What Hight Have Been Meard. Almost any day during the Centennial, a knot of physicians might have been seen gathered around the cleant glass case, standing in the Main Building in which Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster was exhibited, discussing its merits and superfority overother porous plasters, and the listener might have heard words of warm praise fall from their lips as they spoke of the revolution it would likely effect in remedies for diseases treated externally, such as rhumatism, lame and weak bink, spinal and kidney disease, setation, immbago, sprains and bruises, and all aches and pains of a local nature. With these opinions the Centennial jurors, who were also learned physicians, were in perfect accord and awarded the manufacturers of Benson's Capcine Plaster the only medal given to porous phasters. To avoid fraud, see that the word Capcine is cut through each plas-

was invented to overcome the great objection ever found to the old style of porous plasters, that of slow action in bringing relet. Heason's Capcine Porous Plaster releves pain at once and cures quickly. It imparts a sensation of gentle and atimulating warmth and brings re; t and comfort to the sufferer.
