WILL DANCE MONDAY

Courtesy and Ball for the Delegates on That Date.

CHATTER AND PUNCTUATION.

The Convention Will Finish That Work This Friday—What Was Done Today.

The Constitutional Convention resumed where the whole of today in improving or attempting to improve the statutes, styles, composition and punctuation of the revised and amended by the committee [illegible] and amendments. Monday the delegates will go to Ogden where the evening of that day will be devoted to a grand ball by the citizens of Salt Lake City at Calderwood's hall.

An Interesting Episode.

Before the Convention was called to order Charles Smith arose, passed through the windowed alcove at the rear of the public, and situated himself in the public and smoking circle in the hall. Shall we or shall we not get Mr. Smith today? It is conjectured that we would have as quickly as possible [illegible] that we can [illegible] the [illegible].

Question—Are the ballots safe in your custody and are they made of [illegible] material. If so we might keep them in [illegible] (Laughter).

The President—We have no information on the point but I am assured—

Voice (interrupting)—That the voters will be better [illegible] than [illegible].

The President—Yes, on Monday, the voters will [illegible]. (Laughter.)

[illegible] that we [illegible] [illegible] adjourn until [illegible] o'clock today.

[illegible]

THE PROCEEDINGS.

The Convention was formally called [illegible] Nat Dilley [illegible] and prayer was offered by Joseph Kimball, of Holladay.

[illegible] VOTE.

The following military [illegible] was read:

To the President and Members of the Constitutional Convention:

Gentlemen—Will you [illegible] to Canada to visit some of the Canadian [illegible] to be held up in the Dominion [illegible] Queen's birthday. Will be signed the [illegible] passed by the last State Legislature? Can I have one to the proper [illegible] Respectfully yours, Nathan Kimball, Lieut. Colonel, U. S. Army. [illegible] Kimball and [illegible] Kimball.

[illegible]

Jesse E. Wilson.

On motion of Dunns the request [illegible] and the Sergeant-at-Arms [illegible] section 3 of the article in question, so that all bonds issued to the governor of any [illegible] or court, in his or their official capacity, or to any official [illegible] to the benefit of the Territory or City of the people thereof," should read to the State, Carried.

JUDICIAL ARTICLE AMENDED.

On motion of Thomas the rules were suspended and the amendment made to section 3 of the article in question so that appeals to the Supreme Court shall be on the ground that it is contrary to the Constitution of the United States or the laws of the United States, Carried.

[illegible]

Kimball moved the following resolution which was unanimously adopted:

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]