FACTS ABOUT BIG JIM JEFFRIES

Glimpse at the Private Life of Great Heavyweight Fighter.

NOTHING BUT A "BIG KID."

Fame Sits Heavily On His Massive Shoulders and He Is Sick Of Praise.

Grey Oliver in the Los Angeles Times writes interestingly as follows about Jim Jeffries:

Big fat boys have no place in the prize ring of today where leads, counters, shifts and feints make the amateur see an atmosphere filled with fists that hit him in every spot above his waist line, but some big, fat boys are exceptions and the most famous one is Big Jim Jeffries, now the most-talked-of man in the game today. He may seek a release in the public dispensation and climb back into the ring again, but even if he does he will still be the big fat boy.

Jim Jeffries is a boy because he is big and good-natured and because life has come very easily for him in the past six or seven years. He has money enough to make him independent, strength enough to hold his own with any one in life's battles and the idolatry of the sporting class—and who wouldn't be a boy with these things?

Why, at a recent barbecue at a local park, Jim passed the greater part of the day chasing every man up and down the hills and after catching them the hills and after catching them, dragged them to an empty garbage can and sticking them in, rubbed their faces and cuffed them as if they had been babies. After having his pictures taken yesterday in the gym of the Los Angeles Athletic club, he threw his boxing glove at the camera and knocked it over and then declared that he would not have cared if he had smashed it. He later chased one of his friends into the corner of the gym, tried to kick another one in the head and sat cross-legged on a bench with still another as a boy would, all the time vigorously chewing gum with all the abandonment of boyhood.

These are but a few illustrations of the belief that no matter what else Jim Jeffries has been or may be, he will always be a boy. Fame sits heavily on the shoulders of the majority of men, but here is one more famous than all of them rolled together who seems to take life as a thing to be played with. He seems to care as much for what people think of him as any boy does. He is about as poor a mixer with the ordinary run of people as he is in the role of a referee of prizefight, for continued praise has sickened him on half the world.

To look at Jim one would think he might be brutal and the majority of people who read of his exploits imagine that he devotes the greater part of his time in knocking down people on the streets and in beating his wife. A glance into his beautiful home out Garvanza way shows that his wife does about as she pleases and that the champion of all champions passes the greater part of his time at home rolling about on the lawn and playing with a puppy about as big as he is. He thinks his puppy dogs are among the finest things in the world, and if Jack Johnson would accidentally step on the tail of one of them, the world would probably get a quick rag-time exhibition of what a male pink thing a color line is, anyway.

It is rather difficult to think of a boy going into a fight for which he has offered $30,000 win, lose or draw, but this is what will happen if Jeffries ever fights the black Johnson, or any one. He is a great fighter, has beaten the best in the world at their own game and can get her thousands of dollars additional if he wants them; but no matter whether he wins or loses or what he goes into, his real friends will never think of him as anything but a "big kid." He acts like one and talks like one and will probably be one long after the fickle public starts to worship some new glittering deity.

SULLIVAN-THOMPSON FIGHT ON FRIDAY

At Pocatello on Friday evening Pete Sullivan, the well known local lightweight, will step into the ring and again face "Cyclone" Johnnie Thompson. Pete has concluded his training stunts and is in splendid condition for the bout. The first time he faced Thompson he gained the decision, but on the occasion of their second meeting he was in poor shape and Thompson gave him a severe drubbing. Pete is confident of settling the question of supremacy in a most decisive manner next Friday night, but he realizes he is going up against a hard man to beat.

Thompson is already on the ground and Sullivan will leave tomorrow for the battle ground. He has worked hard to condition himself and will have no reasonable excuse to offer if Thompson beats him.

BASKETBALL GAMES.

A basketball game has been arranged between the Weber Stake Academy and the Granite High School. Both teams are working hard to get in the best form and the Weber boys will undoubtedly give the Granite boys a stiff game. Preliminary to the star event Sugar and Forest Dale juniors will play, commencing at 7:30 p. m. sharp. The games will be played in the Granite Stake Amusement hall, Friday evening, Jan. 15. A large crowd is expected and lovers of clean sport will be assured an exciting and pleasant evening's entertainment.

LUMLEY IS CHOSEN BROOKLYN MANAGER

New York, Jan. 12.—President Ebbetts of the Brooklyn baseball club today announced that Harry Lumley, right fielder of the team, had been selected to succeed "Pat" Donovan as manager of the Brooklyn team. The deal was closed last night in Syracuse.

After repeated efforts to obtain the release of William Dahlen from the Boston team, Ebbetts decided that further delay could not be tolerated. In Cincinnati this week he made his final effort to land Dahlen and failed. Just before starting east he wired Lumley, who resides in Leatrehire, N. Y. to meet him at Syracuse last night. At this meeting Lumley accepted the management. He will come to town in a week or two for the purpose of preparing for the spring training trip of the Dodgers.

"I am sorry for Dahlen's sake that he could not grasp his opportunity," said Mr. Ebbetts this afternoon. "He knows that I tried in every conceivable manner to make a deal for him without weakening my team."

SHOLES THE WINNER.

Rawlins, Wyo., Jan. 12.—The gong saved Charles Sullivan of Denver from a knockout in the twentieth round of his battle with Maggey Sholes of Cheyenne tonight, and the decision went to Sholes. Nine seconds had been counted off by the referee while Sullivan lay prostrate, but the ending of the round prevented a more complete verdict for Sholes. Sullivan was outclassed by the sturdy boy from Cheyenne, who carried the fight to the Denverite throughout.

ON THE RACE TRACK.

At Oakland.

Oakland, Cal., Jan. 12.—Te races at Emeryville today were run in the rain, and over a very sloppy track. Most of the winners were favorites or well played horses. At Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, Jan. 12.—Bucket Brigade was the only favorite to win at Santa Anita park today, the other events going to second choices and long shots. The track was still heavy and the winners were hard to locate. Just after the start in the second race for 2-year-olds, Chas. J. WITHDRAWAL OF MARINES.

President's Order Has Stirred Up Political Defiance.

Washington, Jan. 12.—President Roosevelt's order withdrawing marines from ships and assigning them to shore duty has aroused defiance in political quarters. It is declared on high authority, and from the hearings now in progress before the sub-committee on naval affairs it is learned that strenuous efforts will be made to secure a nullification of the order by the proposed enactment of a law reassigning marines to service afloat. To counteract such a movement a stubborn fight, led by the highest naval authorities in the United States, is being made before the committee.

WANTED THE DRINK ANYWAY.

Tommy, after going to bed, became thirsty, or thought he did. He called out:

"Ma, I want a drink."

The mother's voice answered back, "Tommy, you go to sleep."

Tommy grunted, turned over, and was silent for ten minutes, then again:

"Ma, I want a drink."

"Tommy, you go right to sleep," was the reply.

Intense silence again for ten minutes, then:

"Say, ma, I want a drink."

"Tommy, if you don't go right to sleep I'll come and spank you."

More silence, this time for about two minutes, and then:

"Say, ma, when you come to spank me, won't you bring me a drink?"—Detroit News Tribune.
