

After an idleness of several months, the steel works of Hussey, Howe & Co. of Pittsburg will start up next Monday.

Kittanning, Pa., 20.—An explosion of natural gas occurred at the Worthington lampblack factory, in this county, to-night, shattering the building and seriously injuring 11 men. It is impossible to get further particulars to-night.

BIRTHS.

On Sunday, December 14th, at 8 a.m., at the 11th Ward, to the wife of James A. Cushing, Esq., a fine daughter. All well.

DEATHS.

JONES.—At Henefer, December 11, 1884, of hernia and inflammation of the bowels, Miriam Ann Jones, wife of Robert Jones, born at Sheepscot, Gloucestershire, England, Dec. 24th, 1837, she was aged 47 years, 11 months and 11 days. Deceased was baptized April 14th, 1866; emigrated to Utah the same year; was the mother of seven children all of whom, with her husband are left to mourn her departure. She lived and died a faithful Latter-day Saint, and was beloved and respected by all who knew her.—[COM.]

DAVIS.—Mary Ann Davis, the wife of Dr. Jambrooke Higgins Davis, died December 11th, 1884, at Manti, of general debility; born at Belston, near Wolverhampton, Staffordshire, England. Aged 68 years, 9 months and 24 days.

Wolverhampton, Staffordshire, papers, please copy.

BARTON.—At Ogden City, November 18, 1884, Sister Nancy Kay Barton, of West Weber Ward, Weber Co., Utah.

Sister Barton went on a short visit to her daughter in Ogden, was taken sick while there and died in about five days. She was baptized at Preston, England, by the late President Heber C. Kimball while on his first mission; emigrated to Utah with her husband, two sons and three daughters in 1862; settled at West Weber where she has lived ever since. She has buried her husband and sons and passed through many trials, but always proved faithful to her religion. She passed away without pain and was buried in Ogden cemetery.

Millennial Star please copy.

STEWART.—At his residence in Springville, December 5th, 1884, William Jackson Stewart, familiarly known as Uncle Jack.

Deceased was born December 19th, 1814, in Overton County, Tennessee; received the Gospel in Madison County, Illinois. He maintained a faithful testimony to the last of the truth of the Gospel as restored through Joseph Smith. He performed several missions while in the prime of life; among them one to the British Isles in 1856, and was called home with the rest of the Elders from Utah at the time of the Echo Canyon campaign.—COM.

LA MOTTE.—At Gorey, Jersey Channel Island, October 25, 1884, of old age and general debility, Peter La Motte, aged 75 years.

Deceased was a native of Alderney. In early life he was a Wesleyan preacher and was among the very first to embrace the Gospel when first preached in Jersey in 1817. He lived the life of a consistent, faithful Latter-day Saint and died peacefully in the hope of a glorious resurrection.—COM.

MATTHEWS.—In Salt Lake City, December 19, of paralysis, John Matthews, in the seventy-fifth year of his age. Funeral services will be held in the 21st Ward Meeting House, Sunday, December 21st, at 11:30 a.m. Friends are respectfully invited.

MATTHEWS.—In Washington, Washington County, Utah, Grace Eloise Matthews, daughter of William and Sarah Ann Matthews.

Deceased was born Feb. 8th, 1872, died December 11th, 1884.

She was a bright intelligent girl, much devoted to her Sunday School. Her expiring health was employed in praying for her friends and for the Lord to take her.

SMITH.—At Pahreah, Kane County, Dec. 6th, William W. Smith, son of James A. and Margaret Love Smith, of dyspepsia.

Deceased was born October 13th, 1819, in Smith County, Tennessee; was baptized in 1839 or 1840; emigrated to Utah in 1849; was one of the first settlers of Provo, where he remained until the move south, when he located at Santaquin, at which place he resided until the early part of last June, when in consequence of failing health, he came to Pahreah on a visit, where he died. Deceased was a faithful Latter-day Saint, and died in full faith of a glorious resurrection. He was the father of 11 children and 36 grandchildren.

CRYING FOR AID.

Loss of Appetite, Headache, Depression, Indigestion and Constipation, Biliousness, a Sallow Face, Dull Eyes, and a Bloated Skin, are among the symptoms which indicate that the Liver is crying for aid.

Ayer's Pills

will stimulate the Liver to proper action, and correct all these troubles. One or more of these Pills should be taken daily, until health is fully established. Thousands testify to their great merit.

No family can afford to be without AYER'S PILLS.

PREPARED BY

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by all Druggists.

AYER'S PILLS.

A large proportion of the diseases which cause human suffering result from derangement of the stomach, bowels, and liver. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS act directly upon these organs, and are especially designed to cure the diseases caused by their derangement, including Constipation, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Headache, Dysentery, and a host of other ailments, for all of which they are a safe, sure, prompt, and pleasant remedy. The extensive use of these PILLS by eminent physicians in regular practice, shows unmistakably the estimation in which they are held by the medical profession.

These PILLS are compounded of vegetable substances only, and are absolutely free from calomel or any other injurious ingredient.

A Sufferer from Headache writes:

"AYER'S PILLS are invaluable to me, and are my constant companion. I have been a severe sufferer from Headache, and your PILLS are the only thing I could look to for relief. One dose will quickly move my bowels and free my head from pain. They are the most effective and the easiest physic I have ever found. It is a pleasure to me to speak in their praise, and I always do so when occasion offers."

W. L. PAGE, of W. L. Page & Bro., Franklin St., Richmond, Va., June 3, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S PILLS in numberless instances as recommended by you, and have never known them to fail to accomplish the desired result. We constantly keep them on hand at our home, and prize them as a pleasant, safe, and reliable family medicine. FOR DYSPYPSIA they are invaluable."

J. T. HAYES, Mexia, Texas, June 17, 1882.

The Rev. FRANCIS B. HARLOWE, writing from Atlanta, Ga., says: "For some years past I have been subject to constipation, from which, in spite of the use of medicines of various kinds, I suffered increasing inconvenience, until some months ago I began taking AYER'S PILLS. They have entirely corrected the costive habit, and have vastly improved my general health."

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS correct irregularities of the bowels, stimulate the appetite and digestion, and by their prompt and thorough action give tone and vigor to the whole physical economy.
