The enterprising community residing in Hooper, Weber county, are desirous of having a railroad station at their town, and recently some of the most prominent citizens of that part of the county held a meeting and decided to county held a meeting and decided to unite with the Ogden Sugar company in working to that end. At this meeting the following committee was appointed to consuit with the Sugar company people on the matter: John Manning, Antone Christensen, F. A. King, John F. McDonald, Joseph Johnson, Thomas Reid and Joseph Manning, This committee is to gather data to show approximately the amount of freight traffic which such a railroad freight traffic which such a railro treight traffic which such a railroad would gain through having a spur of the railroad running to that point, also the amount of passenger business they would gain. After these data are gathered they are to be presented to both the Rio Grande Western and Oregon Short Line companies, asking that either one or the other of the companies build a spur to that town. If the efforts build a spur to that town. If the efforts of the Hooper people should be successful in getting one of the companies to build to their town it will be a great enefit to the southwestern part of Weber county.
