OUR OWN STATE.

OGDEN.

Ogden, Jan. 31.—Suit was brought in the Second district court yesterday by Hyrum M. Campbell against Ogden city to recover the sum of $2,500 for injuries alleged to have been sustained by plaintiff by reason of him having been thrown from his wagon while driving on Twenty-fifth street, the complaint setting forth the accident was caused by defendant's carelessness and neglect to maintain the street in proper repair.

Mrs. Leland Stanford came in from the West yesterday morning in her private car Stanford and went east over the Union Pacific.

Sept. J. H. Young of the Oregon Short Line was in the city yesterday. Local thieves are doing a big business in this city. It is reported that two carloads were stolen from the Southern Pacific yards Saturday night.

The benefit party to be tendered to Christian Ferrin by the Ogden Choral Union will be held Thursday evening. Supt. Wm. Allison of the city schools and Supt. Wilson of the county schools will deliver addresses, and an interesting musical program will be presented tonight on the occasion of the annual meeting of the Public Library association in the Presbyterian church. The election of directors for the ensuing year will also be held.

The report of the Weber county fish and game warden has been filed with the county clerk. It sets forth that the county deputies have been unable to secure the conviction of any violators of the law, owing to the fact that they have neglected to catch the offender in the act and with the fish in his possession. The claim is made by the warden that the refuse of the sugar factory, which finds its way into the Weber river, is poisonous and is having a deleterious effect upon the fish, and the county commissioners are appealed to move in the matter and provide further drainage from that source. He reports that the reservoir above the dam in Ogden river has been stocked with black bass, which are doing well.

The Marriott Irrigation case was resumed in the Second district court yesterday morning. Judge Jacob Johnson presides.

The case came up on hearing of the amended complaint. Demurrers thereto were filed by the Lynn Irrigation company, Joseph A. Taylor et al., Ogden City, Bear River Irrigation and Ogden Waterworks company, Ambrose Platts, Hyrum Butler et al., Plain City Irrigation company.

After arguments the demurrers were overruled and the defendants given until February 20 to answer, and the case was then continued until that date.

Gaetano Bolognesi, a native of Italy, was admitted to citizenship by Judge Hilton yesterday.

An additional $5 per month has been appropriated for the county commissioners toward the maintenance of the Crittenden Home.

Yesterday the county commissioners received and accepted the resignation of Peter Monnach as constable of the Second Ogden precinct and appointed David Mitson to fill the vacancy.

Madame Fawcett gave a sacred song recital at the Methodist church last night. There was a good turn out of lovers of the divine art, who enjoyed a rare treat.

The city council held a protracted meeting last night, discussing a proposition to grant a new franchise to the Ogden Street Railway company, which would permit the company to supply light in competition with the Union Light and Power company. It is understood that if the council shall grant the franchise asked for, the street railway will be sold to parties who will place it in good repair and equip it with new rolling stock of the most modern make.

AMERICAN FORK.

John H. Wootton and W. E. Robinson visited the schools of Provo and Orem Monday. It being visiting day for the American Fork teachers.

Principal J. H. Forbes, Mrs. Eliza Davis, Mrs. Vina Clark, Mrs. Minnie Staid and Alice Driggs and Anna Pulsipher visited the Lehi schools Monday.

Miss May Greenwood visited Provo Monday from Nephi, where she has been to attend the wedding of her brother, John A. Grant, and Miss Inoma Hendrickson, a young lady from Levan.

There is to be a grand married people's party with supper given at the Opera house, Friday evening, Feb. 3rd, under the auspices of the American Park Bible club. They will furnish tea and coffee.

It seems that the trouble between Warren Boley and the aspiring Pleasant Grove youths is not ended by the conviction of Warren, Friday evening. The Herald correspondent, as a crowd of boys from Pleasant Grove came over here Saturday night and the result was a free fight at the American Fork Co-operative, in which some of the victims were badly used up. No peace officers were on the ground. Marshal Ingleby having gone to Provo to take D. H. Allen to the asylum. As a result of the affair Henry B. and Warren Boley were arrested today upon the complaint of Sidney Sisell for assault and battery, and brought before Judge Jackson for trial. Warren Boley pleaded guilty and his sentence will be given at 2 p. m. today. H. B. Boley pleaded not guilty and his case will come up this evening.

The Sunday School concert Sunday evening was perhaps the most interesting and entertaining one that has been given for several years. Edna Chezik in her solo, "All Ye Dead," pleased all present very much. The duet by Bertha Turner and Clara Worlton was well received, and a good comic recitation brought forth much applause. The trio, "A Little Farm Well Tilled," by Wm. Grant, John Miles and Isaac Wagstaff was a charmer and was well rendered. The Cradle by the little fairies with wings was a very unique and novel performance, cleverly given. Mrs. Mary E. Robinson, the favorite, sang "Bird of Beauty."—American Fork World.

