front door of the court house in Salt Lake City, in the county seat of Salt Lake County, in Salt Lake County, State of Utah, sell at public auction to the highest and best bidder for cash, the said above described premises, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount of said note together with the interest thereon and the costs, commissions and attorney fees of executing said trust and making said sale.

P. W. MADSEN, Trustee.
C. W. Morse, Attorney for Trustee.
