NEWS OF THE WEST.

A Dance and A Tragedy, at the Same Time, in Montana.

SINGULAR DEATH-BED INCIDENT.

Serious Accident to a Child at Payson —A Two-year Old Boy Burned to Death, Etc.

Mrs. Kate Hand has committed suicide at Folsom, Cal., by taking strychnine. She had some words with her husband, and swallowed the poison in his presence.

John Williams, for robbing the Sierra City (Cal.) Downieville stage in September last, has been sentenced to eight years in San Quentin. The prisoner thanked the judge for the light sentence.

The board of supervisors of San Bernardino, Cal., have been officially notified that they can secure a model for the exhibit of rock salt, which was exhibited at sale at the World's Fair by applying to the committee on awards.

There was a strike among the prisoners in the Sacramento (Cal.) county jail a few mornings ago. They refused to clean up their cells. The ringleaders were all locked up and denied the usual outing in the yard. The trouble was due to dissatisfaction with prison food.

The ladies of Hollister, Cal., will hold a ratification meeting next Monday evening to jubilate over the victory of women's suffrage and the nine women in that state. Programs are out announcing a procession, speakers and bonfires.

Last week, says the Brigham City Bugler, Wm. Brown, a family man, was sent to the "pen" for flipping open a United States mail bag and rooting in contents at Deweyville. The fellow worked remarkable cute and was sure to fall in await the action of the grand jury.

The Cheyenne Leader learns that a rancheman named Gamble, living on Sage creek, in the northern part of Colorado, has brought suit in the United States circuit court at Billings, Montana, to enjoin a number of Montanans from diverting the water from Sage creek.

Sarah Briggs (Elvira Ashworth's lawful wife) got her name in the lodge open some years several hot lodge and inflicted a serious wound on a Mr. Reed, says the Butte Inter-Mountain (published at Butte). It is intimated she would have done well had not John Temple come to her rescue.

A singular incident occurred at the death bed of an Italian named Antonio Patanelli, who died at Silver Plume, Colo., a few nights ago. Calling his three children to his bedside, he said, "I am going to die, but my children must not have a parting drink." The request was granted to and the champagne flowed freely.

In Austin, Tex., there is a figure of the Goddess of Liberty surmounting the capitol 300 feet above the ground. The lady is seventeen feet high, with a bronze exterior. Carpenters have recently divulged the fact that a stream of bees have deposited their honey in the extend to several barrels of her head and feed her nectar as the fresh day.

As the bark Colusa was starting for Hongkong on Friday, from Portland, Or., the sailors, the second mate, who had been drinking, went aloft and fell from the topsail yard to the deck between the rail and the cockhead of rumor. He was picked up and carried into the cabin, but as the vessel did not stop it is not known how badly he was hurt.

The jury of Los Angeles, in the case of Mrs. M. N. Miller against the estate of Millionaire Bradbury, to secure damages for services rendered Bradbury, her brother, covering twenty years' time, has returned a verdict of Mrs. Miller for $5000. It was set aside by the judge, who declared that it was contrary to the evidence. The decision of the jury is greatly criticised in the continent and the case will be appealed.

H. H. Kerr, superintendent of the Sanpete Valley railway, has been in the city the past few days, arranging for depot grounds says the Manti Messenger. The company propose commencing work on the depot, Monday, and water will be run as fast as the grounds can be secured. Work is progressing on the grade, and the rails have arrived at Ephraim. The road will probably be completed by the first of December.

George Watson, a colored man living three miles from Hampton Falls, Mont., was murdered Friday evening and an effort made to conceal the crime by burning the cabin. When the crime was discovered Watson's body was found crushed and mangled, with the logs of the cabin burned on. The crime is a deep mystery. If robbery was the motive the murderer missed his reward, for a large amount of gold coin was afterwards taken from the cabin.

Fred Schaffer has been convicted at Tucson, A. T., of manslaughter, in having shot James Richards June 29, 1889, while a resident of Arizona City, killing him almost instantly. Schaffer is a rancher, and was formerly quite a wealthy man in California. Richards was a horse-thief, too, went to Arizona many years ago. He had many public positions. The shooting occurred at Schaffer's house, where Richards also resided, and originated over his interfering in a domestic quarrel and stopping between Schaffer and his wife to prevent his striking her.

At the residence of Major E. S. Lyons, vice-president, Lyons, Colo., occurred on Friday morning a sad accident. While the family were at breakfast the house, Mr. Lyons' little boy, aged two years and four months, got his clothes on fire by coming with the fire in the stove with a whisk broom. The frantic cries of the child attracted the attention of a neighbor, who hastened to the house and found the child enveloped in flames, which he soon extinguished. The child was so seriously injured that it died next day.

A very serious accident happened at the home of Joseph Crook on the ranch, the other evening, says the Payson Globe. His little daughter, about two years old, was playing around a fire when was burning out in the yard, when from some cause or other her clothes caught fire and she was terribly injured before the flames could be extinguished. Her right side, a right lower limb were [illegible] to a great extent of [illegible] all. Dr. [illegible] was sent for and [illegible] hope her injuries will prove fatal.

At Malta, Mont., which a dispatch to the Inter-Mountain says, Thomas Whorley, a miner, was killed by a falling tree. He was with another young man felling timber, Brannan entering a tree that was not quite down, and upon this the rest of the window. The first blow glanced Brannan's head, and the third blow he shoulder, so he called for two men to help him back out of reach of the fire, without doing any serious damage to timber. Both men emptied their guns. The second volley he fell forward out of sight and the gun in the number on the program was silent. Brannan may probably recover, though he is in danger.

Easy to Take and keep the system in Perfect Order.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS

A specific for Headache, Constipation, and Dyspepsia. Every dose Effective

NOTICE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT [illegible]

[illegible]

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN TO THE [illegible]

[illegible]

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

WHEREAS, Michael Green and Vera [illegible] Salt Lake, and Hannah [illegible] executed and delivered to Jesse N. Smith, Trustee, a certain trust deed, dated the [illegible] day of [illegible], A.D., 1887, and recorded in the county recorder's office in Salt Lake county, Territory of Utah, on the [illegible] day of [illegible], A.D., 1887, in book [illegible] of mortgages, page [illegible], to secure the payment of the principal sum of [illegible] Dollars, and interest thereon, payable to [illegible] or order, according to the terms of said trust deed, and [illegible] default has been made in the payment of said principal and interest, and the said [illegible] have requested said trustee to sell said [illegible] to satisfy said indebtedness, and [illegible] said trustee has duly recorded in the office of Boyd Park, recorder of Salt Lake county, Utah, his Notice of Intention to Sell said property, and the same has been duly published in the Deseret Evening News, a daily newspaper of general circulation in said Salt Lake County, Utah, for the space of thirty days, and the said trustee has duly posted copies of said notice in three of the most public places in said Salt Lake County, Utah, and has recorded such notice of sale in said county, and has duly mailed a copy of said notice to the said parties, and has duly published the same once a week for four consecutive weeks in said Deseret Evening News, a daily newspaper of general circulation in said Salt Lake County, Utah, and has duly posted a copy of said notice on the said premises, and has duly