

SOCIAL CHAT

The week has been a busy one though the absence of the many bridal affairs of last week lowered the notable early spring record. The cool weather promises a continuation of dancing parties for some time and with these, and the usual home and club functions, the rest of the May month will probably be as gay as could be desired.

The largest and most important home event of the week was the reception given by Bishop Spaulding on Thursday night in honor of the visiting clergy. The house was a tower of spring blossoms, the hall being bright with yellow marguerites and tall palms, the library in apple blossoms and potted plants, and the parlor in pink carnations and plumosa, while the diningroom was in white and purple lilacs and ferns. The host was assisted in receiving by his guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Spaulding. In the diningroom, Mrs. George Wallace and Mrs. Eugene Lewis presided, assisted by Mrs. Clara Ferguson, Miss Clara Coburn, Miss English and Miss Isabel Oxborn. A large number were present and the affair was in all ways delightful.

On Tuesday Mrs. Schuyler Snyder was hostess at a card party, which being the anniversary of the birth of her daughter, the room was brightly decorated with spring blossoms, the parlor being decorated in lilacs, the diningroom in apple blossoms and carnations. The affair was in the contest were won by Mrs. J. H. Beltrus and Mrs. Drake.

Mrs. J. H. Conruff was one of Tuesday's hostesses, her function being a luncheon and her guests numbering 12. Lilacs were used exclusively in the decorations and the place cards were hand-painted in the same flowers.

Miss Florence Sears entertained delightfully at cards on Monday night, the room being prettily decorated, and delicious refreshments served.

On Wednesday Mrs. George M. Downey entertained at a bridge party in honor of Mrs. W. G. Sharp and Mrs. H. Davis. The room was beautifully decorated in purple and white lilacs and about 20 guests were present. The prize winners in the contest were Mrs. C. H. Lockwood, Mrs. W. G. Sharp and Mrs. Thomas Weir.

Miss Bettya Peyer entertained the members of the S. D. C. at her home Friday afternoon.

The centennial anniversary of the death of the great German poet, Friedrich Schiller, May 9, 1805, will be commemorated by the several German societies of the city in Unity hall next Monday evening, the 8th inst., at 8 o'clock. An appropriate program will be rendered. Judge Christopher Diehl will deliver the oration on the occasion. All Germans and ladies and gentlemen familiar with the German language are invited and will be welcome.

The Misses Hattie and Janie Barnett entertained at a delightful card party on Wednesday night in honor of two visiting guests, Miss Gertrude Jones and Miss Ruth Baer. The room was prettily decorated in pink and white carnations, and about 30 guests were present.

Mrs. Preseland entertained the club of which she is a member at a luncheon on Wednesday, Miss Alexander of Montana being the guest of honor.

The faculty of the U. of U. gave its reception to the student body last night, and the event was a notably enjoyable one.

Miss Stingley gave a delightful 5 o'clock tea at her apartments in the Emery-Holmes flats on Wednesday.

On Wednesday, Mrs. J. P. Cobb was hostess at a delightful luncheon, given at the Commercial club, covers being laid for six. The table was spread in the ladies' dining room, and was decorated in pink carnations, and maiden hair fern. Afterward the party repaired to Mrs. Cobb's apartments at the Miller flats and enjoyed several games of cards.

Miss Preston and Miss Laura Preston entertained delightfully on Monday afternoon in honor of their sister, Mrs. C. B. Diehl.

Mrs. James N. Ferguson was guest of honor at a delightful afternoon affair on Thursday, given by Mrs. C. D. Brookfield. About 25 guests were present to enjoy the event.

Mrs. G. P. Holman entertained the bridge club at her home yesterday.

On Monday evening Mrs. Walter Lynn entertained at an informal musicale in honor of Mrs. C. S. Richardson, who leaves shortly to spend the summer in the east. Among the enjoyable features were a number of original musical numbers composed by Mrs. Cockey and rendered by Miss Annette Berichol.