NEPHI.

Special Correspondence.

Nephi, Jan. 30.—Judge Edward Pike has issued bench warrants for parties to prosecute the cocoa stealing case.

Edward McGurrin was here today to see some mining property, which was sold at sheriff's sale on a foreclosure of mortgage, by order of the district court.

Dr. E. E. Wilson lectures on Physiology at the regular meeting of the Nephi ward Y. M. M. I. A. tomorrow evening. A special program has been arranged, and a good turnout is assured.

Sheepmen just in from the winter range in the western part of the State report the weather very mild so far, and unless more snow comes soon, long drives will have to be made for water.

BOYS FINED FOR THEFT.

Two youthful culprits, ranging in age from ten to fifteen years, were hauled up before the bench, Friday afternoon, charged with breaking into the co-op store of this place last week. The evidence showed that the gang of youthful outlaws have been carrying on their pilfering for some time past. After administering a severe reprimand to the young offenders, in which their parents joined in for the few weeks, warning to have a little more care when their boys spent their evenings, Mr. Rowe imposed a fine of 45 each. It is hoped that this will put a permanent check on the pilfering business, which has been going on more or less all winter.

BRIGHAM CITY.

At the county school teachers' meeting Saturday evening there was a large attendance. Prof. Brigham delivered a very interesting lecture on "History and How to Teach It." The next meeting will be held on Feb. 25, and in addition to the usual exercises the subject for the lecture will be "Language and How to Teach It."

Monday, in Justice Jensen's court, the following cases were heard and disposed of: The State of Utah vs. Jens Thorvald Rhoder. This case was instituted on complaint of one Christen Peter Christensen, charging defendant with having committed the crime of adultery with his (Christensen's) wife, Elsie Marie Christensen, in April of last year and at various other times. Defendant was bound over by Justice Jensen in the sum of $200. Another case brought in the same court was that of the State of Utah vs. Wm. Johnson on complaint of one J. W. Parsons. Johnson was charged with the malicious destruction of property or furniture belonging to complainant. On being arraigned Johnson asked for a change of venue to Honeyville precinct, the precinct in which the offense was committed.

PAROWAN.

A nice little party gathered in Uncle Robert Miller's residence on January 25th, it being his birthday, and also Robbie Burns' birthday. The Scotch element was greatly in evidence and they enjoyed it just like old Scotch lodges, "forgathered theathher."

Elders Jensen and Larson are with us yet, laboring for the advancement of the youth. These gentlemen carry with them a refining influence and it is having a good effect wherever they go.

Severe colds, or attacks of the grippe are very common with us at present, but no serious cases of sickness are reported.

Between Two Fires is announced as the next play to be put upon the boards by the Lyon Dramatics.

The Church choir gives a farewell party on Friday night to Mr. Alfred Turnham, who goes east soon. Mr. Alfred in a few days to complete his musical studies.

Postmaster John T. Mitchell is moving into his new building this week. Our principal streets are paved with ice and dust.

CEDAR JUNCTION.

Mat McCune, brother to A. W., and one of the managers of the new Utah & Pacific road, was in Cedar the first of the week. He was accompanied by Mr. McCune accompanied to Sulphur station by E. C. Lund Jr. and the Recorder settle. We arrived there in time to see the first train enter the present terminus, which will probably be known as Cedar Junction.

While in town Mr. McCune says the road will be prepared to handle all the freight of this and Washington counties and already it is carrying the Do La Mar and Phoenix freight and mails. There is no doubt that within a short time the walls of this section will be carried by the line, as fifty miles of the stage haul will be saved.

Track-laying will not cease here, but to the words of President McCune, will not stop until tidewater is reached.—Parowan County Record.

RICHFIELD.

John L. Jensen and Emma Jane Barlow were married in the Manti Temple recently.

Geo. C. Morris and Miss Mary Avery, of Glenwood, left Tuesday morning for the Manti Temple. You all know the rest.

The tabernacle is progressing nicely and more beautiful than ever. At least twenty more of all trades are working on it. The shingling has commenced. The galvanized iron work will be completed this week. The walls have been repainted and the front stage put in by our friend, Chas. Nielsen.—Sevier County Times.

ST. GEORGE.

Elmera Batty of Toquerville and John Williamson of Paragonah have gone to the St. George Temple to get married. They expect to make their home in Paragonah.

The warm, spring-like weather causes a feeling of uneasiness to rest upon our stockmen, farmers, and fruit growers. Another another week of this weather will cause almonds to bloom. Colder weather with heavy snowfalls in the hills would be more in order. The fall of snow so far has been very light.

The new school house now begins to show what an elegant, substantial structure it will be when completed. It will stand a monument to the enterprise of the people of St. George, as the branch normal school today shows the enterprise of the people of Cedar City. The pursuit of education is ennobling, and it is the bounden duty of parents to have their children educated to the highest standard consistent with their means.

