OBITUARY NOTES.

WILLIAM MONMOTT.

Died November 30, 1895, at Sulphur, Millard county, Utah, of old age, William Monmott, aged 82 years. Brother Monmott was born at Anton, near Sheffield, England, July 20, 1813; was baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in 1847; very shortly after was ordained a Priest and appointed as assistant to Elder Henry Roper, president of the Woolhouse branch in the Sheffield conference; afterwards was appointed president of the Dosper branch, being ordained an Elder, and then presiding over the Rotherham branch almost continuously until he emigrated to Utah in 1861. Locating in Payson he resided there until about New Years of 1893, when he removed to Sulphur—then Round Valley.

For many years Brother Monmott was prominent as a laborer in that ward; as a ward teacher, the first Sabbath school superintendent, and ward clerk, he was eminently prompt and zealous. At the organization of the Sulphur Co-op. store he was elected superintendent and in that position gave general satisfaction. For over thirty years he was postmaster and to the old mail coach route to Pioche was known as being unexcelled in promptness and honesty in his mail matters.

He died in full faith in the Gospel, being ordained a High Priest after serving as president of the Elders quorum for many years.—[Com.

LAURITZ LARSEN.

Lauritz Larsen, who died on November 23rd, at his home in Spring City, Sanpete county, and whose obsequies have already received brief mention, was born January 25th, 1824, at Gross, Vejle county, Denmark; was baptized November 23, 1850, at Copenhagen, by C. Christensen, and confirmed on the following day by J. E. Forsgren. On the 25th of December, 1851, he was ordained a Priest and commenced his missionary labors in the Fredericia conference under the direction of his brother, C. J., at that time president of said conference; was ordained an Elder August 25, 1852, at the Fredericia conference, and appointed to labor in Sorghultving and vicinity. In the spring or summer of 1853 he was called to preside over Vonsyssel conference, a position he filled with honor until 1857, when he was released to emigrate to Utah, where he arrived in October of that year. During the winter of 1857 he lived in South Weber, where his parents resided. On February 6, 1858, he was ordained a member of the Forty-first quorum of Seventies, in Salt Lake City. Early in the same year he moved to Ogden with the intention of making it his home, but he and his brother, C. J., had only just commenced to break up land when the word came from President Brigham Young for the people to move south, and during the summer he moved to Fort Ephraim, Sanpete county, where he remained until 1860 or 1861, when he moved to Spring City, where he lived honorably. On May 23, 1867, he left home on a mission to his native country, where he was appointed to preside over the Aarhus conference, which position he filled for one year, when he was appointed by President Jesse N. Smith as traveling Elder in the Scandinavian mission during the remainder of his term. He was released in the latter part of July, 1870, and returned to his mountain home with a company of about 200 Saints, arriving in Salt Lake City August 16th. He acted as counselor in the Bishopric of Spring City for thirteen years. He was as popular and useful in secular as in ecclesiastical positions, having been elected justice of the peace four times, and served two terms as mayor of Spring City. His last act in the service of the people was when he was elected a delegate to the Constitutional Convention. Two wives and two children preceded him to the other side, and a wife, five children and a host of friends remain to mourn his loss. It can truly be said of him that he lived and died a faithful, consistent Latter-day Saint. May he rest in peace until the morning of the first resurrection.—Communicated.

A fellow want to feel gnawing at the stomach after you have eaten a full meal, and can't eat any more, and yet there is that feeling as though you had eaten nothing. What is wanted then is a dose of Simmons Liver Regulator the best Dyspepsia cure, for that is what that gnawing means. "Simmons Liver Regulator is all that is recommended for indigestion."—A. H. Subject to Attacks of Cholera Morbus

While staying in the Delta (Mississippi bottoms) last summer, R. T. Moss, representing Lathrop, Naylor, Wire Co., of St. Louis, suffered from malaria and became subject to attacks of cholera morbus. In every instance when attacked he was relieved as if by magic, by using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says: "I regard it as the 'ne plus ultra' of medicines."
