Special Correspondence.

Franklin, Ida., Nov. 29.—At about 6 o'clock hast evening the store of J. J. Hill was broken into by smashing the window at the rear of the store apparently with an ax, and with the same instrument the each drawer was prived apart and some cash taken, hich consisted chiefly of small change, dimes, nickels and coppers, amounting to but $10. One of Mr. Hill's sons happened to be passing, and hearing a noise in the store, investigated and found a window broken, and at once called to some persons passing, to assist. In the meantime the burglar came out through the window and Mr. Hill, Jr., and the burglar engaged in a wrestle and Hill identified Bert Bell of Mapleton, Ida., as the offender. Constable F. F. Shives arrested him this morning and brought him into Judge Durant's court, who read complaint of burglary to him, to which he pleaded "not guilty." Failing to procure ball in the sum of $550 he is under the constable's care until a preliminary hearing can be had.

Thanksgiving day was duly observed. The people assembled at 10 a.m. in the L. D. S. meetinghouse and a very interesting program was rendered: appropriate specches were made by R. G. Lowe, I. H.
