THE DISTRICT COURT.

Trial of Charles Carter for Million Dollar Bonding Bummed.

FIFTY DEFENDANTS IN A SUIT.

Another Copper Claim Matter—Suit Against Ex-Sheriff McQueen.

Both divisions of the Third district court have been in session today.

THE EXPENSES OF CHARLES CARTER.

A jury was impaneled for the third time according to Judge Marshall's order in the case of E. Fox vs Wm. McQueen, ex-sheriff, which action had been appealed by the plaintiff from Commissioner Greenhalgh's court, that was brought to recover in behalf of the use of $25.75 and judgment was rendered in the plaintiff, with costs taxed at $6.25.

Mr. E. Fox, for the plaintiff, in his opening stated that the Carter case in this city, and it was alleged that on May 20th, 1892, the defendant, in the capacity of sheriff, left the keys of the station, in the custody of the officers and let the men out of Albert Hickey, Jesse Thompson, Charles Carter, Kimball, Kimball, Kimball