No other enterprise is more worthy and deserving of State aid than bona fide reservoir and canal undertakings. These enterprises are doing more to encourage the settlement of arid lands than any other agency. We have in mind one such undertaking in this county, the Enterprise Reservoir and Canal company.

The object of this company is to conine the waters of Shoal creek in Little Pine valley by a dam of masonry 80 feet high, 150 feet at the bottom and 8 feet wide at top, footed by a bank of earth 100 feet wide at bottom with a slope 24 inches to each foot to the top. This will form a reservoir one mile long by half a mile wide with an average depth of 45 feet of water, which will serve to irrigate 2,500 acres of land as good as any in the State.—Washington County News.

CEDAR CITY.

Mr. Decker gave an instructive and interesting lecture on "Wind and Rainfall," in the Normal building last Saturday evening.

Drs. Middleton and Pike performed a successful operation last week in the removal of a tumor from the wrist of Miss Lucy Burgess, one of our normal students.

Judging from the weary looks and blistered hands of some of our young ladies, we imagine that they must be accomplishing something in the normal training room.

Our Saturday evening socialics are well attended. The programs consist of current topics, sketches and debates, also recitations, vocal and instrumental music.

This winter Cedar City and vicinity seems to have been selected for special snowfalls, Naturally the question arises, what have we done?

A company of dramatically inclined people assembled in the ward hall last Tuesday evening. A temporary organization was effected with Dr. G. W. Middleton as chairman and Miss Euphemia Munier, secretary. Those present expressed themselves as heartily in sympathy with the proposed organization and were willing to do active work in furthering the interests of the same. A committee consisting of the following members was selected to draft an appropriate set of by-laws for the association: Mrs. H. Dyke, Chas. S. Wilkinson and Miss Bessie Parry. As soon as the by-laws have been prepared another meeting will be called to accept them and effect a permanent organization, when real work will commence.—Iron County Record.

GUNNISON.

Gunnison, Jan. 30.—John E. Larson buried his infant child yesterday. On Saturday Amos Sanderson also laid away an infant following its mother, who died shortly after giving it birth about a week ago. The sympathies of the people go out to these families in their bereavement.

In regard to the establishment of a sugar factory here, the committee have secured the co-operation of the farmers, to the extent that many will put in experimental patches this season, to show up the quality of beets that the soil of Gunnison and neighborhood will produce, on a more extended scale than has been tried before. The people, together with their committee, are sanguine of success in the business and the establishment of the industry and factory in 1900.

Frederick Ludvigsen and his associate school trustees, will be offended simple scope for their executive skill as servants of the people, in building the five school houses this season, in the large district under their supervision, embracing an area of about fifty square miles. No wonder the saying has gone abroad "Great is Gunnison," with such a school district. Twenty-four thousand acres of land under its canals, and a new townsite on the bench adjoining north of the present town (which President Young years ago said would be located,) embracing about seven hundred acres; most truly, Great is Gunnison. A. J.

PINE VALLEY.

The majority of our men have gone to Do La Mar to spend the winter hauling wood, or performing any other work that promises remuneration. Most of the minority are on the range looking after the interests of their cattle.

B. A. Gardner, while chasing some horses through the field the other day, met with quite an accident. His horse fell on him, spraining his ankle and bruising his foot badly. He suffered considerable pain the night following the accident, but he thinks he will be around again in a few days.

The late snowfall of about one foot has been followed by beautiful spring weather. While we appreciate the pleasantness of the situation, we realize that present convenience will be paid for in future disaster. In view of the necessities of the case, I think a good, old-fashioned Pine Valley snow storm, covering up fences, etc., would be acceptable now.

Jesse Gardner was riding very fast through town when his horse slipped and fell, throwing him violently forward onto the frozen ground, bruising his face very badly and giving him quite a shaking up in general. His upper lip is crushed and mutilated and one ankle and knee are slightly sprained. It is not thought the unfortunate boy will sustain any very serious injuries. However, he will be laid up for several weeks.—Washington County News.

ELSINORE.

There was a beauty dance given at Central last night for John Reverbe, who is off on a mission.

A proposition is now on the program to build a nice hall in the spring not to cost less than $1,500. That opera house will be a sure thing yet.

Mrs. Alida Webb-Clark is now teaching in the Brooklyn branch of the Monroe public school. The Brooklyn patrons are indeed fortunate in being able to secure so capable a teacher and accomplished a lady to teach their children.

Mr. Dan Hanson, who recently arrived home from his mission to the Hawaiian Islands, made a very interesting talk Sunday afternoon in regard to his work there. He speaks in the highest terms of the natives of that island.

IN THE SOCIAL HELM.

There was a pleasant party at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reeder on Thursday evening.

