LOCAL BRIEFS.

The Union Pacific has begun the ice harvest in Evanston, Wyoming.

Judge Hall will call the law and motion calendar for the equity division of the district court on Wednesday and Thursday, Dec. 23 and 24.

Prof. Marshall will give a stereopticon lecture this evening in the University of Westminister Abbey before the Men's Social club of the church.

Dr. E. D. Hammond spoke to young men last night, in the First Baptist church, upon the effect of immorality on the young man's future welfare.

John M. Rosier of Ogden, B. S. Kingsbury of Salt Lake and Nels Jensen also of Salt Lake have been discharged as bankrupts in the Federal court, and A. P. Frisbey of Salt Lake and George C. Dicks of Ogden have been adjudged bankrupts.

The ladies of the Maccabees, Banner Hite No. 11, gave a very delightful ball at the Casino's last evening, which was attended by about 200 couples.

The reception committee consisted of Mrs. J. C. Hanchett, Mrs. John Dumble, Mrs. C. Kennedy, Mrs. J. M. Harvey and Mrs. W. C. Rowe.

The school trustees of Waterloo have closed the building on account of diphtheria, and for the sixth time this year will have it disinfected. The occasion is threats from citizens to burn the building down in case this is not done; but it is claimed that the spread of the disease is due to the refusal of people to observe quarantine conditions at their own homes.

The L. E. Waterman company, manufacturers of the "Ideal" fountain pen, yesterday filed a bill of intervention in the Federal court against Thomas A. Whalen, receiver for D. P. Reynolds, Ogden, asking for an injunction to prevent him from selling the stock of Reynolds, belonging to them and valued at the sum of $444 be not sold by said receiver. The bill was granted and the receiver notified.

Three fine strings of Christmas cattle were received yesterday, as the Union stock yards, and steam shipments for the Christmas markets are passing through the yards. The condition of the live stock is excellent, and the local markets are sure of the best meats for the coming holidays.

Dun's Review has the following to say about business conditions in this city the past week: Business is quiet, as is reasonable for this market, as fall and early winter trade is about over, and few houses seek spring orders before January. Trade continues mainly of the small rush order sort for the holidays. Retail trade is fairly active, but scarcely up to standard for the season. Collections are slow and money in good demand and rather tight.

The Lone Star gambling house on Commercial street was raided last night by Sergeant Hempel and Officers Sullivan and Carlson. They arrested John Williams, the alleged owner, W. H. Spencer, T. Hilton and Peter York. Williams put up $100 bonds, and the others $25 each to insure their appearance in Judge Diehl's court. Complaints were filed against them today but the cases have not been set for trial as yet.

PATHETIC CASE.

Proud French Music Teacher Elects to Starve Sooner Than Seek Help.

Prof. Shortas, a French music teacher, was taken to the county infirmary Monday afternoon suffering from the want of proper food and clothing. Prof. Shortas has been teaching music here for about two years but of late his health became poor and he was unable to carry on his work and has been confined to his room in the Continental rooming house. Some of his friends called on him and learned that he was suffering from the necessities of life. His pride would not permit of him accepting food and raiment from his friends, so they finally induced him to consent to go to a hospital. Under the impression he was taken to the infirmary.

GRANITE STAKE FAIR.

Voting for Queen Continues to be the Leading Feature.

The contest for a queen is still the leading feature of the Granite stake fair. Many wards have entered the race, determined to win, and each night sees added interest, as well as votes. Last night the voting was very spirited, the total up to 10 o'clock being 51,205, divided as follows:

Big Cottonwood, Carrie Neilson.....15,800

Farmers, Jessie Christensen.....10,115

Forest Dale, Ethel Gains.....7,315

Mill Creek, Fernie Park.....7,180

Murray, Lerona Cabott.....4,320

Willford, Minnie Best.....2,925

Taylorville, Emeline Marsden.....870

Grant, Clara Meyers.....845

Stranger, Elmer McKee.....590

Hunter, Ida Moessner.....570

Sugar, Ida Smith.....510

East Mill Creek, Elaine Neff.....15

South Cottonwood, Lily Hicks.....15

Ferne Park, the Mill Creek candidate, showed considerable strength over the previous night, her net gain being 7,065 votes. The supporters of Jessie Christensen of Farmers ward were very enthusiastic, and succeeded in winning second place, the gain in votes being 9,415. Ethel Gair of Forest Dale still holds a good position in the race. It is reported that Murray has considerable latent strength, much work being done quietly outside of the stake house. Big Cottonwood still leads by a majority of about 5,000 votes and it is reported that they are still determined to win with a safe margin. South Cottonwood has thus far cast the smallest number of votes, but it is known that their chances of winning are good. Several of the wards seem to be playing a waiting game with the view of outgeneraling their more open opponents.

After Thursday evening next the voters are restricting to four leading candidates. "Dark horses" cannot appear without reaching a figure equal to the smallest vote cast by the leading six candidates.

Saturday night the queen will be crowned, amidst great splendor and pomp. Sixty persons will take part in the coronation.

MAXIM'S MAXIM.

Modest Claims Often Carry More Conviction Than Loud Boasts.

When Maxim, the famous inventor, placed his gun before a committee of judges, he stated its carrying power to be considerably below what he felt sure the gun would accomplish. The result of the trial was therefore a triumph of surprise instead of disappointment as it might have been if he had overestimated his gun's efficiency.

A desire for knowledge is as natural in a child as an appetite for food. If the questions which are asked daily are properly answered, the desire for information is increased, but if the questions are not answered the mind becomes calloused to many beautiful and interesting things. Many parents who would be horrified at the thought of their children being hungry allow them to suffer intellectual starvation.

HOW RIDEOUT LOST HIS WAD.

Four Strangers Frisk Pocket Book With Neatness and Dispatch in Savage's Art Store.

GOT SIX HUNDRED DOLLARS.

The Former State Senator From Draper Was Huddled in Doorway And Trick Was Done.

D. O. Rideout, Jr., of Draper, formerly state senator, was robbed of about $600 in an East Temple street store yesterday afternoon by four members of the light colored gentry. The scheme employed by the thieves to secure Mr. Rideout's wallet is a very odd, but nevertheless effective one.

Mr. Rideout came to Salt Lake yesterday morning on business and incidentally to make a few Christmas purchases. He went to the bank and drew out $500 in gold and bills. He went into Savage's art store on East Temple street and was followed in by four well dressed strangers. While was inspecting some articles in the wholesale department upstairs, the four men waited for him, two on each side of the aisle. Two clerks noticed the stranger and asked them if they had been waited on. They replied they were simply waiting for a friend, and continued to inspect some books. When Mr. Rideout was leaving the four men followed closely and as they brushed against him, one of the men said to another "stop your shoving." Mr. Rideout raised his arms and looked around. In the confusion his pockets were picked and his wallet stolen. He did not miss the money until he entered another store down the street. He felt for his purse to pay for some articles and was astonished to find it gone. He hurried back to the store first mentioned and a careful search for the missing wallet was instituted but without satisfactory results. The money was gone and likewise the four well dressed strangers.

It was then that Mr. Rideout remembered the men brushing against him as he left the store. He at once reported the matter to the police and they are in hot pursuit of the thieves. It is believed that the thieves had noticed Mr. Rideout get the money from the bank and had followed him, awaiting a favorable opportunity to deftly "lift" his wallet.

He Cried.

Not a minute should be lost when a child shows symptoms of croup. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack from coming on, and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists.

Coughing Spell Caused Death.

"Harry Luckwell, aged 25 years, choked to death early yesterday morning at his home, in the presence of his wife and child. He contracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with a fit of coughing which continued for some time. His wife sent for a physician but before he could arrive, another coughing spell came on and Luckwell died from suffocation.—L. Louis Globe-Democrat, Dec. 1, 1901." Ballard's Horehound Syrup would have saved him. 25c, 50c and $1.00 at Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

Every Movement Hurts.

When you have rheumatism, muscles feel stiff and sore and joints are painful. It does not matter how long you have this disease when it may be cured so promptly and perfectly by Hood's Sarsaparilla. This medicine goes right to the spot, neutralizes the acidity of the blood, which causes rheumatism, and puts an end to the pain and stiffness. Bilelessness is cured by Hood's Pills. 25c.