A jolly crowd of friends assembled at the cozy residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Peterson on Tuesday evening and had a royal good time.

One of the most pleasant gatherings of the season was the chum social and supper at the capacious residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. Dalund last Wednesday. It was one of the grandest events that has taken place as yet in Elsinore. After the elegant supper was spread and all had partaken of the delicacies of the season, dancing and singing was sent in order. There were about eighty-five present, and to say that everybody enjoyed themselves is placing it mild.

On Tuesday evening last Mrs. Annie C. Larson invited a large crowd of her friends to come and enjoy a pleasant time with her at her elegant home in east Elsinore. The house was crowded to its full capacity. An elegant supper was served about 9 o'clock, after which singing and a general good time was had. The supper was given mainly in honor of our departing missionary, Mr. James Christiansen. Mrs. Larson is an entertaining hostess.—Sevier County Times.

FISH SPRINGS.

A special correspondent of the Tribune, under date of Jan. 27, gives the following account of a startling tragedy in Fish Springs.

BEST CLEMENS SHOT.

We learn this morning from E. W. Culp of Willow Springs of the cold-blooded murder of Mr. Best Clemens, a very popular young miner and prospector of Pleasant Valley. While Pine county, Nev., by one Gill Hamilton.

It is said Hamilton waylaid Clemens and shot him to death on the trail leading from the Flood ranch to a prospect belonging to Mr. Fred Parker, in which young Clemens was going to get some tools preparatory to starting out on a prospecting tour.

The shooting occurred at about 12 o'clock on the 20th, yesterday.

Great indignation is felt toward Hamilton, and if the boys get him there may be a hot time in Pleasant Valley for somebody.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

EVANSTON, WYOMING.

A conductor running east and with quite an adventure Tuesday morning. While coming at a short time with his train at Carter station he discovered a huge mountain lion crouched within the yards to the north of the station. He went to the caboose and, seizing a rifle, fired a couple of shots, which missed the lion, but came close enough to stir him up a little. The beast commenced crawling and growling. Finally walking off over the brow of the hill. The conductor started after his lordship, but could see no more of him, the beast having fled or secreted himself in some thicket.

An Chinese woman with a family of children was a passenger on the eastbound train last Tuesday. They were from California, bound for the eastern states. At Aspen station, about a very mile east of Evanston, the second highest point on the line of the road, the woman became almost unmanageable and getting out of the platform tried to escape, but was held by force of the trainmen, who succeeded in forcing her back to the car. She made a lunge for one that she was in some city where she was acquainted and begged and implored the train men to allow her to go "foot and leg" back to "Frisco Bell." Cases of insanity are quite frequent on the trains crossing the continent.—Evanston News-Register.

PRESTON, IDAHO.

The dance given in the academy last Monday evening proved a great success, there being 102 numbers sold. A number of young ladies had very pretty baskets containing delicacies, such as cake, pie, oranges, etc., which were auctioned off about 11 o'clock, and added greatly to the merriment and enjoyment of the evening. The baskets sold all the way from 25 cents to $1, but we are informed that the prettiest basket sold for $1.15. The Preston academy is one of the finest institutions of its kind in the State, and the faculty never fail to know how to have a right good social time at their parties, and everybody is treated the very best.

A week ago some parties broke into the store of J. G. Smith and helped themselves to some canned goods, and other articles that they thought might be useful. The parties left a Chester hot a fine bay mare, and also W. C. Parkinson was relieved of a fine driving horse, and a buggy belonging to Chas. Crookston. In honor of the wedding of Miss May Fisher to their son, John Crookston. The bride was beautifully attired in a very pretty silk dress, wearing orange blossoms. The groom wore the regulation wedding suit. The presents were numerous and costly. The young couple have the best wishes of the entire community.

Rachael Clements of this place has gone to Star Valley, Wyo., and there was married to Mr. Sam Keagan. Miss May Buckley of this place has gone away to get married to a Mr. Hale of Lost River.—Pocatello Tribune.

The worst after effects of influenza arise from deranged liver. Cure of the liver. Clear the blood at once with HERBINE, for it will strengthen the liver to withstand the depressing attention the biliary poisons. Price 50 cents. Z. C. M. I.

OXFORD, IDAHO.

We are having a big thaw and the sticking is getting very bad in consequence thereof.

Next Saturday there will be a meeting of the school teachers of the county at this place, when the county superintendent is expected to be present.

A good many of the cattle men have to haul hay from the ranches where it was purchased, and it was going so fast makes the hauling very bad.

A wedding reception was held a few nights ago at the residence of Chas. Crookston, in honor of the wedding of Miss May Fisher to their son, John Crookston. The bride was beautifully attired in a very pretty silk dress, wearing orange blossoms. The groom wore the regulation wedding suit. The presents were numerous and costly. The young couple have the best wishes of the entire community.
